

Alaska and the Draft 1-7-20@9:30 PM Journal Entry

“I feel very uneasy about the fast approaching hour of 12:30 AM. Am I missing something God? What is it? What do you need me to do?” “Write, Child, write these words that I speak to you and do not falter, for war has just started to progress and life as you know it is going to change drastically. Keep your eyes focused on Me Child. When these things start breaking forth as I reveal them to you all men will be amazed. Do not let yourself get lifted up in pride or vain glory, for no man shall receive the honor due to Me. It is I, Child, who reveals all to you and not you within yourself.” “You are right God and I, I do not ever want to have my heart filled with pride. I want to be so filled with Your great love that I won’t have room for anything else.”

“God?” “Yes, Child.” “Tell me what is still yet to come. Is something about to take place? My friend also said earlier when she called that Iran, Russia, and China were all looking for excuses to attack us. These are the 3 You gave me prior warning about.” “Yes, Child.” “Then she also said that Iraq had voted to remove all the American soldiers out of the country but stopped when President Trump told them he would put sanctions on them. What are sanctions God, for she told me but I cannot recall?” “Sanctions are the taxes raised against the goods of a country whether buying or selling. A sanction itself is a threatened penalty for disobeying a rule or law. They need the money they make off of selling you their goods Child, and you, your nation, needs the petroleum that they supply. Without it your nation will become crippled as the war progresses and Child, I have already, shall We say, clued you into the fact that gas would be hard to come by.” “Will this be due to lack of availability or due to the high cost?” “It will be both Child, for Alaska alone does not hold the ability to support the needs, the demands needed to supply your country with the oil.” “Does Alaska supply us with oil and gas, God?”

“Partially, Child, but as war progresses this too shall be more difficult for many of your men shall be called into service for war needs soldiers and America is sadly lacking in her numbers today.” “You are speaking again about a draft aren’t You God?” “Yes, Child, this is what you call it. I have warned you of one friend, a young man who shall be called into service but there will be more starting with the young and as war progresses so shall the age of drafting expand. It’s okay Child, for I’ve got this. Always have, always will.” “I know God, I know and even though I don’t understand, I trust you and I love You. Just as Job said in Job 13:15 Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him, so do I also feel this way.” “I know, Child, I know.

Words from Jesus Christ in the he U.S, Russia, Kazakhstan Dream 1/07/22 @ 10:01 AM concerning war.

“What exactly does all this mean?” “It’s simple,” Jesus said. “Daughter, the first phase of war has begun. The start of it, on the eve of it all, with ‘Me’ being the ‘all!’
