

The Black Magnetic Rock's Shattered Pieces Dream 9-23-26@1:31 AM Shared 9-24-26

"I dreamed last night about the magnetic black rock and the 3 days of darkness and it discerns true from You again my lovely Jesus Christ. Holy Ghost Spirit, please don't let me write one word that's not from Father, God, my lovely Jesus Christ or You my Friend I ask in Jesus Christ's Name." "I won't Daughter of Zion. Here is your dream once again. Now write."

The dream began when I found myself once again in a cold, cold snow and ice-covered region of land. I was dressed in the winter clothing one wears like I have worn at the Antarctic as well as the North Pole when my lovely Jesus Christ has taken me there. This time it is a purple snow suit, brown heavy arctic type gloves and winter snow boots. When I turned to my left I saw before me the magnificent Black Magnetic Rock Mountain of Creation. I saw, as in the last time I was here, the outer edges of the barrier around it's still seeable to my natural eyes, even more so than before. The protective barrier that surrounds the Black tall mountain I have always described as looking like an upside down test tube around it. With it more visibly seen to my physical eyes, that would definitely be an accurate description of it.

"Why am I seeing this again?" I wondered to myself. Suddenly, I heard a low humming noise, followed by a feeling of vibration in the ground. Within a moment of time, the tall Magnetic Black Mountain suddenly shattered before my eyes once again. I had witnessed this before at an earlier time when the Archangel Gabriel had shown it to me. It splintered into many, many pieces. I watched in horror and surprise as once again all the pieces fell into the raging, churning water below that always surrounded the rock's base where it entered into the ground and down inside the earth. At least before it shattered. I realized the barrier's strength had remained long enough to contain all its many pieces of the Black Magnetic Rock Mountain of Creation as it shattered instead of them soaring into the air covering land far and wide. As I'm looking down at where the shattered, splintered pieces had fallen into the raging waters below, I knew I'm inside the three days of darkness. Because it's within the last hours, however many that will be, this Black Mountain shatters as the physical and spiritual realms merge into one instead of two separate ones for the end time days when antichrist rules the world.

I looked around briefly knowing Father God and Jesus Christ must be protecting me from the effects of the 3 days of darkness, but I saw no one else. I could still see the Black Magnetic Rock Mountain before it shattered, that to the eyes of the world has been shrouded in witchcraft and the fallen ones' evil technology and such like to deceive the world and hide its existence unless Father God opens your eye. The truth always has a way of coming out and being revealed when the God of Heaven, our Creator is the God of Truth and the One bringing it to light. I looked back to where the Black Magnetic Rock Mountain of Creation once stood. It now has a clear open view. "But wait!" I exclaimed. "Why isn't the raging, churning water that surrounded the Rock Mountain draining into the opening of the place it once stood?"

Suddenly, I heard a voice say, "Daughter of Zion, of Heaven's Court, of Great Faith, come with me." I turned toward the voice, and saw once again, it is the Angel Gabriel, with his intelligent piercing blue eyes and his blonde hair. There is a look of concern on his face. Without any hesitancy, I reached out and grabbed his extended right hand. Suddenly, we were traveling down through that water, that raging, turbulent water that I knew had surrounded that black magnetic rock. Every time I noticed the waters around it they were bubbling up, just like raging water around it. We go down, down, down, and I realize I am once again protected in an angel barrier that is allowing me to breath and travel underwater safely. "Thank you Jesus Christ, my Love," I whispered softly. Within a few minutes we passed through the waters and suddenly we were traveling through the dirt, the earth's ground. Finally we passed through the dirt and entered an open area in the earth. The Holy Angel Gabriel and I are inside some type of cavern. I looked questioningly at the Angel Gabriel as many questions went running through my mind. He looked at me, and said, "I'm here to show you more concerning the happenings of the remains of the once Great Magnetic Black Rock Mountain of Creation, Daughter of Heaven, of Zion, of Heaven's Court once it shatters." "What do you mean Gabriel? I thought it became totally unusable and depleted when it shatters."

Once again, he held out his hand, and I took it. He swirled his hand in a right circular motion and an opening began forming. It grew into a large opening in the middle of the air inside the earth. All I saw was black on the other side. "Gabriel, are we inside the 3 days of darkness while it's occurring? Is that the outer darkness that descends and ascends from the abyss, but also with some of the black goo that together will cover the whole inside of the firmament?" He replied quickly, "Daughter of Heaven's Court, of Great Faith you are protected on command of the God of Heaven, the holiest One Jehovah, Elohim and His Son, Redeemer and Conquering King of this world, no harm will come to you." "Does that mean yes," I asked quickly. He nodded his head curtly but with a slight smile. In my defense I said quickly, "Gabriel, Father God and my lovely Jesus Christ have let me feel the horrible effects of the darkness before and I would prefer not to have to do that again unless it's their perfect will for me to do so." He smiled this time and simply replied, "I understand and will proceed as Heaven commands." He took my hand again. He entered the portal opening and pulled me through behind him. It's black inside and what little light was shining began disappearing and I knew the portal was closing behind us.

Suddenly it went totally dark, but I wasn't afraid. The Holy Angel still held my left hand with his. Suddenly I saw what looked like a pink light appear and it formed into a round circle. It's a brilliant magenta pink in color. It looks like it has pink lightning or pink electricity around it. It begins expanding and is easily seen in the dark area. As it grows, the pink light reflects onto Gabriel, the holy angel. It opens up into another portal. In great curiosity I found myself asking out loud, "Gabriel why didn't you light this area up with the glory from Father God that always surrounds you? It always surrounds the Holy Angels of God but can be hidden if needed to fulfill Father God and Jesus Christ's plans when you're sent on assignments." I could barely see the features of his face lit up by the pink glow of the now open pink portal. There was a small smile on his face as he replied, "Daughter of Heaven's Court, of Great Faith, you have never seen this type of portal that carries the vibrant pink color of your earth's world. I thought you would be able to better appreciate its color made from our beloved Holy Creator's hands if I kept it dark inside the cavern tunnelway until we entered it." I was surprised but also appreciative of this thoughtfulness of the Angel Gabriel who I have called a friend for a good length of time now. All I said in response was, "Thank you," and that's all that's needed when you are dealing with those who always operate in truth and righteousness.

He nodded his head in acknowledgement of my thank you, then he said quickly, "Follow me through the portal. Do not fear, you will not become separated from me." "Okay," I said. Then he quickly entered the vibrant pink opened portal. Once he was fully through I quickly entered behind him. Immediately I am met with an array of brightly lit colors going in every direction at once. I heard Gabriel's voice say out loud from somewhere ahead of me, "Daughter of Heaven's Court, of Zion keep walking forward and you will find the other side of the portal way." I replied, "I will Gabriel." I kept walking through the many colors and I remembered that one other time before I had traveled through a portal with swirling colors but with more blue in it than what I was seeing right now. Suddenly I saw a dark area in front of me that seemed to be expanding. "Gabriel," I called out quickly. "Right here," came his swift reply and I saw a hand come through the dark area. "Take my hand Daughter of Zion, of Great Faith." I grabbed the hand piercing the darkness and I felt myself pulled through to the other side. This time the dark area was being lit up by the glory of Father God that shone around the Holy Angel of Gabriel. I turned to look behind me and saw the magenta pink electrically charged looking portal was closing. 'Hmph,' I said then asked, "Just how many different portals do you have from Heaven?"

The Angel of God looked at me and said quickly, "There are many different types travelling ways and doors, but this one was actually not a portal but an archway. There are some differences," he finished saying. "Woah! Really!" I said in surprise. I hadn't expected that response. Finally, I asked, "What's the difference Gabriel? Archway sounds like an entrance into a room of something?" "It is, of sorts," he replied. "This is the chambers where the heart of the Earth sits. These chambers are protected by Heaven and no one can enter unless the Gracious and Kind Almighty God of Heaven grants passage, or His Holy Son, the Risen Lamb of God, the Word, Faithful and True. "Come with me," he instructed me once again as he turned and walked to his right into an opening. I quickly followed. After walking into the other area I saw it was a big open area. I could see from where I was standing there was a big opening in the ground, a round like crater. I don't understand what I'm seeing, at first, until I realized this had to be where the Majestic, Magnetic Black Rock Mountain of Creation had once entered into the earth. Once again, I noticed the water has not fallen down that had surrounded the Black Rock. "What's holding it up there on the topside of the Earth inside of draining down the opening made now that the rock has shattered?" I thought to myself. The Holy Angel Gabriel must have read my thoughts again because I heard Him say, "It is being held back by the command of the great God of Heaven for the time of renewal." Before I could ask him what he meant by that, he spoke once again."

"Come closer to the opening." We walked over to what looks like a giant crater inside the ground of the earth. When I looked down into the massive opening, I could see there were some fragments. Fragments of the once Magnetic, Black Rock. Some are still embedded into the earth. "Gabriel, what does this mean? I thought it could never be used again." He replied quickly, "It will never be used or utilized in any way by the kingdom of darkness, by lucifer's kingdom. When I last spoke to you about how it would lose its magnetic abilities and showed you the Magnetic Black Rock Mountain's destruction, I explained it would be during the three days of darkness, when the two realms merge together. This is when it would shatter and explode." "Yes, you did Gabriel, I remember," I replied. "There will be nothing left that the kingdom of darkness can collect and utilize in any way," he said quickly. "You did explain to me Gabriel," I said quickly, "that Father God and my lovely Jesus Christ were not going to allow any pieces to be recovered and used." He nodded his head quickly then said, "Remember Daughter of Zion, of Great Faith, the Magnetic, Black Rock Mountain of Creation in your world's understanding, would be considered the heart that produces the heartbeat of life for the earth and all that's contained inside this created firmament, for all work in unison together in perfect sync when it was first created. But the Captain of the Host, Jesus Christ, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Son of the God Most High, who is Just and True, has declared that what's left of this rock of Creation will be used to maintain some life until He sets up His Kingdom. Do not forget He is Creator also of this world and it was Created for Him also. As Righteous and Holy Judge, having all things placed into His hands to bring to complete fruition from the Almighty True Living God of Heaven, worthy always to be praised, He has also commanded this so that during the tribulation days of the tribulation period, the latter days of His Great Day that these pieces shall also be used to aid His children still abiding here during this time."

"Gabriel I know this Black Rock was magnetic and by God's command held many things in their proper places, but how is it going to be able to be used when it's shattered into many pieces, that fell into the water. They looked to be irretrievable, but then," I paused for a moment then said with a smile, "nothing is impossible for Father God and Jesus Christ to do!" "You are right in this Daughter of Zion, and of Great Faith, there's still some life left in its pieces." He pointed to the large crater with the broken embedded pieces still remaining of the Black Magnetic Rock of Creation and said, "These pieces of rock that you're seeing embedded into the earth, will allow, during these times of the tribulation period foretold in the Scripture of Truth, some of the Risen Lamb of God's children to still be able, at times, to grow food, to pull electricity, to have the benefits that will no longer be allowed to the kingdom of darkness." "But how? How will those left behind of His children be able to use them without the kingdom of darkness using them to? I ask earnestly. Gabriel replied quickly, "That is a good question, Daughter of Great Faith and of Heaven's Court. That is one of the main reasons you are here. To learn of this truth." "Okay then, I'm still listening," I replied. "Yes Daughter of Zion and Heaven's Court, I know you are. Here is the answer to your question and see how once again the great unfathomable love of the Lamb of God, the Good Shepherd holds for His sheep, His children."

He pointed to the opening in the ground where the Magnetic Black Rock once stood with only the various sizes of fragments in the ground remaining, then he pointed upward to the opening still evidently seen in the layers of ground above as well. "When the Black Magnetic Rock of Creation shattered you made the observation that the remaining strength of the barrier was enough to maintain all the flying pieces when the rock exploded inside it before dissipating. This was a correct observation. All the broken and shattered pieces of the Black Rock will be collected and gathered together from the waters that no one, that nothing can pass the command from the Just and All powerful God of Heaven that keeps all of creation from entering them unless passage is granted from Him or His holy Son. This will be done and others of the Holy Angels shall gather every piece, with not one being left. They are then to be brought to these secured chambers of Heaven. Then during the Lamb's Great Day also known as the Tribulation period as above ground locations are secured for the Holy Lamb's remnant children and the 2 end time witnesses, meaning you as well Daughter of Zion and of Heaven's Courts until you step fully out as one of the 2 end time witnesses, for both shall be provided for in the same manner, these shards and pieces will be taken to these places carried by the Captain of the Host Jesus the Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach's Armies of Heaven made up from the Holy Angels and the 144,000 Warriors of Light."

“This is how many of the remaining areas of safety can support a garden, some electricity and other needed things and not be detected by the enemy, because, if you remember fully Daughter of Heaven’s Court and of Zion,” the Holy Angel Gabriel said quickly, “with the black rock depleted of its magnetic abilities this will cause all the frequencies, notes, tunes, waves of all types used in the world of man for its Creation, even the vibrations of the earth’s rhythms and patterns will be changed to different ones and such like with only an occasional original one occurring. But none will be able to be sustained for any great length of time except for the one new frequency that the man of sin, antichrist shall soon acquire when lucifer’s kingdom gains entrance into Atlantis once again after the great earthquake to come causes it and other cities once buried in holy judgment to rise again.” “How will the left behind or even me know how to be able to use these shards of the Black Rock and what happens if lu lu...lucifer’s kingdom is able to get their hands on one of the pieces of it?” I asked as I tried to gain all the understanding and clarity about these pieces of the black rock while I could.

He turned to face me and said, “Should anyone of the kingdom of darkness be able to acquire one of the Black Rock Mountains shattered remnant pieces, as soon as it is in their possession, that piece or pieces will quickly die. The power inside it will become fully depleted and unusable to them. They have their technology and their scheming ways of doing things and that is what will be left for them to use.” He stopped for a moment then began speaking again. “There’s still life inside each piece spoken into it by the Majestic and true Creator of All, then carried out to fruition by His Son. Though still weaker than when joined together in one united body, each piece or pieces given to an area will be inserted into the area of land and water sources which will cause some renewal of life in that area. In addition, for these designated areas of safety, through these locations joined by the fragments of the black rock inside the earth and water there will rise up a new form of communicating capabilities for the left behind and the 2 end time witnesses still here until they step out in their called appointed time. It will use some of the old equipment and technology but with capabilities that will not be known or discovered by the enemy. This will allow the underground church that will arise during this time to continue to share the Words of Truth from the Scripture of Truth,” the Angel Gabriel finished saying. I stood for a minute letting all this new information about the Black Rock Mountain’s shards go through my mind and thoughts. Then after a few minutes I asked, “If we are to use some of the old technology and equipment, then how do we keep from being discovered from their tracing devices already created inside them, including the programming of almost everything?”

A knowing smile filled his face as he said, “Trust Jesus the Christ, Yeshua Ha’ Mashiach, for He already has a plan in motion, but the majority will be from the angel barriers that will surround each designated safe areas for the left behind which includes those still unsaved who are already chosen to belong to Him. They will do more than even lucifer and his kingdom are aware of and we are going to leave them wondering as to all they shall do Daughter of Zion, of Great Faith. We will not discuss them anymore right now,” he finished saying. “Okay, I think the less they know the better it is for us.” “That is man’s way of thinking. Jesus the Christ and the Almighty God of Heaven does not hide what they are capable of doing but each revealing has its appointed time. This time for the angel barriers full knowledge has not arrived yet.” “This makes so much sense Gabriel. May I ask a different kind of question?” I asked him. “You may,” he replied. “Okay, why are you calling me Daughter of Great Faith? This is the first time I have heard it spoken to me. I know from speaking with my lovely Jesus Christ when Heaven starting calling me Daughter of Heaven, of grace, of mercy, of knowledge and so forth it was letting me know I had successfully come through a time of testing and it was accounted to me as for example...of faith...increased faith from what all had occurred I had went through.” “This is correct Daughter of Zion and of Great Faith but for this answer you will need to go to the Risen Christ yourself and He will speak to you of these things for I have not been given the release to speak to you of such things,” He finished saying. “Thank you, Gabriel, I understand and I will go to Him at a later time.” “Good,” he replied.

We were silent for a moment as we looked at the gaping hole of the crater, until finally I said slowly, “Gabriel, this world isn’t ready for what’s coming. With Manhattan being struck, with the mustard gas’ activation, the 3 days of darkness which include the trials and purging for the children of God, plus the appearance of the destroyer like in Pharaoh and Moses’ day bringing death and when the world comes out of it.....it will never be the same again. When the suddenlies begin dropping like dominoes the whole world will be watching and experiencing holy judgment one right after another, even before the prior one has been completed as the man of sin prances onto the world stage as hero and savior. No, this world isn’t prepared,” I finished saying in a knowing voice, understanding in some ways more than others. He replied quickly, “You are right in this deduction but it’s not like this evil world has not been warned what was coming. What the world didn’t expect is for Yeshua, for Jesus the Christ, the Holy Righteous Judge of All, to show His Great Hand of power strong on behalf of His children that will be remaining here during this time. The kingdom of darkness is still not prepared for the rest that shall come by His holy command even while the man of sin and lucifer... satan... walk hand in hand to finally rule the world of man.”

Gabriel, the Holy Angel of God looked me straight in the eyes, his blue eyes intense as he said, “The appointed time for these things are now. This world upon its creation only has a set number of days. The time for Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha’ Mashiach, the holy elect One to soon set up His kingdom and reign in righteousness, love and truth.” “But what exactly does the appointed time mean?” I asked him earnestly. He looked at me with kindness and said, “Remember what Yeshua, Jesus, Righteous and True has shown you. Remember the details of the crucifixion and how they correlate with the coming time of the 3 days of darkness. Remember to watch for the signs in the heavens. Did He not tell you it would be the same yet different?” Gabriel, the Angel of God said quickly. “Remember how Yeshua Himself has walked you through the calendars and pulled back layers and layers of deception so you could understand the real timing of these things. When you pull all this information together one can clearly see this is the appointed time on the earth for fallen man to enter the time of the Great Day of the Lord and the Tribulation Period. Before the last trumpet sounds means many things Daughter of Zion, but those who know Jesus the Christ’s heart knows that true repentance is what He seeks from all so they can be saved. He has already given you your final piece, the last piece of information needed. Now once again through dreams and visions He has brought your attention back to the key that joins all the pieces together.”

I looked at him for a moment then slowly replied, “You’re referring to the Oktober 3 in dreams and vision He keeps revealing to me. That’s the key to arrive at the appointed time somehow,” I finished saying as once again the pieces began clicking inside my head to the answers I had sought for years from my lovely Jesus Christ. I have waited for Him to respond if it was His will to do so and He has and has been all along but slowly. This way I wouldn’t be overwhelmed as this also included finding much deception everywhere and having to be untaught and it removed out of my life and way of thinking. “How kind our lovely Jesus Christ is to us, even when we don’t realize,” I thought to myself. Then suddenly it was like a flood gate had been opened and I was able in my head to see piece by piece the picture of the appointed time since mercy was granted, that has come again. I looked up at the Angel Gabriel, and I said in a firm voice. I understand. I got it! Yes, yes Lord Jesus Christ, Oktober 3rd with a 'K' is the key that joins all the pieces together.” The Angel Gabriel smiled a small smile then said, “It's a time like no other that's come upon your world. Daughter of Zion, of Heaven's Court, of Great Faith, hear me, hear me. This time is now. This appointed time is now. Then I awoke.
