

I Take Thermal Technology & Astana From You Lucifer 3-31-26@7:57 PM Shared 4-1-26

"Daughter, I have somewhat to say again." "I'm here my love, I'm here Jesus Christ, speak on."

Lucifer and his kingdom think I will relent and allow them to utilize some of the star forts. I will not! It is forever written as a holy decree from Heaven.

In the heavens of your firmament, removal has already begun of the kingdom of darkness' control. What they tried to put into outer space, as they call it, I shall send back by My command. My angels stand ready and at attention with one last battle in the lower heavens to be fought. Michael and his angels are armed and ready and lucifer, the dragon will fail and finally be chained to the Earth. No longer to travel and soar into the heavens and the atmospheric winds.

But I'm not finished! It's not only evil, wicked Babylon-America who is facing judgment. Most of the world is, which includes lucifer and his kingdom.

As King of all kings who has been given all power in Heaven and Earth, I now as Righteous Judge pronounce further judgment against the dark kingdom. The technology of the thermal reactors used to draw power...energy from the Earth and the air are being removed from your possession.

When the two realms, the physical and spiritual merge into one, the magnetic, black rock, mountain will shatter. This is the heartbeat of the Earth. Once this occurs you will no longer be able to utilize your geothermal propulsion reactors or pull any electrical current or power from the Earth or the air. What current it has left I will channel to My children. I will cause food to grow for them. Life to blossom under their protective barriers, My angel barriers that your evil hordes will not be able to cross, because they're sealed in My authority already. This is superior technology that is no longer allowed except what has already found itself above ground and is being used limitedly by various nations.

Let Me break it down for you dark kingdom. What technology mankind has above ground when My Daughter, this Daughter announced to the world and you, that your star forts would not be accessible for utilization except for that as a bastion fort, you lost access to all other knowledge you took from Heaven and creation and twisted it, using it against mankind and all that was created and not for it. You had the knowledge from where you walked upon the stones in the garden, but now that is stripped from your kingdom and mankind.

As the world enters the tribulation and My Great Day of the Lord of Wrath as foretold in My Holy Word, you will do so dark kingdom, just as mankind does. The exception will be the ships you have that are needed beneath Antarctica's mountain pyramid. You will have access for the deception of the aliens from outer space, because mankind has embraced these fake aliens, coming into agreement fully for many in sin, that has granted this right to continue with this great deception. My children, My true ones will know the truth. Some immediately, while others as time passes in the tribulation further.

This does not grant you any further access to the underground and underwater facility complex you have created that connects to most of the world. Nor can you take from these such locations any forbidden knowledge in any form on orders from Heaven's Courts.

Now cast your eyes upon Astana. I have! This wretched, evil city where the fallen ones of rank who first bred with the daughters of mankind through an unholy vow meet. Making themselves out to be gods when they are the fallen. Your grand city falls! It falls!

Why do you think it is written that the man of sin would set himself up to rule in Jerusalem? This is one of many reasons he will do so. This too, I command, will not be changed. Where will you go? Where will you live, oh fallen ones? Let Me answer that for you. No longer in the luxuries of the world you've hidden away, but upon the disease ridden, charred, barren, mutated, poisoned Earth with its red skies that you and those loyal to your kingdom created when you tried to change, recreate what I had made perfect from the beginning when you try to remove My Father's signature out of the world and it's people's created DNA.

Daughter!
Yes, I'm here!

Now, I wish to speak to your nation Babylon-America and the rest of the world. You cannot stop this war, only I can give that command, but neither will you commence to full blown war without My command. All will commence as My Father has commanded and not one minute, not one millisecond before.

Now Babylon-America, turn your eyes upon the world and know they're seeing you stripped bare and naked before all. They see your shame! You who I once called as a beloved nation of Mine for the people inside it loved Me. Not the bureaucratic fallen angel worshipers who worship their false gods, their money and position as well as their own flesh.

Oh world, oh world have you not realized that since the fallen ones are cursed by Me, they are accursed and that all they touch not protected by Me becomes accursed too?

Now oh world, it's time for shaking.
Now oh world, it's time for quaking.
You're about to see something, though written about, that has never fully occurred on your world or inside this created firmament.

Daughter, when the sky is rolled back and all witness My Father's throne above them, what will they do? This is when many will realize finally the great deception and webs of lies that have covered your world. The truth shall be revealed Daughter, it shall! All that is hidden, I'm bringing to the light.

Lucifer, you will live and exist and operate with the technology, electronics, and equipment that mankind of the above world that lives above the oceans and waters deep and the land above does. This is where you get to rule your 7 years through the man of sin. Above and not below with the previous exceptions foretold to you such as granted access to Hades as needed. This is all Daughter for now.
