

My Destroying Weapons Comes to Babylon-America 2-21-26@3:00 PM

Daughter, daughter, hear Me well. Pay close attention! A marking has come, a time of marking as when I once had My messenger to go through Israel and Judah. So have I done this day to your evil wicked land of America-Babylon. There are those like then whose sigh and cry out beneath the weight of all sin and abominable things they have seen and heard of. Daughter, I hear every sigh, every longing of the righteous to not have to see or hear of anymore of the things that wicked do. These are those who are Mine. These are those who I have marked.

Now I send My destroying weapons into evil wicked Babylon as I did Israel and Judah long ago. They shall slay both young and old, men, women, and children for great is a sin of Babylon-America and I will spare those who I have marked.

My destroying weapons come in the form of a coalition against your once great nation. The 10 hidden nuclear suitcases are not the only things your nation's people will have to endure, but nuclear war itself. My destroying weapons come against your nation daughter in the form of Persia which is Iran of today, of Russia, of China, of Iraq, of North Korea, and of Turkey.

They shall come through your nation in great vengeance and a great slaughter after your land has trembled and bowed beneath My righteous judgment as I allow the unleashing of these nuclear weapons upon your nation. They shall be My Arm of Vengeance with Vladimir Putin rising up above all others to take the lead position, for it is he who in the shadows has reached to the leaders of so many nations in secrecy to form this unholy coalition.

Watch the North daughter, the bear is stirring, stretching out his arms as he comes alive into fully awake, for this bear is now no longer sleeping. Remember, when I spoke to you many days, even years of your time, how these things come forth by way of Persia. So shall it be! Some changes have occurred since I held back war's advancement also out of love for My children.

The Queen of England has died an unnatural death and her son now rules as I foretold he would, but another shall soon take his place and when he does, the end result is Britain's seat of power will fall beneath the control of antichrist. The king's body is not his original, but it's mind is his. The deterioration of the substitute is evident for all the world to see, but he is still needed a little while longer as moloch, the evil spirit inside him has not yet completed his assignment from hell beneath by satan's command.

Moloch worship shall play a major integrated part of the one world religion when in the spirit of unity the one world religion shall openly embrace and endorse the worship of moloch, satan, and the fallen ones. For even the light bearer in the height of power as he rules with antichrist in his still puffed-up prideful heart does not allow anyone to get more worship and praise than him without the world suffering severe punishment for it.

Petty are the ways of the fallen ones who through evil, demonic powers forces their will upon man who will crumble and submit if they do not have Me, Jesus Christ in their hearts. I am the way through My Holy Spirit that comes in and resides in man, that they can escape every temptation that is offered to them by the enemy. But you must trust Me, trust My Holy Spirit and submit every part of your life to My control so I can lead you into paths of safety and peace instead of torment.
