

War Like None Before 3-3-20@5:21 AM Journal Entry

“Tell My people to keep their eyes to the Heavens for surely I am coming again, just as I have proclaimed in My Holy Word. The signs of the times are all around. War is at hand and shall soon overtake your world while various others continue throughout your globe. When you see all these things come to pass you have been told to look up for your redemption draweth nigh. For I am not man that I should lie. I am God, God of all creation and I do not possess the ability to lie unto man, for there is no sin found within My holy being nor shall there ever be. Keep watch and be ever vigil for I shall still come like a thief in the night and all eyes of every man, woman and child shall behold My glorious appearing when I step forth out of Heaven’s gates and split wide open these eastern skies and I shall little children. Father God tells Me it won’t be long, it will not be long now! Watch and pray and do not slack for now is not the time to let up for you will need My strength and guidance as this world is drawn into the grip of war.

This war of nations shall be like none other before it for the weapons of which they use to fight with are of much more severity of those in times past with your weapons of the nuclei and your weapons you call biological and chemical. Even now your world is facing death at the hands of a virus you call Corona, how much more so shall you suffer when one is intentionally released? Pray, My Children for it is appointed unto man once to die and then the judgement, but some will suffer much from the hands of evil men with wicked hearts led by satan their master who takes great delight in watching mankind, My beloved creation suffer. Even those who don’t love and serve Me for it makes no difference to him as long as they suffer.”

“Help us Jesus, for how can we stand against so much evil and destruction?” “Through your authority that you have in Me Child, by My Name and through My blood, for My Name is a Name above all others and through it you have all power and authority against the powers of your enemy satan to all who truly believe. If you have faith of a grain of mustard, of its seed, ask what you will according to the divine leading of My Holy Spirit and it shall surely come to pass, for I am no respecter of persons and what I have done for one I shall surely do for another. Child, this war of nations shall surely come to pass and as you have noticed when I allowed you to look at the headlines for 3-1-20 that Kim Jong Un has once again launched missiles, testing their distance. This is just to let you know Child, that his heart is still set upon war and power. I tell you again it is the tests conducted under the ground where he is testing his weapons of the nuclei wherein the true concern lies and whereas your country will not be made aware of his true capabilities. He now has the power of the nuclei contained in missiles that shall travel far and yes, they shall be able at their designated time ordained and allowed by Me to reach your United States as you call them. For you, the eagle shall already be suffering from the first strike from the weapons of the nuclei at the hand of Putin and the bear that he has unleashed upon your country shortly after joining and becoming allies with Persia, with Iran after their official war declaration made within a few days.”

“I know Child, that you are having trouble seeing all these things take place visibly. I tell you now that spiritually they have all lined up already.” “Forgive me Jesus, but You do not let me watch the news and when I do look at the headlines, the majority of them is about this Corona Virus which I have found out through my friend and briefly on the internet is a respiratory disease.” “It is ordained by Me for all must see, must realize what is about to come upon the earth for you shall see more and more of these diseases and plagues both known and unknown as the time of judgment draws closer at which time they shall all run rampant across your world. During the time of judgment when Father God steps off His Throne of Grace and sits down upon the Seat of Judgment, then His great wrath as well as My wrath, the wrath of the Lamb shall be released fully upon the earth. These many wars, earthquakes and great tragedies that are occurring now is Our attempt to get man's attention and to call him unto repentance while there is still time. When the time of judgment begins, few shall come to Me for few shall truly be saved. Child, your president as well as Putin the leader of the bear are necessary pieces in this puzzle of life, for Putin after joining forces with Persia, with Iran shall move into the position of lead and with his charismatic charm to some yet his cruel evil threats to others, he shall persuade many to follow his leadership and join against your country, the eagle in this war of nations. Many of these countries, these nations oppressed by your government at the leadership of your president Trump, shall follow and join Putin and Iran.
