

2 Mississippi's not 3, Then Darkness Descends 2-13-26@9:55 PM Shared 2-14-26

"Father God, Jesus Christ my Love I'm here."

"Daughter, I have somewhat to say. One Mississippi, two Mississippi.... Let's stop on the 2nd Daughter. Two Mississippi not as in counting seconds but as a ghost ship that is not dead. Dead things when they aren't dead, then how do you expect them to remain buried oh world? It's revealing time! I speak of these things relating to Jeffrey Epstein who is not dead either, nor will he be anytime soon."

"Truth when commanded forth can shine through the tightest places like light breaking through cracks. It will not be contained. Hear me lucifer, hear me satan, it will not be contained and the truth..... MUST BE TOLD!"

"Like a damn breaking forth, I release My truth atop of the hidden truths of the enemy who in the time of strong delusion has deceived so many of the world, including some who are Mine. The revealing of these hidden truths are for My faithful few and those earnestly seeking the truth, and not those merely being entertained by both the truth and false who never determine which is which, nor do they care."

"Nothing is hidden from Me and that which is hidden in the world must to come to light for it is written so in My Word."

"Now I say again to you Daughter of Mine:

One Mississippi, two Mississippi, but this time it refers to increments of time as when you count the seconds between minutes. Before the third Mississippi arrives, in counting in My time, the darkness will arrive for 3 days descending fully upon this world."

"This is not to be mixed up with the last second of remnant time the world is living in before time runs out for the complete ending of the Time of Grace as Tribulation of the world begins. Daughter, it is a separate increment of time."

"You're three moons till darkness has finally arrived Daughter, and it is the destroyer that lights upon the full blood moon."

Tick tock is no more. I have told you this and now one Mississippi, two Mississippi, and three you will not see before My hand moves against this evil, evil wicked world."

"Hear Me Daughter, take notice of what I'm saying:

One Mississippi, two Mississippi and before the second has fully crossed over to the third Mississippi, it's light out oh world!"

Counting Mississippi's in increments of time:

Counting by "Mississippi's" is a common American method to measure time in seconds (e.g., "one Mississippi, two Mississippi") because saying the word takes approximately one second. It is primarily used in games like hide-and-seek to ensure accurate timing rather than counting too quickly.

How it Works: Instead of counting "1, 2, 3," you say "One Mississippi, two Mississippi, three Mississippi," ensuring each number is spaced out by the 4-5 syllable word.

Origin/Usage: It is considered a "gold standard" in the US for children and adults to mark time without a stopwatch.

Alternatives:

One-one-thousand: "One one-thousand, two one-thousand..."

Elephants: "One elephant, two elephant..." (common in the UK).

Accuracy: While not scientifically precise, it provides a very close approximation of one-second intervals.
