

Mene, Mene, Tekel...JD Vance 8-5-26@6:55 PM

Write Daughter write the words that I speak to you this day, that is turning into night, past midnight and into early dawn.

Write Daughter write, for another night I begin My fight of righteousness against your evil, wicked nation, but I bring it closer to the point of power. I give this warning.

One that sits in the seat of power beneath the king to assume the throne in case the king is deposed, or passes unexpectedly by death, shall he, himself fall by the assassin's hand. I give this warning now so that My children are not caught unaware.

Donald J. Trump is still protected by My hand. The one beneath him, the wolf that lies to all My lambs and leads many astray, professing to be one of Mine, yet declaring to reach God man has many ways. There's only one way to My Father and that's through Me, His Son, Jesus Christ.

You have been plotting, scheming and deliberately undermining President Donald J. Trump. I take you out of the way. Hear Me, this is decreed by Me from Heaven's throne.

Watch, oh world, watch and see. I set up rulers and I cast them down from the least to the greatest. I've knocked repeatedly upon your heart's door, but instead you have chosen to embrace the fallen ones who have promised you immortality through their science and cloning techniques and a greater position of power in the ranks of antichrist's new government to come.

With all the words from many of Mine who have been speaking My truth of how like Cyrus of old I will raise up a heathen leader to help protect My own, with this leader being Donald J. Trump. Because there are promises of hope for My children through this evil, wicked man, who is still currently unrepented, to the kingdom of darkness he has now become a loose cannon of unpredictability and mostly that makes him a liability to them.

The assassin's bullet shall find its way into the head of the wolf who keeps leading so many of My lambs astray.

This is a just recompense from Heaven above. Let It be a righteous warning that I, the Righteous Judge from Heaven, do not play games.

This will be a shot that echoes across the world that shall remind man and demon, nephilim and fallen angels alike, it is Father and I who rule the affairs of men and women of this world.

Hear Me!
Mene.....Mene.....Tekel

Like Belshazzar, although one seat beneath the king, I say this to you of whom I speak.....

Mene..... I, God, have numbered your days and position of power, your ruling in the world of man and end them.

Tekel.... You have been weighed, weighed in the balances and you have come up wanting... in great lack once again.

You have hardened your heart and rejected My call to repentance. There will not be another chance given. By the hand of the assassin your rule and reign in power shall end like Belshazzar of old. Hear Me, by the assassin's bullet wound to the head your reign in power shall end.

Mene.....Tekel, I say, Mene...Tekel JD Vance. You have been weighed in the balances you evil man and have been found wanting, in lack once again.

Mene.....Mene.....Tekel.....JD Vance
Mene.....Mene.....Tekel.

I say, world, take notice. World take notice, for I have spoken and it shall be done like Belshazzar of old.
