

A Dark Day Has Arrived 8-28-26@3:11 PM Shared 8-31-26

A word from Father God

A dark day is coming, a dark day is coming, the day of the tribulation period. The Day of the Lord has arrived. A dark, dark day for the world.

Can't you hear the Earth groaning under the weight of sin's load? I can. I do. The Earth is dying Daughter. This old one, because the black magnetic rock inside her, like a man whose heart is weak and barely beating, is the condition of the once magnificent, magnetic black rock mountain.

Man does not have much longer until the time of restoration when My Son will reign for 1,000 years giving both mankind and the Earth and existence of how the world should be lived upon with a just and kindly Ruler. My Son gave His life to redeem those of the world who would choose to be free from sin's bondage and weights by accepting Him into their hearts as Lord, Master, and Savior.

In this created firmament you serve a master, whether you realize it or not. Your master is either those of the dark kingdom, or Me, The Great I Am and My Son.

A dark day has arrived for the world, a dark day indeed, Daughter of Mine, of My Kingdom.

Daughter, strap on your boots, it's about to get very messy in the world of man and beast, of demons and fallen ones. As the man of sin takes his position as the vilest of all rulers in humanity. His evil doing as a man shall soon come to light even before he is struck from the blow to his head. To be chosen as the antichrist, the one chosen to be the man of sin, to the world he will appear normal, charming, charismatic, energetic, brilliant in his mind, but his heart is far worse in it's evilness than some of the fallen ones themselves.

A rightful ruler for a world of such evil, wicked people and inhabitants of this world of man today.

My Son has judged rightly in all that has transpired. Once the dark kingdom has pulled through all their able, when once again the spiritual and physical realms become one, there will no longer be allowed any type of portal travel, archway, gateway traveling, and transporting technology for their kingdom's use. Nor can they retrieve any of their members who were left on the spiritual side of the barrier wall. This does also include removing their use permanently from the ley lines.

Once the black rock shatters, the Earth shall have very little spare energy, or electrical output capabilities for man or inhabitants to use. I will be the Life source for My children through My Son.

A dark day has come, Daughter. It has arrived! No longer will the world wait and speak on their lips these words, "It will never happen in my lifetime. There's still years to come before the tribulation begins in the world of man," for those who believe it will happen.

The Great Day of the Lord has come, and as My Son has repeatedly warned the dark kingdom of lucifer and this world, "You are not ready," I say, "for the righteous judgment He brings!"

"Daughter of Mine." "Yes, Father God."

"The dark day that I speak of is the dark day written about in My given Word to man. This is that dark day. It's time, is now."

"I do not flood this world again with water to destroy the evil and wicked, rebellious inhabitants of this world. I flood it with My Son's fiery judgment. He shall burn and purge it until all is purified by fire." "I know Father God." "Yes, Daughter you do."
