

Giants of Men & Beasts Are Coming 3-20-26@11:04 AM

"Daughter, I have called You to Me to speak with you." "I'm here my lovely Jesus Christ."

A new day is dawning, daughter and man is still not prepared for the shutting of grace's door for the masses. Peace shall also be taken from your world with only those who have Me in their hearts possessing the only real peace that shall remain. The world will face a moment of false peace as antichrist slips further his noose around the neck of the world to where no one can move without his knowledge. Otherwise the noose tightens and if you resist then he will simply remove your head from your neck. So, you cannot interfere with his one world government and its iron grip on humanity.

This time has come daughter and man is still trying to prolong these things from happening in their made up minds of pure fantasy. Just like those who scoff and make light of My Holy Word speaking of giants and even documented accounts of your history. Although that's being quickly erased and rewritten as many of the older generations know this to be true. Just because you do not believe that giants walked the Earth before, does not make it untrue, does not make it false!

O' world you're about to see what it looks like to witness a bunch of angry nephilim, angry giants born of the fallen ones converging upon your world of modern ethics, of moral laws and thinking... of how things have to be. They are coming with a vengeance with many still harboring hatred when by My command I restrained the majority of them behind the spirit barrier wall that separates the physical from the spiritual. They will show no mercy! They will be on a rampage in many locations so that shortly after the darkness lifts, and My bride is gone, these accounts will become widespread. This is an addition to other mayhem going on.

Daughter, many of these giants do not look human although many are partly so. A fallen angel can take on any form they choose and do all that species can do even in mating with it with only their angelic DNA being the difference. Such as when the fallen angels took on the nature of a man to take wives and bore mighty men and giants of old. When you look back at the history of what the world calls mythical or fantasy creatures then look at all the hybrids today created by science genetic mutations they don't seem so far fetched anymore, do they?

For example, a nephilim can be such as what man calls a Bigfoot. This is a result of a fallen angel breeding with bears such as grizzly bears, then doing further genetic mutations on them. Take the centaur daughter, the fallen ones can assume the form of a man, a woman, or even a horse. He could mate as a man to a woman. A woman with a man, or even as a horse with a woman which is how many of the most ruthless giants that look like animals are so rampant. This is also how the reptilian line of nephilim are formed. All this is perverse and an abomination from how I created nature and mankind.

Why am I telling you this daughter? Because they are coming! They're soon to be released and there will be those of Mine, disobedient children who are not ready and those still to come with My Father has given Me that are unprepared. These are beasts, daughter, that shall kill part of those written about during the fulfillment of the fourth seal for the end time days. It's more than just bloodthirsty, savage killings. These offspring are purebloods meaning they're 50% human and 50% fallen angel, or 50% horse, bear, dragon, snake, and fallen angel. Whatever the fallen one mated with.

I am mentioning this daughter, because they're still intelligent because of the fallen angel lineage. Also each pureblood has the ability to change shape like the fallen angels so they can get up close and befriend you in your time of trouble. Or even seduce you only to kill you, because of lucifer and the fallen ones, their whole kingdom are masters of deception.

I send this warning to you daughter, because now more than ever as darkness begins making the cross over to light, holy discernment, My discernment through My Holy Spirit is now needed more than ever before. Tell My people there's giants of men and giants of beasts coming when the darkness for 3 days lifts. They will eventually be restrained by antichrist and lucifer's command but not before much carnage is done.

And War daughter, a momentary pause and then the full-blown eruption that starts with one single lit match given by My command.

Pray for the lost daughter. Never quit reaching for them. Do not heed the scoffers and mockers for sharing such a word. I have shown you these things in the laboratories below the waters and the Earth's surface, and now the majority of them shall see it for themselves with many of them falling prey to the very word of Truth they scoffed at. Much like the same when they take antichrist's mark even though many would have been warned all their lives not to take it either. Woe has come daughter to your world, woe has come.
