

Fiery Judgment Falls Babylon-America & World 5-24-26@6:09 AM

"Daughter." "I'm here, my lovely Jesus Christ."

"In the day of adversity, in the time of destruction, I shall show the evil people of your nation of America-Babylon My back and not My face. When I give warning that a nation's evilness, their wickedness has brought them to judgment, and I send warning by My prophets and My children to repent of their sins, if they humble themselves in true repentance of heart before Me, then I too at times repent of the evil which I would have done and will give grace to that nation. Like as with Jonah and Nineveh. These people inside the walls of Babylon-America, in Israel, in Sweden, in Switzerland, Daughter, and so many more, have refused My warnings of My judgment's hand falling further. The whole world lies in wickedness with not one nation living righteous and holy unto Me as a people, no not one! So, it is My back they shall see, and not My face, I turn further to them."

"Babylon, oh Babylon-America, the land surrounded by waters, I would have forgiven you of your sins at moments of time before, and would have healed your land, for destruction's hand to fall at a later time. But, instead you raised your stubborn fists up to the heavens and screamed, 'No! Leave us alone! We don't want You! We've created gods of our own. We have gods we can see, like dazzling lights they come.' So, I turn My back and take the final step in the direction away from you. My face you will not see, nor My ear... 'your cries'... will not hear as judgment falls like rushing rivers of fire and destruction for the wicked, the evil, the stubborn, the backslider, and the undecided. While for many of My children, My hand shall be like an umbrella in which they can hide under, as these things fall like rain upon your world and nation."

"It's time for My children to leave, to depart this world. Some will depart by death in these things that come, because when rain falls, it's upon the just as well as the unjust. While others I shall gather up to Me in the sky, the air of the heavens with My holy angels. This time... 'is' come, so prepare to leave My children. Get your hearts clean before Me, because those who are ready and waiting for Me, you're leaving in one of these ways. As judgment falls in a fiery ball of purging fire that shall expand like a cleansing fire. That like a forest fire, I shall fan across your evil nation Daughter, by an ill-gotten wind that shall consume land and people. It shall spread through other nations."

"A dark time, a dark, dark time has come to your world, Daughter. One of many darkneses. I come back to your world not as the Redeeming Savior. Although My Blood still flows free to forgive all who come to Me and ask Me, Jesus Christ to be their Lord, for those Father is drawing to Me and the Holy Spirit is moving on their hearts to repent of their sins. I come instead in the glorified power of My Father, as His fiery Right Arm of Vengeance. To the merciful, I shall show mercy. For those who are not, none will be given, nor will I refrain My hand when you begin to cry out to Me as you burn with holy purging fire. This time has come."

"Is it not written My wrath would fall? Is it not written for all to read, to hear, to watch and see, to know what happens when the people of a nation, of a world forget their holy God to worship angels and demons? To worship idols of their hearts and most of their own making in this world today. Instead of being made out of wood and stocks, they're made of electronic parts with black faced screens. You even start your children barely able to walk, to begin their idol worship training, when you use this to pacify and entertain your children instead of spending time with them and teaching them My holy ways. Do you not understand yet? The demons inside these devices have access to your children when they use these things that are connected to any of the AI systems, and even those that do not. Because if it interacts with your children, and it's not holy and godly, if the devices and children aren't properly prayed over in the power of My Name, then instead of training up children to know Me, to live holy in the ways of righteousness, you are raising up idol worshipers to follow in your footsteps."

"It's not just electronics, it's a trap and a snare for your souls. This is just one idol this world embraces in their hearts as their god. Like every false idol and false god, it will fall! These things shall fall! In My purging and cleansing by fire this world, I'm tearing down and destroying them one by one. Some, many by many, until all that remains is for the fallen angels and demons to be cast into the lake of fire, and this I shall see is done unto the very end."

"The purging fire of another sort on your world has come. It's time has come, and it won't be directed into the firmament, the heavens and for those who are fully awake and aware, let it be known foolish men and women of the world, there's not one single crack in the firmament I created. Your fictitious claims are just that! You failed and you always will." "What do you mean Lord Jesus Christ?" "Look up Hillary Clinton, and operation fishbowl Daughter, and you'll get a clear understanding." "Isn't one of the videos you had me post on the website about this?" "Yes Daughter it is."

"Why am I pointing it out? It's because the so-called elite gloat and make claims of how they placed cracks in what I have created perfect to try to shift the focus from the truth. They could not destroy what My Father commanded to hold fast. They have failed and will always fail. I want My children to realize what it means. With all of man's greatest weapons of the nuclei, and all their prayers to lucifer's kingdom and blood sacrifices, they still could not even crack, or breach what Father and I created, for they are powerless against Us!" "Do you want me to share all this Jesus Christ my Love? You know that many people don't believe the Earth is unmoving and stablished firm, as Your Word says, with many of them being Your own." "Daughter, you discern this word by My Holy Word, by prayers and by others in My holy Name. You are to share what I give you. Realize this. Many in your world do not believe the truth of creation's account in My Holy Word, including the majority of My own, but neither do they believe it's time for My return for My bride, yet it is." "Okay, my lovely Jesus Christ."

"Now Daughter, it's time. A dark, dark, dark time has arrived in your world. Prepare to enter it as antichrist rises to full power." "I understand my Love." "Yes you do." "Now I send the fires of judgment down upon your world, but I shall burn evil, wicked Babylon-America first, and like the spark that starts it all purging, hot, fiery judgment shall spread across the whole world until I'm done and all is completed and finished. When you cry out to Me, oh, wicked world, it is My back and not My face you'll see, for all who have chosen not to surrender fully and follow Me, follow My Father's holy ways.
