

A Flood by Fire this Time World 10-21-26@4:22 PM

Sorrows, sorrows, sorrows, I say, sorrows have come Oh world. If you would have repented I would have washed you clean... made clean as white as the snow. I would have forgiven all your sins...all your sins.

Many think I am sitting in Heaven just waiting to slam My holy gavel down in judgment upon your world. Tell Me, why would a Creator want to destroy what He created when His heart is good and not evil?

The time has come Daughter for your world to become totally purged by fire, holy fire, and sin is the cause. For My children it means for some the final purging and testing as they are in the Refiner's fire to purge away the dross, the sin...like the Refiner's fire purifies silver and purifies gold. For the rest of My children, My wayward ones and those to come yet still, you shall find the forger's fire that you are plunged into inside the tribulation period upon your world.

If you love Me, keep My commandments, I spoke and its still true today. True love of the Father and Me We have shown through My willingness to be sacrificed for your sins oh world, and then doing it! I shed My Blood so if you choose you could be free of sin's webs of lies and deceit. Free from the hollow emptiness inside your heart and life.

Sin has a high cost to pay! It's spiritual and physical death for those who refuse to ask Me to forgive them of their sins. I say to the wayward ones that love the world and its pleasures while declaring they love Me. Your actions speak louder than your empty words. I love you and that will never change.

Hear Me now! It has been the choice of every man, woman and even the children who are old enough to know they need a Savior. That they know when they are deliberately, purposefully bad to reject Me Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach or to only half-heartedly pursue Me, to love Me as I love them.

Now it's time once again as Father commanded the world to be flooded with water to destroy all life and living things by water. Now He has commanded for the burning, purging fires to begin. It will not be done all at once like the water flood, but the flood by fire begins now and it will be fires of every type that come together that converge on the world.

Now it's time for the fervent, melting heat to begin and this time oh fallen ones, you cannot escape to live below the earth's surface and that of the waters of the world as you did after the great flood for a time until the fear of the flood returning and fear of Noah and his descendants recognizing who you are, as you once walked openly and unashamed before those that had been in the ark, the ark of safety.

Daughter, what does this all mean? It's time Daughter, it's time. It's time for everything to begin. It's time for My Day of Wrath now and I'm pouring out the fires of judgment. Instead of water, water, water everywhere in many places it shall be fire...and snow.
