

The 3D Invasion Map of the US Dream 4-16-26@12:59 AM Shared 4-17-26

“Jesus Christ, I dream again, my love. I have prayed over it and about the contents, and this dream also discerns from You that all I do, Daddy God, bring You glory, sweet friend, Holy Ghost Spirit. I trust you. Don't let me write one word that's not from Father God, my lovely Jesus Christ, or You Spirit of Truth and Power.” “I won't, Daughter of Zion.”

The dream began when I found myself looking down at a map of the world, like what you can buy with the bodies of water and seaports listed on it. I can tell that someone had been making notations on the map around the United States. These notations are written in various locations. I walked over closer to the large table the map was displayed on to see if I could read any other written notations. The closer I got, I could see they were written in black ink or marker in a clean, clear printed writing in English. “Surely, I will be able to read them, at least some of them,” I said out loud to myself. I reached the table. I leaned over to get a clear view of some of the markings, and as I did, the map seemed to come alive with 3D holographic images displayed on the table. Actually, they were slightly above the table map itself suspended in the air. “What is this?” I asked out loud as surprise filled my eyes at the 3D images. They were holographic images. The world map had turned into what looked like a battle plan attack simulation. “What am I seeing, Jesus Christ?” I asked out loud. “You’ve shown me in the past by dreams and visions about and even spoken to me in great detail of these coming things. Why show me this unless.....?” I stopped for a moment then asked out loud, “Jesus Christ, is there more not yet revealed? How much more can there be left?” I heard a noise to my left.

I turned to see walking in my direction was my lovely Jesus Christ. He was dressed in solid white with a tan overcoat over the white shirt and pants. Beside him was the Archangel Michael. “Whoa,” I said, “this must be some kind of war meeting for both of You to be here.” As He drew nearer, I couldn't refrain myself any longer and I ran into my Savior's arms. “Jesus, I love You,” I cried out as He wrapped His loving arms around me. I heard His warm reply filled with love. “I love you too, My Daughter.” He held me a little longer and a lot of the sorrow and heartache I had been battling recently seemed to fade away. Finally, He let go of me and looked me in the eyes as He said, “I have something to show you.” I looked at Him intently and then replied, “Okay, I'm here, I'm watching and listening.” He took me by the left hand and led me back to the table with the map spread out. I glanced up at Michael the Holy Angel briefly and gave him a quick smile, but in seriousness, it was more like an acknowledgment of his presence here at the table with us. Jesus Christ turned toward me and said, “Daughter, not all of this can be revealed. What needs to be unspoken must be so, for it involves the second exodus and the safety of My children during these times. It is necessary for you yourself to have a clear understanding though.” “Okay,” I replied solemnly. “Good,” He replied and then said, “Michael, you may begin.”

The Holy Angel bowed slightly with great respect given to my lovely Jesus Christ. The holographic 3D figures were still displayed on the map table. He pointed to the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans on opposite sides of the U.S. “As you have learned already, Daughter of Zion, when the invasion begins of your nation, the Chinese with others shall aid in the first stage of the invasion and shall come through these two bodies of water. Do not forget they shall also come through the underground systems of tunnels networks by way of Canada from beneath the ground,” Michael said quickly. “I do remember this well, Michael,” I replied. “Good,” he said. “What most don't realize is during the majority of the invasion, the United States or Babylon, as she has been named in heaven, will have been divided for her beginning part of causing Israel to become a divided nation, divided land. This will cause another body of water where the Mississippi River once ran. It will still be a narrower body of water. If the enemies of Babylon try to invade in the narrow area, they will become vulnerable to attacks. This information we now release from Heaven because it will aid the King of all kings, our Captain of the host, Jesus, Yeshua's children and those of your broken nation still trying to defend it. This will give more of the Lamb's children,” Michael said as he pointed to my lovely Jesus Christ, “a chance to get to a safer location as the second exodus begins.” I heard my lovely Jesus Christ speak up and say, “Do not forget Daughter, the safe camp locations are for all your brothers and sisters in Me, left behind from all over the world and not just Babylon-America. It will take time to get all of them to safety.” He pointed to a spot on the map and said, “This location is not to be shared. As you travel from place to place, nation to nation, you will learn of what I have commanded to be pickup locations. This one, commit to your memory,” He finished saying. I nodded my head to him that I did as he had instructed me.

He continued to speak then, “Putin's forces will invade through New York and Alaska at first with other nations, aiding him. Do not forget Daughter that Putin's forces have the exosuits that will allow his soldiers to walk through areas that have had nuclear weapons used with very little effect on his soldiers. So does Xi Jinping, but his numbers are limited because he has worked on his suits of protection that also project the appearance of invisibility for their many hybrid soldiers.” “I do remember,” I replied quickly to my lovely Jesus Christ. Michael pointed to Virginia as he said, “The main port will be invaded, but only after some of the soldiers have answered the call to assist in New York and related areas.” Jesus Christ looked at me and said, “Daughter, this is all after New York Manhattan's is struck, the darkness has fallen, I've come for My bride, and the 10 hidden suitcases have been detonated. Then when all eyes are focused on the actions of China, the king of the East and the United States of Babylon, as she struggles to try to still be a power on broken legs and have been knocked out from underneath her, Putin will fire his first nuclear strike on America Babylon. This is something I have been warning... for years. Many, many of My children would come to pass after warning upon warning. Your nation has failed to repent. So she will fall and be destroyed for being a nation of power again. The strongest nations must be weakened for antichrist to be able to rule your world unhindered. There will be more that will be weakened inside her still yet,” He finished saying.

I looked up at my lovely Jesus Christ and said, “It's evidently seen that the weakening of our nation has already begun. For years we've been sending weapons and support to various other nations, including Ukraine and Israel. Now with the war against Iran, we're depleting what weapons we had left to defend this nation and this, You have told me, has been deliberately done by those inside of America's own walls. It's an inside job as we call it here in the US.” “Very good Daughter of Mine,” I heard my lovely Jesus Christ say to me, and then He turned back to the war map. “Michael, show her the other places not yet revealed,” He said, “those that the enemy are planning on targeting by other means of devices and weapons.” I looked at them in surprise and asked, “What other locations? Haven't we been targeted enough?” Michael gave me a look of understanding. Then he spoke, "Your nation covers a large territory of land to ensure she falls completely as a power. Other locations will become targeted," as he began pointing to the different states, I made mental notes. "Vermont, Maine, Indiana, Iowa, Colorado, Nevada, and Oregon. So many others," I said solemnly. Yes, Daughter of Zion, there are many," Michael said quickly, and then continued. "Some of these areas will also have safe locations, the safe camps for Yeshua, Jesus' children to gather. But there will also be the so-called safe camps and zones of the government military where your nation's people, many will flee to in hopes of protection, food, and safety. For some, they will find it there, but the majority will end up being drafted forcibly in the end in your nation's military draft because they will be desperate for soldiers to fight the many invaders that have come."

I looked at the map, studying it as I did, I heard my lovely Jesus Christ say softly, "America-Babylon will not be sunk until My children are removed from her shores either by Me or death. Remember this is also the time of antichrist's rule?" "You're right," I replied. Michael, the holy Angel, spoke up and said, "The people of the earth have it wrong. They look at the tribulation period as the foretold antichrist being the worst thing that has come to your world at this time, which will be a terrible time he leads the world into, but the tribulation period is the great day of the Lamb's wrath. It's the outpouring of the great God, the Almighty One of Heaven's Son, unleashing His wrath on an ungodly world in His unchecked fury, righteous anger, and controlled holy judgment. That far outweighs what the man of sin can do on his best day," Michael finished saying. "Well, Michael, you're right," I agreed with him quickly. I looked over at my lovely Jesus Christ and managed a small smile, even during such a serious moment in time as I said, "Even in all this, You are still taking care of Your children, all of them." "Yes, I am," He replied, and then I awoke.
