

Hear Me, I Said 10 Data Centers Only 7-6-26@11:30 AM Shared 7-8-26

Hear me, hear Me Daughter, hear Me. Look how they build their so-called data centers. Have I not revealed to you how that they consume the water less than what they have spoken? As they store away the water as the new liquid gold, as the gold of the world. Yes, Daughter, I have. But yet as others have found out, this is also the implementing of the beast system's surveillance system. It is also where some of the detained will be. This is their plan.

They scoff and they laugh, because they have so many they have built that's running. "Ten! He's going to reduce them to 10! Let us see Him try," are the words I've been hearing coming up to My Heaven. "We will just build more and more. We cannot be stopped! This is for the beast system government. It must be allowed!" No, it does not! Hear Me, hear Me world. Those of the kingdom of darkness and those working on their behalf, hear Me. I shall destroy them one by one until you are down to 10. Even before the man of sin takes his full place in power. Hear Me!

"Look how we build. Look how we go with our devised plans and He has yet to lift up His hand. He has yet to make good on His word. He's powerless!"...."You are wrong and you're about to see!"...."But, oh, that's all we ever hear, 'You're about to see. You're about to see.' Our god lucifer, he moves in power. Look at the data centers he has built while You keep speaking and making accusations of judgment holy God."

This is what I'm hearing: Daughter, from the Earth to My Heavens, as My Father and I laugh at the schemes and the plots and plans. This world is Mine and all that's in it. So speak on! Laugh on, because My timing is perfect. My timing will do more damage. My timing you will not recover from, for I am God and you are not!

For every gallon of water you collect wrongfully, man of sin, governments of this world, to hoard away as you fleece the people, make them ration their water, while you steal it out from under them. For every single gallon of water you collect, every half gallon I shall poison and you shall not be able to use it. Hear Me! Hear Me! Your own purification systems shall make the waters poison for all. Hear Me! For all unless one of My children were to drink it and I will make it crystal clear, but not for you.

I am a God of justice!
I am a God of love!
I am a God of vengeance!

Mockers, scoffers, mockers and scoffers, hear Me well. Hear Me well. When I strike with lightning speed, you will not be laughing, nor will you have a chance to recover. Not a moment to recover when I begin. And you will know the God of Heaven that you laughed at and you scorned, and you declared would not move and could not see what you were doing... that you were hiding in the shadows.... that your god lucifer could protect you.....

You're going to see the hand of a real God move! You're going to see the hand of the Son of God who is the Savior of the world. Not the man of sin! Not lucifer! Not the fallen ones, not the demons, not the nephilim....although they want to be.

Hear Me now... man of sin...hear Me now, oh, world....hear.....Me... now children of Mine, hear Me now. The information that is being collected in these data centers, I am going to wipe clean! Hear Me! You are allowed to have 10 data centers in the world of My choosing. But when I enter the world again in great power, when I come and begin to deliver Mine to safety, you will not have any data banks or hard copies to hunt down My children. Again, as I have said, you will do it the hard way, the hard way. Thus I have commanded, thus I have spoken.

Your technology will fail you. Hear Me oh world, your technology shall fail you. What will be left is what will be needed for the man of sin to fulfill his part of judgment upon this evil, wicked world. Yes, the man of sin is part of your evil judgment...wicked, evil world.

Daughter, you spoke to Me about you being done, at your done point. I understand Daughter, I have pushed you to the brink of testing and trying. I have purged you with the refiner's fire where it would have broken somebody less. But you've reached your done point, good! Good! Stand on My Word, stand strong. Don't back down, don't waver. It's over, Daughter. It's over. Your 'Job moment,' of trying that has covered years is over. It's over, Daughter.

But, I am at My done point. I am done with the schemes and plots of the fallen ones. I am done with the abuse of mankind. Yes, man's hearts are evil. Yes they choose where they go, but the deliberate cruelty and harshness that they have done to this world, I'm going to make them suffer. I am going to make them suffer in righteous judgment and punishment.....

For every tear they caused....

For every corrupt DNA they created since they've been released....

For every person, every person they drove to take their lives....

Every person they defiled with their witchcraft and with their assaults....

Every blood, every drop of blood they have shed, I shall ensure they feel the stroke of My hand before they are sent to the Lake of Fire.

Hear Me Daughter, the Earth cries up. No longer can the blood be soaked up of....

the innocent

the babies

the young

the old

the abused

the beaten

the downtrodden

Daughter, the widows

the orphans.....

And I'm talking about My people. My people, and this is not from a vengeful heart. This is from weighing the balance and the cost, and it is so severe that punishment must come forth in righteous judgment. The Earth is crying out. The animals are crying out. My people are crying out. All of creation is crying out in groans under the weight and the load of sin brought forth by the fallen ones and lucifer.

This world was purged once. I shall purge it again with burning, hot, melting fire. I will leave them nowhere to go but the Lake of Fire. Hear Me Daughter, they will have nowhere to go but where I command, for I am God and I am God's Son. We are One. One and the same yet different. I am the Avenger of Righteousness and Justice. I am the Right Hand of My Father. I have watched My world cry out in pain and in agony. I have watched the people turn from righteousness to the ways of sin and adultery...idol worship, it's enough.

I bring the Tribulation now Daughter, it's enough! Not where I just release 'some' judgment. My full wrath can finally be released and My wrath is upon those who have chosen not to call upon My Name, but it is upon the fallen ones Daughter. Hear Me. They have tried to claim this world as their own. My wrath falls upon them because they have made this world 'their' home when it rightfully belongs to man who it was created for. It is mankind I gave dominion over all My creation, not the fallen ones.
