

Death Warrants & Hope For Our Nation 10-5-20@9:44 AM Journal Entry

“It’s okay Child, it’s okay. I’ve got this! It’s okay. You knew this day was coming, for I have been leading you to prepare for many months now. It’s okay. It is here. War is here and it’s exactly right on time. It’s okay Child. It’s okay dear Little One. Many of prayers you have prayed as you lay prone across your lounge in your living room. Weeping, just weeping for all that has come upon man for his refusal to repent. I, Child, dear Little One, I have ever so gently, lovingly collected each of those precious tears. I’ve got them placed safely in their golden vial Child. Precious treasure given freely to Father God and Me on behalf of the many people of your world. Brace yourself Child, for the impact when your president’s speech makes contact with your world’s atmosphere, for remember Child, the power of life and death is in the tongue, the little tongue. The smallest, yet, one of the most powerful weapons you possess in your earthly body only to be surpassed by your brain, wherein the mind and thoughts of man lies within. When your president issues this speech, this long awaited speech against the land of the people belonging to the king of the east known as China concerning this spreading of this ever mutating Coronavirus called Covid-19 in its entirety, and not of being in partial amounts, his words will begin the countdown to the beginning, the literal start to this war of nations. In the using of the power of his tongue, he will have just signed literally the death warrant for not only many of your people in your once great nation, but of the queen of the east, the UK's region, which will be struck during the days in which these strikes are to occur.”

“Kim Jong Un’s land of North Korea, of Iraq, and Persia, now known as Iran of today, and of the land of the evil Putin’s land of the bear, of Russia shall all have many deaths to occur when these weapons of the nuclei begin issuing back and forth from these identified lands. All party to the 1st phase of this war of nations which is to be the releasing of the weapons of the nuclei through this war of nations. The 2nd phase, Child, is the actual invasion of your once great nation, and phase 3 is the recovery process when your nation as a whole people began returning back to My loving arms, not all, but more so than those who are faithful to Me now. I am Jesus, Child, your beloved, and when your people begin as a whole people start crying out to Me in true repentance, then yes, Child, yes, I will most definitely step in on your country’s behalf. Because not only does true repentance of one’s heart restore their fellowship with Me, it also brings healing to one’s heart, and this will cause healing to ignite across your land, the very earth itself. I am the cure, the only cure for sin Child, and even your very earth has become diseased and affected by man’s many sins. So yes, Child, with the healing of man’s heart and soul, restoration begins on your land as well, and you will find the closer you draw unto Me, both as a whole people, or individually the sooner healing and restoration will take place.”

“Have not I promised already Child, that when your people of your once great nation begin returning, so shall their dry, crackly land start producing food again? Their waters once contaminated from the residue shall run crystal clear once again which according to man’s ways of thinking should be an impossibility. But not for Me when you put it into the proper perspective. I created the water from a spoken command, and with My same powerful voice, I can command that which I have created to become pure and clear once again. I will also as I have said priorly, when I become the hope for your people as a whole once again, I shall cause these battles that you are facing more times than not, to be changed from the woes of defeat to the ecstatic cries of victory. Because when I am your Lord, your God, I will step in on behalf of those who are Mine. My return is what shall stop this war of nations once it has started upon your world. Child, it is here already, and has already started within the spiritual realm, with your physical realm just moments away from its starting as of now.”

“Remember Child, I am not only your nation’s hope, I, Jesus, am the hope for every lost soul upon your world, for I died for all. Even those you will call enemy and friend. So watch Child, watch and pray continuously, for you are about to face the horrors of war upon your world, and in the form of war like never seen before. Because war is horrible enough when man just uses their weaponries of guns and ammunition, but you have entered the period in your world wherein these have become obsolete. Just as the spears, bow and arrows, and swords of former days past. War is here Child, it’s here Child, so run to Me and weep no more. You will wait no more Child, for it’s over. It’s done. It’s all been completed, and it is now finished. It’s time to pray and never, ever stop praying ever again.”

Note to self: God & Jesus will take care of theirs so our nation’s people can survive until it is to be no more.
