Drink Up this Cup of Fury America- Babylon 11-1-26@5:39 AM

Note: When the Lord Jesus Christ or Father God uses a word such as 'today,' He can mean the very day we're living in, or an appointed day in the future He is speaking about.

America-Babylon you are as the sisters Aholah & Aholibah. Your idolatry and lewdness with other nations has outdone both of these women of old written about in My Holy Word. You are the same, of the same heart, only in a modern generation. You cause the death of your own children by your evil, wicked ways and actions. You cause them to pass through the fires like the older generations did for their false gods. Only the death you cause your children to face is first spiritual, before the physical to follow. The wages of sin is death.

Your lack of morals and integrity, your evil doings and open worship of knowledge, science, movie stars, of self, of idols, of money, of sexual immoralities has caused your idolatrous ways to only increase into that of a love affair with sin, with the devil and his kingdom.

I give to you the same cup I gave to Aholibah and Aholah. Now you drink it! You shall drink it all until there is nothing left. Like a great fury your lovers of other nations you gave yourself away to that caused your riches to increase that you soon became disgusted with shall be those that rise up and strike you down oh faithless, murderous Babylon-America. They should do this now!

Oh great harlot city of Babylon, here the word of your Lord and God who judges you righteously. Your lovers you have defiled yourself with then cast aside as the leftover garbage has risen against you. They have taken up arms and shall strike you down from within. It is only through your destruction that your harlotry will stop. Today is that day.

I warned you repeatedly out of love to repent. Instead you ran further into your sins taking with you not just your city but your whole nation. You fall as one.... Your harlot city first...that of Manhattan, New York, then your harlot nation Babylon-America.

The first blow shall cripple you to your knees, but it won't be your nose and ears I remove like Aholibah's, but your finances, your wealth and control. Those that you hate oh, once great nation of America are those I have called to rise up against you to strike the death blow to your city this day. Followed by the calling to arms of further war and invasion.

Drink up America-Babylon! Drink up the cup I've given you until it's all gone. The cup of fury, the cup of sorrow, of destruction....all the dregs of desolation and calamity. This is the cup you have now received for your harlotry and idolatry. Now drink up! Drink up, I say and finish it all, for this day has arrived for you evil, wicked Babylon-America.

Thus I have spoken and thus it is for I'm Jesus the Christ. Yeshua Ha' Mashiach, God's Son and Righteous Judge of All. I judge all in righteousness. You're out of time. Hear Me....out of time.
