

Few Were Taken in the Rapture! Vision 12-13-25@4:02 PM

This vision, I was praying over something. I was grieved and brokenhearted by something. I saw one of the little videos that I watched, and it's not like me, but the Holy Spirit said, watch this. It was one of these little short clips, and it was a young Christian, only been saved for a few days, about four months, something like that. He was talking about how, in other words, being brutalized by the body of Christ, because he came out of the gay lifestyle, but he was living, trying to live godly, and it tore my heart out for the body of Christ. All right, here we go.

“I see people, a sea of people, a mass, a mass amount of all races and all sizes. There's so many Jesus Christ, and from all walks of life, it appears. Why am I seeing this? Why are they just all standing there, one right beside the other, unmoving?” I can see them as far as I can look to my left and to my right. Also, in my forward view, there are so many people. “Who are they, Jesus Christ? It looks like thousands upon thousands upon thousands here. Jesus Christ, who are these people?” “What I'm showing you in this day vision are the people who profess to know Me, and those who call themselves a Christian.” (Now, Christian means you're supposed to be Christ-like.) “Are they all Yours, Jesus Christ?” “The majority that you see, My daughter, do have knowledge of Me, and say they have accepted Me into their hearts? Then there are those who make up My body, the church.” “Why am I seeing them, Jesus Christ, my love?”

“Because, daughter, I watched you weep over the body of Christ, My body, who many will beat until they battered and bruised My little sheep. Those who have newly and recently accepted Me into their hearts as their Lord. I heard you praying for My children and how hurt and grieved you were by how My other sheep will wound the new converts, bringing up their past sins and failures while forgetting that when I wash someone clean, they become a new creation in Me. And just like I have forgiven these new sheep their past sins, so did I forgive them when they repented of their sins. Many of My own body are the cause of others falling back into sin, while other times it's the enemy planted inside their churches and lives.” “There's so many, Jesus Christ.” “It is a small number compared to the billions of people inhabiting the earth and seas above and below.” “Why show me this?” “I do so, daughter, to show you this.”

“Jesus Christ, I see large hands in the sky above this great, vast number of people. What's going on? What's it doing?” I see a hand reaching down and picking up people from above one at a time and gently placing them in the other hand, very carefully. The hand keeps removing people from all over. It's just picking people from all over the crowd. The number seems about five to seven percent of the thousands upon thousands of people before me. I see that none of the people still standing seem to notice the big hand that had been removing someone beside them until they're fully gone. I see a look of shock on their faces as they see the now empty spaces beside them. The hand that's been picking people out of the massive crowd, and placing them in their other hand moves to the other hand and carefully lays it over the people in His hand like a shield, a protective covering. It was just like just real careful, real gentle.

“Jesus Christ, I see nail scars. These are Your hands.” “Yes, daughter, they are.” “Who are these that You have taken and placed in Your hands?” “Daughter, those are My ready bride. These are those adorned in spotless white. You asked Me while grieving over My body why My own body would strike its own members, the brothers and sisters in Me so brutally. Like savage wolves, you called them. It's because their garments are still spotted with sin. The majority who confess to know Me and call themselves a Christian, those who make up My body, most are still wearing dirty garments, even though I'm ready to come. Compromise of any kind that is contrary to My Holy Written Word will not be accepted or tolerated.”

“But Jesus Christ, there's so many compared to the few that You hold inside Your hands.” “As My Word says, narrow is the road that leads to life, true life found only in Me, eternal life. Many have compromised with the world, calling sin acceptable. Woe to them that call that which is evil, good. Now understand, My daughter, as you look at the masses left behind whose hearts are not ready and their garments are stained with sin, why My own body attacks, maims, and even kills those other inside My body.” “It breaks my heart, Jesus Christ.” “As it does Mine, daughter.”
