

They're Coming! 5-3-20@1:58 AM Journal Entry

“They're coming, they're coming, get ready Child, for they are marching upon your nation. Hear that noise?” “Yes, Jesus, I do! What is it?” “It is the sound of marching feet upon your soil, the sand.” “The sand, God?” “Yes, Child, the sand. For rest assured as they begin embarking from their vessels of the deep in their united coalition, China the king of the east, and the said forces of Putin, then woe, for before embarking upon this port, exchanges of fire were done, driving your vessels all save one, unable to move. Dead in the water as you say, for they were badly outnumbered, because the combined forces of Putin and China shall be massive in the sight of men. This shall come to pass. So get ready Child, for the sound of distant feet are already on their way!”
