

The Pre-Programming of Man's Mind & the Truth Dream 6-14-26@2:11 AM Shared 6-27-26

It started with me hearing, "Daughter... Daughter, beloved of Mine, the hour has come for Babylon to fall as found written in My Holy Word."

I found myself at a small square foldable table and I'm sitting in a metal chair. I looked around to see I'm in an office cubicle size room. The walls are solid white and so was the ceiling and floor. To the right of me I saw a white door with a white door frame and door handle. I looked down at myself to see I was also dressed in solid white. The room began to fill with a bright light. It was so brilliant, but I knew instinctively the light wouldn't hurt me. I felt no alarm. I soon recognized the holy presence of My Father God in Heaven. The light, I knew, was His glory shining down separately, or with the presence of someone holy that had not appeared yet. I heard myself whisper softly, "Jesus Christ my Love, shine Your glorious light into our world, this created firmament. Drive back the shadows of lucifer, of satan's lies and let Your truth, the truth of all things be revealed for Your Word says You are truth. This whole world lies in wickedness."

I heard my lovely Jesus Christ's voice speak to me from the glorious radiant light. "I am Daughter. I'm revealing the hidden things and bringing them to light. A revealing time has come to the world of man to where there will no longer be an area of gray, but only black and white. Truth or deception. As these things are revealed then know Daughter, even though faced with irrefutable proof of the truth many will still choose, by the preferential choice, to believe the lie. Just like a woman of age who has a daughter and remarries another man who in the hidden hours of night chooses to sleep with her daughter unaware. When discovered, for all hidden things will be discovered, the woman like most others will reject the truth. She would choose to believe the report of her husband over that of her daughter who is the victim, because she does not want to believe the truth. She does not want to think she could have been so wrong, that she had been deceived. She refuses to believe that the man she chose to marry could do such a thing, so she rejects the truth. The fear of being rejected, the fear of losing, true love, she thinks, is too unbearable."

"She will choose to believe the husband for her own sake, her own happiness, her own peace of mind over the truth of what has been done to her daughter in her own home. She chooses not to face the facts that she could have been so easily deceived. Not her, an educated woman. The end result is the woman will accuse the daughter of lying when she in fact was speaking the truth that's been hidden and crying out to be heard. The mother will cast the daughter out of her home and keep the deceiving husband who not only lied to her, abused her daughter, tried to hide the facts and placed the blame on her innocent daughter who was trying to tell the truth. The lies and deception this woman-mother chose to believe over the truth revealed, also separated her from her daughter standing in the truth, destroying the very relationship of mother and daughter."

Suddenly, I saw a form of a man start walking toward me from inside the brilliant light. It's my lovely Jesus Christ. He is no longer just a brilliant light shining like the sun. He's holiness and the glory of Father God. Now He's standing dressed in solid white. His white hair reached to his shoulders and His skin was the color of finest brass, more beautiful than the finished light brass items we have here on the earth that are machine and man-made. His eyes, His eyes are blue with pupils of flaming fire. He's holiness in a walking form. All I could do was cry when I saw Him. I sat still at the table unmoving as tears flowed down my face. He walked up to the little table in the small room, reached up and with His right hand began wiping the tears from my eyes. I began crying more as I dropped my head. "He is so holy and if not for Him, I could never be. He paid all He could give to redeem us," I said in my thoughts. "Yes, I did Daughter," I heard Him say as I felt His hand on my chin. He lifted it up where I could look at Him. "Daughter, be strengthened," He said softly and immediately I felt new strength surged through my body. "Thank You," I whispered. "You're welcome," He replied with a Holy smile.

After my tears had stopped fully, He began speaking to me once again. "The truth revealed is not always an easy thing for man to see. Once revealed then the truth must either be at some time received or rejected. Most in this world will reject the truth, just like they have rejected Me because I am truth. Because My existence upon the Earth and all I did for mankind, My presence causes them to face the truth and the truth of their sins they have committed. When truth stands next to lies and deception, the truth shall stand while the lies and deceptions shall fall because Daughter, I am the truth. I exist in all things, as all things have been created by Me at Father's command." He paused for a moment and looked at me with compassion filled eyes. Then He said softly, "The truth is not always easy to bear or to be received. Those weak in mind and spirit will choose for the easy way out. They will discard the truth, follow the lies, because knowing the truth Daughter in any situation, about anyone or anything many times, even most times, will leave you standing alone in your belief and stand for the truth."

"I know my Lord," I replied. "It's like we say sometimes. If you stand for the truth, you're the one alone in the canoe paddling against the force of the river or stream in its opposite direction of its flow. While the rest of the world chooses to believe the lies and deception and travel along the river wherever it takes them, not even taking time to use their paddles provided to push away and avoid debris or rocks in the water. They just keep traveling carelessly down the stream or down the river of lies and deception of our world mostly put in place by the devil and his kingdom. It's not easy paddling upstream against the force of the current. Sometimes it becomes very hard and difficult, but if you keep on paddling, keep on seeking, praying, asking for the truth in all things in Your Name Jesus Christ, you will finally arrive at where you were headed and that is the truth you were seeking," I finish saying. "Yes Daughter yes," my lovely Jesus Christ replied as He looked at me intently. Then He said, "Daughter, part of the reason it's so hard, even difficult for people to believe the truth, and why deception abounds so much more, is for centuries through the devil schemes and plans he and his kingdom have been pre-programming man's beliefs to defy what is written in My Word and ingraining into them instilled beliefs that causes doubt. All the years of schooling, all the flooding of information that's targeted to restructure man's mind and way of thinking based on hidden lies and deception makes it much easier to dismiss the truth."

He looked at me again and I could see a flash of holy anger in His eyes that I knew somehow was because of how mankind had been manipulated and deceived so much by the fallen ones' kingdom. After a moment He begins speaking again. "Think back to the matrix movie Daughter, we spoke about. This world is not a computer simulation where the people are living in a computer generated reality with their minds plugged into a machine. It's simple to see why so many still believe this as the movie in advance planted the deceptive idea, the lie into the whole world in the form of entertainment. Although, in reality it was predictive planning and programming of the people's minds, so when the time came for the AI to become consciously aware, meaning demon possessed, and the technology could be used to simulate, to manipulate the eyes and mind of the world's population all the needed events and occurrences to make you believe the lie and deception you're living in a simulated reality. You now have the spirit of agreement rising up into the world and atmosphere. A stronghold of lies and deception that is difficult to break as these ties will unite all over the world like webs of deception that only truth can shatter and break."

I looked at my lovely Jesus Christ in surprise, but in great awe too. "This makes sense to me, Lord Jesus Christ. What You're saying, if I understand correctly, is the whole world, nation by nation in many ways in a united cause are bringing the fallen ones' plans and the control of our world to fruition with the final result being a one-world government and ruler which would be the foretold antichrist from Your Holy Word. We the people are being taught to doubt, including to doubt Your Holy Word. We're taught and pre-programmed through years and years of conditioning through teaching, so called scientific facts, media, entertainment like movies, books, plays, and so much more to doubt what Your Word says. Another example, Jesus Christ would be You walked on top of the water in Matthew 14. Yet the world says it's impossible. That goes against the scientific theories and laws for this world, that gravity will not allow it. "This is how the world's created," science cries out. Or if they choose to acknowledge Your existence and say it was possible for You, they will cry out and say it's only because of who You are."

I looked at my lovely Jesus Christ intently, then continued speaking. "It's easy to recognize and see the preconditioning and the programming of doubt by the laws of science or the theories they present as their evidence stating this cannot be done. Man cannot walk on the water because the force of gravity would pull him into the water. Yet, so many forgot Peter walked on the water too. Your Holy Word doesn't say how many steps he took, but Jesus Christ, You were far enough away in the storm that You had to speak for the disciples in the ship to know who You were. Yes, Peter took his eyes off You his Lord and God and he began to sink. He cried out and You saved him. But the facts found written in the Holy Word of God is that Peter walked on top of the water just like You. He was a mere man who had not even been baptized by the Holy Ghost Spirit yet because the day of Pentecost had not occurred yet. It occurred after You died and rose again. The truth is Peter was able to walk on top of the water. Gravity did not pull him down. Doubt did," I said quickly then continued once again. "You know my Love, I've been seeking honestly for the truth in all things from You. I'm not trying to disprove or say all things in science are bad, because at this point in my life until You show me it's true, I don't know."

"I've asked You to show me the truth of these things like the pre-programming of our minds that creates and causes us to doubt You, Your Word or even what men can naturally do. The things the fallen ones are trying so desperately to keep us, mankind from knowing and doing in this world as it was created to be and do. In addition I have asked you to somehow relate it to Your Holy Word for me. This You have done concerning gravity when You showed me that not only you but Peter also walked on the water. This is but one of many things You have shown me. Jesus Christ my Love, I don't want to walk in deception in any way but only in truth. You are the truth. When You started speaking to me of how the clouds are extremely heavy laden with water to give rain, yet they remain held up in the sky in their created order of space, instead of being pulled down by the theorized force of gravity, I understood this. I asked You if there's anything in Your Word that disproves gravity because science also said this about the clouds being heavy with water, even though they are not pulled down by the weight of them. You lovingly brought me to this passage in Your Holy Word where You were walking on the water. It was You who first pointed out to me that Peter, who is only a fleshly man, also walked on the water. If gravity had been in effect, he should have been pulled down and he would have never walked a single step on top of the water. So now we are faced with the choice of who are we going to believe. The logic, the theories, the so-called scientific facts and educated guesses this world's foundation of man's culture and pre-programming is built on which is complement of the dark kingdom's deception? Or are we the children of God going to choose to believe the Holy Word of God and all its truth which tells us that these things are not impossible to do like we're being told they are?"

My lovely Jesus Christ looked at me seriously and replied, "You're right Daughter. The people of this world, the inhabitants of this Earth are not connected and plugged into a computer, living in a simulated reality, but your minds have been being programmed and pre-programmed as if you were for many, many years now. It's been a pre-planned, prepared, step by step assault by lucifer's kingdom to reprogram man's mind to doubt and not have faith in My Father and Me. Faith, belief and trust in your Holy God and Creator has been systematically replaced by logicizing everything into a creatable scenario or situation with logical explanations. For example, Daughter take the simple reality of creation that My Father spoke and it was done by My hands. The world now moves creation into theories of man, scientific facts, logical explanations that deny the existence of Father God the Creator and brings doubt also to the written given Holy Word of God."

"I understand this Jesus Christ my Love. When you take all the elites of the world, the Illuminati, all the hidden councils and committees completely loyal to the fallen ones and their agenda who have united together for centuries, for many, many years as each year, each century the foundation blocks of lies and deception were laid, it's easier to see how it's been done. We see this too is possible by reading in Your Holy Word where the whole land, the people united together to build the Tower of Babel. Look how successful they were as a united people with one united cause. If not for You moving in the situation," I said to my lovely Jesus Christ in seriousness, "they never would have been stopped. But again this does reveal to us how Father God and You do have absolute authority and control of this world and all that's in it." "Yes it does beloved Daughter," He replied. We were silent for a moment then He spoke again, but softly this time.

"Daughter, when you take a person, a people whose foundational beliefs have been tampered with like the Earth's people and its inhabitants have been done then what does that leave? It leaves a weakened foundation that is weak and shaky. The truth will always stand. It will stand against the storm of lies and deception. It will stand against the fiery trials of testing and purging, but deception will always fail under the scrutiny of truth. When creating a computer simulation, the programmer inputs the data into the terminal to create the program. He programs it with everything he needs for it to work correctly. He has the lines of codes and commands that's inserted into the computer. He adds the graphics and animation. He applies sound overs, voices, all that's needed to make you believe it's real. That it's a reality. This is what the kingdom of darkness has done to mankind, but instead of mankind being hooked up and connected directly to a mainframe computer, you're still being programmed the very same way in ways that subtly defy the truth found in My Word and replaces faith with doubt. This is done in every part of the people's lives. It's done through churches, schooling, it's in the workplace, your correction facilities, your treatment centers of care and even your home life where instead of resting and relaxing or having family time together, mankind is being programmed by what they watch, read and listen to. I have called My children to come out from among the world for many reasons, Daughter, and not just for the obvious ones. I know all things for I and My Father are one. I'm no longer residing on the Earth but back in My Heaven."

I looked at my Lord Savior Jesus Christ with love as I said, "I know You are and one day I will be there too with Father God and You," I said with a great longing in my heart. He smiled at me and touched my left hand. I felt fire, holy fire shoot through my arm. He said softly, "In time beloved Daughter, but first you still have much work to do for Our kingdom." I replied, "I can do all things to you Jesus Christ." I will help you Daughter every step of the way. The enemy has no idea what's coming for them in the coming days. You have much work to do for me, for Us, Daughter. But for now always seek for the truth and realize most times you will stand alone or there will be only a few others. You will always be a minority because the whole world is being pre-programmed by lucifer's kingdom. Those that break free from deception's webs, even some of the unsaved will be hated, ridiculed, and laughed at. You'll be called deceived, confused, operating in an unclean spirit because the truth has been hidden away by lucifer's pre-plan, predictive programming of the minds of the world for centuries."

"You now have the majority of the world believing what they've been taught and trained by the world system against the few who have been awakened to My truth when My glorious light shined down into the firmament. When My children cry out for the truth, then I, the truth of all things shall reveal it to them in a way and time that I know it's best for them. Daughter, when you start speaking more and more about the truth of things that are contrary to how the world's teachings and narratives are being taught, there are times as you have found already, you will stand alone. As the truth stands, you don't ever back down Daughter and those who are truly Mine, who are earnestly discerning and seeking for My truth, all truth, you will soon find some of them disentangling themselves from the world and its lies and webs of deception to stand beside you in your quest for the truth. You started this desire for the truth by seeking to know Me more intimately Daughter, but to really know who I am you have to see clearly past man's imposed deception and the pre-programming of the fallen ones teachings you have received since a child and return to the teachings of My Word that defies logic and science because all things are possible to he or she who believes. Nothing is impossible for Me, your Holy God to do, ever on your behalf."

Then I awoke abruptly from my sleep. When I came fully awake, I heard my lovely Jesus Christ say audibly. "Always seek for the truth in all things no matter how hard, difficult, or painful to face, because inside the truth you will find Me. Because Daughter I am the truth that leads to salvation, but I am also the truth of all things that cannot fail."
