

Seek God for Everything First 7-1-20@5:59 AM Journal Entry

“I hear Your sweet voice calling out to me again this morning sweet Jesus, and I feel Your holy presence here with me once again. I invite You, Jesus and Your holy presence and Your Holy Spirit into my home and heart once again. While praying and kneeling before You in humble subjection unto You, You held me as You are holding me now and You are comforting me. You have been whispering softly within my ears and my spirit, “It’s okay Child, I’ve got this! I’m in control of it all,” and I thank You, Jesus Christ. For rough has been this battle of late not only for me, but others too. Tell me Jesus, in Your Holy Word in Isaiah 59:19 the part of the verse when Isaiah tells us, “When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him,” what does this really mean? When I try to find the meaning on the internet, I get man’s thoughts or their interpretation? There was one who said the Greek word for standard, and I don’t recall what it is at the moment, meant to flee.”

“Tell Me, Child, what language was the book of Isaiah originally written in, for I have led you to this information already.” “Yes, You have Lord, for the New Testament, all or most was originally written in the Greek language, but the Old, most of it was in the Hebrew language.” “Yes, Child, it was. Now look up the Hebrew word for “standard.” “Won’t You just tell me, Lord Jesus?” “You have your tablet there Child, and when you pull it up and behold it with your eyes, then for you it makes it easier to remember.” “But You can bring all things to our remembrance.” “Yes, Child, I can and do, but you need to put it into your mind first, so do as I ask Child.” “I will Jesus, forgive me! I was not trying to talk back to You. I was just trying to understand the “how’s” and “why” of things.” “Yes, Little One, I know.”

“Okay, Jesus, the Hebrew Word is NUWC and in this text it stems from the polel perfect verb which means to drive at, but I was able to pull up an actual copy of the Genesis’ Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon and in this verse Isaiah 59:19 the word standard means to impel: to drive, force or urge (someone) to do something, at least the latter part of the word does. Although it’s one word, I find the first part of it, which means to put to flight, to make flee, so it does basically mean the same thing.”

“Yes, Child, it does, but it’s necessary for you to search out their meanings.” “I understand, Jesus. It also says where my King James Version says, “the spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard,” it says, well, actually this whole part says, ‘a confined stream which the wind of Jehovah impels!’ So actually Jesus, the enemy doesn’t come in like a flood, for a flood means, its definition in this case in our present-day dictionary used as a verb is: arrive in overwhelming amounts or quantities, but Your original text calls it a confined stream which the definition of confined is: (of a space) restricted in area or volume, cramped. So let me see if I’ve got this right? When the enemy comes in, even it is controlled by You, only allowing what You say can happen. Even then it is confined to a stream (a continuous flow of liquid, air or gas), so instead of coming in at once and covering everything like a flood can do, or even as it can gradually rise to become a flood, but it is an actual stream, a continuous flow of attacks, though confined by Your hand in the amount that can be placed upon us. Because You alone only, Jesus, knows truly what we can withstand physically as well as spiritually, and although at times You will place us, place me in what appears hopeless, impossible, no way out situations, You always prove true”

“But I realize Jesus, as I was reading a blog by someone, and he referenced 2 Corinthians 1:8 which the ending of the verse Paul is telling to the Corinthians, to all of us, that, “we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:” He was discussing the phrase, ‘God won’t put on you more than you can bear.’ The blog said, “God sometimes allows situations in your life to appear hopeless because He is trying to direct your focus onto Him. You may feel like giving up because you can’t seem to fix the situation that you are in, and no one you know can fix it either. All of your human resources have been depleted. What God is really doing is trying to take you deeper into Him. Because it is these times...these hopeless scenarios where you see no way up, over or out and yet God somehow ultimately ‘raises the dead’ for you, and God becomes real to you at a level you never knew Him at before.”

“I am thinking on this Jesus, and I know people get this quote from 1 Corinthians 10:13 which says: There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. When you read the prior verses before this one, they mention lusting after evil things, idolatry, and fornications, so Jesus, You will not allow us to be ‘tempted’ above what we can withstand. For these things are all done by our decisions to do them and You will allow us to be tempted by such things from time to time, but through Your Word and faith in You, we are able to escape through the leading of Your precious Holy Spirit.”

“Jesus, You are the Potter that Jeremiah 18:1-9 or Isaiah in 64:8 speaks of and we, all of us, all of mankind are dependent on You for our very existence. We have within each of our bodies the gift of life, the breath of life breathed into us by our Blessed Heavenly Father. I find myself currently compassed on every side with troubles of this life, yet I trust You, Jesus! I trust You and now that I realize that satan, that lucifer cannot just ‘flood’ me, for the attacks are confined to a stream. Although it can be a continuous flowing stream of trouble, he is only allowed access to what You say he can do, for yes, You will, and do allow us to be tested and tried to draw us closer to You. So, as I stand here upon this battlefield of life, surrounded on all sides by the enemy, I know my deliverance is coming. Isaiah 59:1 tells us that Your hand is not shortened that it cannot save, nor Your ear heavy that You cannot hear my cries, my pleas for help. I don’t know how, I don’t know when, or where but I know it will be soon.

You will not abandon those who truly love You, Jesus and have given You their hearts. You have told us in Hebrews. I trust You. I trust You with my life, my family, my finances, and worldly possessions. For all these things are just blessings, gifts You have allowed to come into my life, and I am grateful, so very grateful, but if You should remove these wonderful gifts from my life, I now know with all assuredly in my heart and mind, I will follow You, Jesus, Son of the Most High, living God, Jehovah, until my very last breath. Whether I leave this earth through death or rapture, my every intention is to go with Your praises on my lips. I love You, Jesus, I love You. I find that once again Jesus, I have become long winded, allowing You very little opportunity to speak.”

“My little Child, it pleases Me when My children come to Me about everything, for as your earthly fathers love to hear their children’s voices, and to have them take time and talk with them, so do Father God and I. You will find that We are never too busy to hear your prayers, or to talk with you. Our ways Child are not your ways, nor are We limited to listening to just one person at a time. We see all, hear all, and know all things. We listen continually to all that is spoken on the earth both good and bad, comprehending every word, for not one is ever muddled or muted. We know your thoughts also, for nothing is hidden from Me, from Us. Remember Child, I and My Father are One, yet separate. Come always to Us Child, for you who are washed in My life-giving blood can now stand pure and holy in My righteousness through Me and enter the Holy of Holies, and stand boldly before Father God in reverent fear. Which is holy, deep and solemn respect, awe before Him, before Us, but also as Our child, as Our sons and daughters.”

“I see the many concerns and troubles within your life Child, but I also see that when they come to your mind and assail you and try to consume you, that you come to Me in prayer, seeking for Me to help you and strengthen you when it’s where you can do so, and if you are not able to physically get down to pray due to other people or circumstances, I hear you Child, within yourself casting these thoughts away and resisting and rebuking your enemy satan in My Name. This is good Child, for Father God has given Me a Name above all others wherein the enemy has to flee and situations have to bow and mountains will move! Trust Me Child. Continue to trust Me as you do now in all things and those who think you have gone too far because you seek Me for everything, even what you wear or what you need to eat, then Child, then they are not trusting in Me completely, but partially. Have not I shown you already when I’ve led you in what to wear, that if you had not listened on several occasions in different situations you would have become embarrassed? Because too much of your chest would have been exposed when you were asked by different doctors and nurses to lean or bend over.”

“Yes, Jesus, yes, You have and it is as You’re saying, been more than once.” “Alright, Child, have not I, from time to time prevented you from eating food that you have found out now is harmful to your body due to the physical ailments found currently within your body and when you, following the leading of My Holy Spirit and not man’s advice, you have been improving somewhat?” “Yes, Jesus. You are right as always.” “I take the foolish things, the ways of Me that appear foolish to the world and confound the wise, for I know the working of your earthly bodies better than man will ever be possible to understand fully. Because I, Child, Father God and I, are your Creator, but He is the Master Creator of all things good. Do not listen to the unwise counsel of your family and friends, for those who love and serve Me should seek Me first in all things. When you do many a traps sent from satan’s hands can be prevented from snaring you, your souls. Trust Me in all ways. Have faith in Me and My righteous ways, for I know what is best for all. That person, that item that you “think” you need, that you just have to have could be the very thing that will bring about your downfall and lead you to spiritual death.”

“I leave you with these words of comfort, Little Daughter, to you and others. I am here. I will not leave. I have surrounded you with guardian angels. Those well capable of fighting in these battles against your enemy, for I am no respecter of persons Child, for even as We are speaking more reinforcements are coming. Some are here already just as you prayed and asked for Me to send.

Yes, the enemy has been trying to hinder your deliverance by trying to build walls around you, but Child, they were only temporary and already they are falling. Our Heavenly host fights in righteousness and holiness through Father God Jehovah and now through My Name also Child. My Name is all powerful and above anything else that exists already or will be made into existence at a later time. Stand as I have told you Child, on My word and in this knowledge that you are not alone in these battles, nor will you ever be.”

“Now let them do the fighting for you when you resist and rebuke satan and his demons, the fallen ones in My Name, for I am Jesus. I am the Son of God and I through My obedience to My Father God’s will I have already won this war for all who trust, love, and serve Me. No ‘if’s,’ ‘ands,’ or ‘but’s’ as you say Child. It’s done, finished, completed with only skirmishes allowed to further Father God’s divine will, His plan for mankind, their eternal destination, the ending of sin, and its removal from all life in which it, by satan, his demons, the fallen ones and all who chose him as their lord and master instead of Me shall be cast into the eternal lake of fire where the worm dieth not, the fire is never quenched, and all inside will receive unspeakable torment and pain, for their rejection of Father God, of Me. This is how it has been ordained since the beginning of time and is unchangeable. It is as it should be Child, for all, even the enemy each will have made their own choice. This is why I tell you so often, Child, to always consider the cost, choose wisely, and always, always come to Me before making a decision or move.”

“I will Jesus, I shall continue to do so.” “I will take care of you Child, in all ways, every last single one, if you will let Me, and if you do not try to get in My way. I know what is best, and it is I, who should lead your life, and not you. This I know you understand, for you have surrendered your control of your life unto Me, and this Child, is also a good thing. I love you; Child, you keep your head lifted high and do not lose faith. Stand firm for your deliverance is upon you, your family, your friend, and others as well. Deliverance has come Child, your deliverance even now.”
