“Blessed Savior, thank You for this breath of life, this gift this morning for although I hurt, I hurt a lot, it tells me I am still alive and that You still have more for me to do. I thank You for the small things in life as well as the big for You are in control of it all. I’m grateful Lord, very grateful and thankful for all the love and the goodness that You have shown and are still showing me. Help me Jesus, to walk in Your likeness, to become Your hands, Your feet, Your voice. I desire to speak no malice to any man for I truly realize that we hold within our mouths... the power of life and death. Surely words can wound and destroy or they can bring hope or encouragement, so help me Jesus, to walk in Your footsteps and not follow my own paths and choices. When I try to do things my way I find myself failing miserably.” “That’s because Child, without the leading of My precious Holy Spirit who knows and can foresee all the snares, the gins, and the traps that your enemy satan has laid out for your life you would run into most. You might be able to avoid maybe 1 or 2 at the most but without My presence, My love in your life, you are doomed to fail.”

“War is coming Child and it’s coming fast! Think it not strange that your world has been almost brought to a halt, to a stand still by a single little germ and while your world has been made to slow down, many will return back to Me for I am still their God although their hearts have been unfaithful, Mine has not. I love all with unending, everlasting love. After your world begins to heal from this virus and all the chaos it has caused, many hearts shall return back into this world again but some will not and shall remain within My perfect love. But you will have very little time for healing for just within a short period of time this war of nations shall begin. I tell you with all surety Putin, that Russia behind closed doors has formed a verbal alliance with that of Persia, of Iran who has brought Iraq into this agreement also to strike your nation and striking their first blow, their 1st strike while your nation is still struggling to recover, for why wait until your full strength has recovered? All is not at rest, at peace in the region of land you call the middle east and even though it has always been an area of great unrest, it is now sitting on the brink of war against your once great nation Even now it is a ticking bomb ready to ignite.
