

I Am the Searcher of the Hearts 8-9-26@ 8:27 AM Shared 8-12-26

"I'm here my Love."

"Daughter, Daughter of Mine, I am the Searcher of the hearts. I am the Searcher of all minds and I shall reward accordingly to what I find. Nothing remains hidden from Me. Many of My children are like the church of Thyatira I spoke to John about while he was on the Isle of Patmos. Their love for Me is strong, their work steady, yet they tolerate the false prophets and prophetesses to rule and reign in the churches and services.

Many, I say, many of My own and those still undecided have been led astray by the actions of these witches and sorcerers who operate in seducing spirits and prophesy using the spirit of divination. Many of My own have seen and recognized this is not My true Holy Spirit, yet they sit by and tolerate it, tolerate them. This I shall hold against them, if they do not repent of such things.

But for those of Mine, Daughter, as I search the hearts and minds of all who aren't aware of how the enemy has come into their churches, who are serving Me with faithful hearts, you, I will not punish for these things you have not become spiritually aware of. Instead, I say, continually hold fast to Me, and I will reward you for your faithfulness and love when that time comes.

Daughter, I am the Searcher of the hearts and minds, so is the Holy Spirit who resided in Me without measure or limitations. This is what I'm doing once again. I have begun to search the depths of each person's heart and their thoughts. For those still not ready of Mine, I will move upon them to repent, to get ready, to have their garment spotless and clean. For when I return you will have no time to remove a stain from your wedding attire or to change into another. Behold! Take notice! I'm coming, and it's quickly and soon.

As I search deep into the hearts of My children, and look into their thoughts, there are some whose every heartbeat is lived for Me out of their faithful love and their thoughts are centered and focused on Me, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach. The one who gave His life for their sins to be forgiven and which made possible to have the unspotted garment and the robe of righteousness that I adorn all My children with when they accept Me into the hearts as their Lord and Savior.

Many say because it's My righteousness I have placed upon them it can never become dirty. This is not quite accurate. My righteousness itself can never become dirty, but it's placed upon you like a garment. It is the garment part that must be maintained and kept clean even though My righteousness is found inside it. Remember, I am the Light of the world. When you accept Me into your heart, you become reborn into My Kingdom spiritually, the Kingdom of My Father. When this happens, I, the Light of the world come and live inside of you where you too can shine My light to the world.

Now as an example to bring you clarity Daughter, take one of man's created, clear light bulbs. Inside you see the filament. When I come into your heart, I am the filament, the light source found in your life. In the light bulb I would still be the filament and your garment of righteousness would be the outer glass of the light bulb. The inside of the glass that the filament, the light source shines on is free from dust. So the light source, or filament, which is Me and My righteousness never gets touched by outside impurities.

But the light bulb if it's in use or not, if not kept clean, will collect dust upon it and over time shall cause the light that once shined brightly to now become a dimmer one. All because the outside glass, the outer garment has become dirty and spotted with dirt and dust from everyday use. But if you keep it clean and remove the dust particles and anything else that might have collected upon the light bulb's outer glass, then in cleanliness it shall allow My light to be seen brightly and clearly.

So it is with maintaining your garments so they will be ready for My return, I say to My children you're warned in My Holy Word to keep yourself unspotted. To clean yourself up which means live a life of holiness, of repentance, abstain from sinning, set yourself apart. My children are called to be different. You were not created, redeemed, and justified in Me and through Me, so you could be like the world and fit in with everyone else. The ways of the world will lead your soul to hell, to an eternity of pain and torment by your own choices where the flames and brimstone of the Lake of Fire shall torment you forever.

Why are you trying to remain and live in the world, when you have become now a citizen, a daughter, a son, grafted into the Holy Kingdom of God through Me the Holy Vine? You cannot live in both kingdoms. There's no dual citizenship. For you either are a part of the world's kingdom, the kingdom of darkness, or you're part of My Father's Kingdom. The Kingdom of God, of Light. I have made it clear within the written pages of the Word of God given to man under the divine inspiration of the Holy Spirit, My Father's Spirit that no liar, no sinner, no adulterer, or fornicators, no effeminate, no hater, no murderer, no one who practices witchcraft, no one who does not forgive and so much more shall not be part of My kingdom but shall remain outside of it.

My words shall prove true. For I, the Righteous Judge, and Searcher of the hearts and minds of man, of the inhabitants of this world I created by Father's command, and the One who determines who enters the Kingdom of Light and who does not, who remains and who does not. If your heart is searched and there is sin found such as an evil heart of unbelief in Me within its recesses, should you die before the sin is repented of, then because of this unrepented sin, you will not enter My Heaven of New Jerusalem for your eternity. Daughter, let it be known My Holy Spirit shall deal with mankind both the saved and unsaved to repent, drawing them to the Cross where forgiveness can be found, at least one time in their lives before their time to meet death arrives.

Many of Mine out of My mercy and love for them shall be given more than one opportunity to repent as the Holy Spirit lays the weight of sin and bringing it up into the hearts and minds that need to repent. This is partly how He convicts you of your sins and makes you aware of the need to repent. So, it's not that there will not be time for repentance, if one of My children strays into sin that would cause him to not be allowed into my kingdom should death find them tonight. No! It would be because of their own rebellious act of refusing to repent of their sins convicted of, whether one time or many so My Blood could wash them clean once again.

Please understand Daughter, as I have talked to you before, taking you through My Word that once I redeem someone with My Blood when they become reborn in Me, they are Mine. They become part of the Kingdom of God. They're justified, made righteous, and became an heir of My Father, Father God and a joint heir with Me to His Kingdom. Salvation has been given. You have become saved and you are no longer a part of the world's dark kingdom. You belong to My Father's Kingdom of Light that supersedes all kingdoms of the world. This is what occurs when someone truly repents and accepts Me, Jesus Christ into their hearts and calls Me their Lord. These are the facts and truth of what occurs.

With this transformation, that reborn person now has been given the ability to now choose how they shall continue to live and walk while still living in the world. They're called to live apart from it. When you are born into the world you are born with the sin nature body due to the curse given upon the world and mankind after the fall of man into sin by Adam and Eve's disobedience to Father's command. For those who have accepted Me and are reborn, this curse, these curses are broken. Why do I say 'these' curses? Because My children no longer live under the curse of death for they shall live eternally with Me who are found worthy and clean. But also the curse on the land is broken so that I can bless their gardens, bless their coming in and going out.

Once saved you now, through man's gift of freewill, choose to continue to walk with Me in righteousness and holiness and be a part of My Father's Kingdom, or you choose not to and return back to live in the world and the kingdom of darkness. This is a choice that's not given to those who haven't repented of their sins and accepted Me as the Lord and Savior. When they are born like all created men and women of the world, you are a part, by birth of the dark kingdom. This is why you do not have the ability to choose which path you will take until you first are set free of lucifer's dark kingdom when you become part of My Father's. Then this choice becomes available to them.

I have said all this to come to this point. Once I redeem you, you have been redeemed. This is a fact, a truth. Once I save you, you are saved. Once I justified you, you became justified. Once I clothed you with the garment of salvation and My robe of righteousness, you became righteous through Me. These things are truths and facts. But, Daughter, but....Hear Me, and hear Me well. With man's freewill ability, should he choose to sin and stay in that sin or sins, refusing to repent when the Holy Spirit of My Father has convicted him, then this person has chosen to no longer abide in the Kingdom of Light. To be part of Father's Kingdom you must keep yourself holy, clean, and unspotted. As I said before, there's no dual citizenship, nor are there any temporary passes for you to stay awhile and then return to My Kingdom, the Kingdom of Light unless true repentance is found within a person's heart.

With man's freewill choice, he now can choose whether he spends his eternity with Father and Me in our Holy Kingdom for all eternity, or he can choose to live in the world's kingdom of darkness, even after knowing Me as their Lord and Savior. With the end result, if they never repent of any of their sins committed since they first accepted Me into the hearts as Lord and Savior anytime after, this results in their name being removed out of My Book of Life and removed as an heir and a citizen of this, Our Kingdom of Light, of My Father, from Heaven and New Jerusalem to come. So, no, in one sense, man does not lose his salvation once he becomes reborn and saved, for it is recorded in the Books of Heaven that on that day of his life on Earth he was saved.

But he can lose the benefits he had received when he was saved if he chooses to walk away from Me, His Lord, to live again in the world. Because, if My Blood has not covered all the sins a man has committed, then you will stand before Me, not as a son, not as a daughter and friend of Our Kingdom, but as one who belongs to lucifer's kingdom of darkness and it will be by your choice. I will not be standing before you in the role of Savior on that day, but as Holy Righteous Judge who has in advance, searched out your mind and heart, weighed all your actions done in this world and will see all the things you have committed that shall testify against you. Because My Blood has not been applied for them to be forgiven and removed.

As I said Daughter, I am the Searcher of the hearts and minds of all. Nothing is hidden from Me, nothing is hidden from My Father, or His Holy Spirit, for We are One who have always existed as One, yet separately too. This is why I implore My children to keep themselves clean. To remain unspotted from the sins of this world. Daily trials and struggles shall aid you in this, because without them you would relax and become complacent. My children should never feel comfortable with the things of this world. What I have in store for you, My children shall cause every trouble, every heartache, every struggle to be remembered no more.

You shall experience pure joy, real joy and peace shall abound. All deception, lies, and trickery shall forever cease and be removed as truth flows from every fiber of existence of life in the new world to come. Darkness shall never descend in any form and I shall shine in the brightness of the light of My Father whose glory shall abound and rest upon the new Earth and New Jerusalem. The redeemed of Mine shall have glorified bodies for their eternity spent with Father and Me and they will finally walk openly with My Holy Angels and all My Heavenly Host who no longer have to war for the safety of My children. Their battles will be over to and all shall live in perfect peace, love, and harmony that shall fulfill every longing My creations have ever had. Because Father and I love them.

All that We have created, We made in love to love, and for those who chose to do so, to return Our love. This is the choice My true children will have made and this too was the choice My Holy Angels and Heavenly Host that remain in Heaven when lucifer and the others with him chose to rebel. This is what My new Earth and Heaven and this is what our New Jerusalem has been created for. It's ready Daughter! It's building is completed as I told you. It's waiting for My bride to enter and see before the rest of Mine that shall die during the tribulation gets to see it. It's an honor given to those who were faithfully ready and prepared with clean garments and holy lives for My return.

I assure you, Daughter of Mine, not one will be disappointed. Not even you when you finally give your life side by side with the other end time prophet and witness and I finally bring you home Daughter where you belong. I hear the cry of your heart daily, hourly to be with Me, to be with My Father. It will all be worth it Daughter. I promise you, it will. But until your moment of time has come, there are more souls, precious souls who need to hear about Me. So strap on further your battle gear in Me because it's time for the next phase of your life to begin. Hold on tightly to Me Daughter, because the time for the miraculous has come to manifest once again in your world for My people like I have done in times past. For I have never changed in My power.

But it's also time for the miraculous in the kingdom of darkness to appear as through technology, through mutations, and demon involvement, signs and wonders become apparent. Especially by antichrist whose seat of power is given to him by satan, by the many demons possessing him and more to come. As well as his false prophet is to be. As this is found written in My Scripture of Truth this time would come, and Daughter it has now come.
