

Soon Your Kingdom Won't Be Needed Lucifer 8-23-26@10:03 AM Shared 8-24-26

Daughter, write My words down!

Mene, Tekel, Mene, Tekel, kingdom of darkness. Mene, Mene Tekel.

Your time has come to rule the world through antichrist, but I have weighed you in the balances and found you wanting. Hear Me, you are weighed in the balances just as every inhabitant of the earth is for every action and deed each of you have done.

Guilty! You are guilty, and because of your guiltiness is why and how I'm able in justice and fairness to continue to take from you for My children's benefits and sake because I love them. I know each one by name. I have each hair on their heads counted. They are forever held in the love of My heart, the love of My Father's too.

Now hear this, oh foul kingdom of darkness. Your existence has been permitted to remain on Earth not because I love who you were, fallen ones before you fell and were cast out of My Heavens. But for the sole purpose to test and try, to cause difficulties in the people's lives because their hearts have become evil since your kingdom seduced them with words that led them into choosing to sin.

Through your evil actions and deeds, many realize they cannot walk this life without help. Those My Father draws will come to Me through the Holy Spirit that will convict and reveal to each one their sinful nature, their need for a Savior to redeem them, forgive them, and save them.

The people of the Earth are continually tried and tested. Through this testing those who are Mine, for I know each one by name having created them for My Father, are drawn further in their need to be closer to Father and Me. Their faith increases and often is restored. Their hearts are no longer evil but good.

But kingdom of darkness, you will soon no longer be necessary. You will be forever cast into the burning Lake of Fire where I, and My angels shall ever behold you.

Until this moment in time, I strip you further of the power and control you have tightened upon mankind. You shall continue, yes, you will. But as you enter into the tribulation period, My Great Day of the Lord, you shall do so with less than what I have already reduced you to.

Hear Me kingdom of darkness! As time progressed and the fallen angels now released, began taking wives and other forms to bear children, their nephilim as each one died, they became demons. The demons in number have greatly increased since I confined a majority of your kingdom behind the spiritual barrier walls.

I command and bring the number of your now demon offspring back to 10%. This will be 10% of all who are in the world of man after the three days of darkness have lifted. This is non-negotiable. For Heaven is the absolute Law of Truth and justice.

Hear Me lucifer, not only have I reduced your living children, the nephilim, and the other fallen angels too, I reduce your dead ones who have become malignant, evil demon spirits. This 10% you shall be able to choose for yourself. So choose wisely for once the darkness has lifted all but 10% shall be immediately bound and cast into the abyss of tormenting darkness, never to speak or see any other until the Great Day of Judgment itself.

As I said, for I do not lie, you are ill equipped and ill prepared for this one-sided battle I bring to you on My Earth in righteousness and truth. For I am that Truth! I am God's Son. There is none like Me who can accomplish all things, for they have been placed into My well capable, avenging hands.

While for My children, they shall feel only the tenderness of My touch upon them. Hide in Me children. Hide in Me, for I come in a Vengeance of Flaming Fire of Truth and Justice.
