

Shock & Awe Death Bells Are Ringing 1-8-26@8:20 AM

“Lord Jesus Christ, I keep hearing these words, “Death bells are ringing. The death bells are ringing.” “Daughter, I told you once before, the death bells are ringing. Now they're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing. They're ringing.”

Hear them ring, daughter. Hear them ring as judgment falls.”

Death rides. Death rides. Death rides. It's that time, daughter.

“Hear the death bells ringing. Hear them chiming, daughter, hear them.” “I hear them, Lord, in the spirit realm. It's like a continuous tolling of the bell. Many, many bells.”

Death bells, I'm ringing the death bells for this world, for your nation. Death bells... wicked Babylon who sits as a queen declaring, “Nothing shall touch me. I rule this world. I have wealth. I have fame. I have power. I am my own god. Yet you worship the false ones in the secrecy of your hidden chambers, star chambers, and so much more. While the nations are flooding this world with sightings of aliens, sightings of supernatural occurrences, preparing the world and mind to accept the descent of the fallen ones, of the demons, and even Nephilim as aliens from outer space.

Death bells are ringing. Death bells, I say, Death bells are ringing, are ringing, are ringing and this time, daughter, they will not stop as we go forward into the time of tribulation.

Death will ride at full gallop across this world, inside and out of the firmament, the land, the waters, the seas.

“Did I not say it would be so?” “Lord, the bells are so loud.”

That's because they're not just a location here or there. Death bells are ringing for the whole world.

It's time too, daughter, for the war rage to occur. These things, these things just don't happen overnight unless I command them to happen overnight. I always give time for repentance. When I move My hand daughter, I move it in love, but I move it in judgment too. I move it in wisdom, and I always move it in mercy, allowing people time to call on Me in true repentance of heart, asking Me to forgive them of their sins and to wash them clean.

And I will, daughter, I will. This is why even the blood lust of war has been released already, but until I say, “Commence,” it does not start.

As this new year begins, it will be a year like no other for man. “Oh, what,” says the scoffers! “Our new year has already started.” Has it, oh world? Has it, Babylon America?

I say, when My judgment falls, this will be the start of what all you ever remember again as the start of this year.

Death bells ringing, daughter, hear them toll, hear them toll, hear them toll, hear them toll?

Those that I'm speaking to, those who My Holy Spirit is drawing, repent, I say, "Repent!" Repent while mercy's door is still standing open. My mercy is everlasting for My children, but I do not have to grant mercy to those who are not.

Now I speak to the scoffers, the mockers... the whiners....Death bells are ringing. Death bells are ringing.

I speak to My children....Death bells are ringing.

I speak to those who are ready.... I'm coming, I'm coming for you, My bride.

Shock and awe it shall be. Shock and awe it shall be. SHOCK... AND... AWE it shall be upon this world!

And death blow upon death blow by judgment's hand causes the death toll to rise as the man of sin steps forward. "PEACE, PEACE," he shall declare, "peace, peace."

You will see, oh world, what kind of peace he brings, for he holds deception in his hand, and in the other hand he holds the fallen ones. His gods are the fallen ones and the AI he joined his mind with..... which is nothing more but a filthy demon! But he worships the power that this demon has allowed him to gain. He who was once human has so many hybrids and cybernetic parts that should he just shake your hand, he can bruise and crush it should he choose so. That is where his faith and trust lies, the fallen ones' and their technology to bring about his mark.

While My true children will walk in the power of My Name. MY NAME...My name holds all power!

Daughter, so many have the opinion that I'm the meek Shepherd and I am, but there's more to Me than just that. When I return it's going to be in GREAT POWER!

When I spoke to John in revelation, when he was given the divine revelation, My voice was like many waters. You've heard this daughter..... That is the voice of the power of God!

I say again, "Death bells are ringing daughter, death bells are ringing." Their ringing has started increasing this day. They start on the day, of the day, of the end of it all.

Every day begins with the sun arising.

But in My days, in creation days, they started at night and then into the day.... so shall it be again.

Death bells are ringing, death bells are ringing. Hear them toll, oh world, hear them toll? It's time for death and hell to be unleashed at full gallop....full gallop. READ MY WORD! Understand what I am saying.

“Repent,” I say to those I'm calling and reaching out to.

“Repent,” I say to the backslider.

“Repent,” I say to the lukewarm, lest I spew you out.

REPENT O' WORLD, REPENT!

Repent, death bells are ringing and death is coming for YOU!

“I am done, daughter. Hear the death bells ringing?” “I do, Lord.”
