

I Don't Skip Stones in Judgment Babylon-America 4-18-26@2:07 PM Shared 4-19-26

Matthew 10:26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

"I'm here, my lovely Jesus Christ. I heard You call out to me to come be with You. My Love, my Lord, my God, I am here for whatever You want my King Jesus Christ."

"Daughter, beloved of Mine, thank you for coming when I called out to you. Daughter, judgment's hand begins falling hot and heavy again. A moment of respite was given for My children who found themselves in areas of judgment in evil, wicked Babylon-America."

"Daughter, cast your eyes upon Washington DC. This is where your nation's people believe the seat of power is in your broken nation of Babylon-America. This is where the elected president rules from, but how does a piece of land that is not part of your United States come to legally rule? That Daughter is something your people should be seeking the truth about."

"Now cast your eyes upon New York City. See where the heads of power congregate. See where the money is for your nation's people and even some of the others."

"No cast your eyes a little lower to Arlington Virginia, the central hub for the kingdom of darkness in your nation. Is it not flaunted in your own people's faces, and the world's, the pentagram building of the Pentagon? A five-sided polygon they describe it as, but when you study the ancient pentagrams of old you will find it's the shape, the very same shape as the Pentagon building in Arlington. This building is built in a legitimate state. Here is lucifer's seat of power boldly displayed for the world to see and declared openly this is his location. Why am I telling you this daughter? Because I don't skip stones!"

"Lord Jesus Christ what do You mean by, You don't skip stones?" "Hear Me Daughter, and listen well. This location is the heart of all evil in your nation, although it is presented as being created for your nation's defense." "Lord Jesus Christ, I know very little about the Pentagon except I remember it being discussed during the 9/11 terrorist attacks and I had noticed it's odd shape then, but until You told me it was an actual pentagram, I hadn't connected it." "This, I know, Daughter of Mine." "What did You mean about, 'You don't skip stones,' Lord, if it's okay for me to know?"

"Daughter, from this location of evil is a vast network. It's through here the network has been created and runs for the slave trade for Babylon-America. Through here schemes are concocted to ravage other lands of anything they desire under the disguise of a prefabricated war. From here, like a giant web that reaches to lands far and near, lucifer has set up his seat, but in the world of man it takes money, it takes gold, silver, natural resources to rule."

"This seat of power and control must be given to antichrist to have full control of the world. So I am removing not only Babylon-America's money controlling networks in New York, I'm taking down lucifer's seat of power in Babylon-America. This will not leave America-Babylon defenseless, but actually shall aid in their defense when your nation is invaded. So, what I mean when I say, I'm not skipping any stones, when I take out the location of red stones, this one sister site, I take down this one too in righteous, holy judgment."

"Hear Me Daughter it's inside the five-pointed pentagram building that the demise of your people has been planned. The poisoning of your food, air and water, the abduction of children and others sold as slaves of all types is run and organized from these walls. The assassination of presidents and leaders of the world came through orders from this location."

"Can you not see the truth of how, when your president speaks freely of the happenings in the war between Iran, Israel and your nation, the Pentagon rises up and speaks contrary to what your president has spoken? Even though in times of war he takes on the position of Commander and Chief of the military including head over the Pentagon. Puppets Daughter, they're all puppets on a string and at the heart of it all is lucifer the puppet master."

"Hear Me Daughter, Babylon-America is wicked and evil like no other land has ever been in the past. Her evil runs deep. I have judged this nation. She shall go down. She shall fall and then be utterly destroyed, but I still love My people I created that's inside her walls and borders. Judgment's hand will not be stayed. I shall destroy this land Myself, but I have not forgotten those inside her. So, I am doing what will, in the end, benefit those still inside her walls when she falls to aid them."

"In 3 days time, I shall send a burning-shaking leaving no stone unturned here at the Pentagon and the location bearing the red stones. While many will cry in despair proclaiming judgment's hand has left your nation defenseless, in the end you will learn with the pentagon's evil reach removed, there will actually be when the time comes, some of your nation's defense system still operational, so that when Putin's first strike of weapons come flying upon you, your nation isn't totally decimated beyond what I will allow. For I am God. I am in control and I do this for My children. Then all will know again at this time I am God. I am My Father's Son."

"Though Babylon-America's people are evil, as you keep telling Me Daughter, and you speak the truth, not all are bad. Even though not all My children in Babylon-America walls will be ready for My return like so many all over the world, they're going to need Me like never before after all that transpires and after I have left them behind. You are correct in this."

"Through many prayers of My children now praying in advance for those left behind, My heart has been moved within Me and so has My Father's. I am moving in holy judgment against America-Babylon, yes, but some ways I do now to better My children that will be left behind, not only here but in other lands too."

"When Putin finally shows his true cruel heart, and the world witnesses his savagery upon your nation and its people, he will begin casting his eyes upon other lands and he will take more with aid from those in his unholy coalition. The coalition will stand only until it's no longer needed. There's no love found between Xi Jinping and Putin. Both seek to have their nation as the one true superpower, but this is not to be. For it is written, 10 kingdoms give antichrist their power to rule and what is written shall come to be, for it can be no other way."

"But for now Daughter, I say again, I don't skip stones! Every location connected directly to the location of red stones, and some indirectly, I shall not skip. I shall not pass over as I call forth now fiery, Earth-shaking, all-consuming judgment in 3 days time. Daughter, I give you understanding, what I mean by, in 3 days time, but to those not of Mine, or not seeking My truth, you must ask yourself, what do I mean by, in 3 days times?"

"Is it literally meaning 3 days? Does it mean 3 days as when I spoke to those in My days, 'Tear this Temple down and in 3 days I will build it up again,' kind of time? Is it 3 days like when time was given to Daniel? Only those who are truly Mine, who belong to Me Jesus Christ, who have a personal relationship with Me, will I speak My truth to."

"Why am I doing this? Because I am God! I do not conform to men, nephilim, demons, or to the fallen ones' ways of doing things. I'm no longer the baby in the manger. I'm the Holy, Righteous Judge appointed to be the Right Arm of the Lord God, My Father in holy vengeance that I can only administer in truth, because I am Truth alone. Truth itself."

"So, Daughter, I don't skip stones! I won't skip one location, but shall tear it all down for the good of those left inside Babylon-America's walls and the rest of the world too. In 3 days time, I say, I do this."

"Daughter, I want you to share this word. Do not let them put you in fear, because this will always be their first line of attack. If you fall to fear, then you become vulnerable and you have opened yourself and your family to attacks. I know you do not fear them, but still they will try, because they have become desperate."

"Hear Me Daughter, that which was allowed for learning for you is allowed no longer by Me, for them to do in your life and all that's connected to you. A total blackout, I have commanded and this is what they have once again. Some of these things Daughter, beloved of Mine, although hard lessons for you, have been allowed so righteous judgment can be administered. Also, so that such an evil organization as you have been dealing with finally is made to know what, touch not My anointed means."

"This I do not just for you, but all My children. For this has never been about you alone Daughter, and you know this because we've talked often about it. My children need to understand and know I love all My children equally and what they see Me do for you, I can do for them if they will only believe in the power of My Name in unwavering faith."

"Daughter, share it all." "All Jesus Christ? All is in this word You just gave me, or all is in some of the other things not yet shared about these evil people?" "All this word Daughter and some of the others too." "Okay Lord Jesus Christ with Your help I will do all You tell me." "My help is given, Daughter." "Okay My Love, okay then."

What Does "Commander-in-Chief" Mean?

The president's role as commander-in-chief means that the president is ultimately in charge of the United States military forces. When Congress declares war, the president has the final say in how to wage war. In the chain of command, they sit at the top of the hierarchy, and their orders are final.

President Trump still bears the title of Commander of Chief although officially not activated until congress declares war. A title by the pentagon's actions we have seen of constantly refuting the president's words he has spoken publicly in the Iran attacks against American forces, shows an obvious lack of respect for the position of the president of the US.
