

Not All Children Speak My Truth 4-10-26@6:16PM

Beware in this time of deception of children presenting dreams and visions that speak with lies and deception. For what better way to deceive My own than through those they think are innocent? If all children were innocent, I would not have ordered Moses and Joshua and others to kill every man, woman and child in some locations. You must try, test, and discern every person, all things My children lest you be caught in the enemy's traps.
