

The Darkness, the Rapture & Rock Giants Released Dream 3-2-26@4:01 AM

“Jesus Christ, I dreamed again last night. I dreamed a series of three dreams. The first was on warfare, spiritual warfare, and how demons operate inside a person’s body. The second one I am here to write out now as You have instructed me to do. Sweet Holy Ghost Spirit, help me to write this out and in Jesus Christ's Name. Don't let me write a word that's not from my lovely Jesus Christ.” “I won't, daughter of Zion, I won't.”

The dream began when I heard a loud shout that I knew somehow had cracked the world. I knew that evil had been released in the world, and that the darkness had lifted, the darkness of three days. But I don't know how much time was in between, but it felt like a very short time. “Jesus Christ, I remember how You repeatedly told me that the aurora lights, three days of darkness, Putin firing on Ukraine and the ten hidden suitcases all make up the 4 suddenlies. I know out of your great love, mercy and wisdom that Putin firing his nuke on the Ukraine has been moved to a different place, as well as the 10 hidden rogue nuclear suitcases hidden in America. These 4 chain linked suddenlies are one event occurring at separate times in man’s timeline of the Earth. In addition You have repeatedly told me that Your return for Your bride is interconnected to the coming darkness. For 3 hours of darkness fell when You were crucified but also Your body laid in the tomb of darkness for 3 days. It’s the same yet different as Ecclesiastes 1:9 tells us. You use patterns in our world.” “Yes, daughter, I do use patterns the same yet different as circumstances are always changing in your world and yes daughter all these happenings are interconnected, interwoven as I have repeatedly revealed to My children.”

I was speaking of this, because in the beginning of this dream I knew somehow in advance the 3 days of darkness had occurred. I understood that the world had just come through it, and it was the breaking of a new day. I found myself asking, “What will this day behold? What would it bring? What would this day bring for our world? Jesus Christ, we have come through the darkness, the children are gone, and many people have died in the darkness.” I felt drawn to walk outside where there’s still some darkness of night but not the gross darkness that had covered our world recently. As I walked into the coolness of the air I looked around briefly. There wasn’t any electricity on I could see currently except in the few places that a Child God had lights during the 3 days of darkness including mine. I lifted my hands and began praising Father God and my lovely Jesus Christ. All I could think was, “Thank You Jesus Christ!” After a moment I once again looked around at the still unusually dark area I am in. I began speaking out loud to my lovely Jesus Christ.

“Lord, it is the dawning of the new day. It is the dawning of the new day that brings the Great Day of the Lord, a day of wrath and vengeance upon our world. It’s the dawning of the new day that brings the tribulation,” I said passionately, then continued as I gazed at the Heavens. “It’s the dawning of the new day that according to the crucifixion, brings Your return Jesus Christ before these other events occur, because when You returned and came out of the 3 days of darkness of the grave with the resurrected saints seen in Jerusalem, You did so my Love before the dawn of the next day’s light it says in Your Holy Word. “It’s time my Love, the purging is over, Your children are refined. The 144,000 have returned and worked the fields inside the darkness with Your holy angels and now it’s time according to Your Holy Word and Crucifixion for You to return. With the darkness lifting all over the world at the same time, it's going to be the dawning of a new day for the whole world at the same time," I finished saying thoughtfully.

Suddenly I saw a flash of brilliant light that lit up the heavens of the sky as far as the eye could see. Then it began to appear to roll back. My face is filled with astonishment and wonder as I saw before my eyes my lovely Jesus Christ on a cloud of power with His holy angels all around. The radiance and glow from Him as well as His holy angels shines with the brilliance of Father God and His holy power. In the eyes of my lovely Jesus Christ is a look of, "I'm here for what's Mine and nothing can stop Me," just as He lets out a thundering shout that also sounds like a roar of a lion. This is the shout from the voice of God the Creator inside the firmament. Its force explodes into the air and the earth begins to tremble. I know it has cracked the world and was beginning to shake and crack more in places already! "His shout is calling the dead to rise from all over the world, breaking open the graves like before," I exclaimed! This I knew was what started the great earthquake written of in the Word of God in my understanding in this dream and in reality. Tears of joy filled my heart as I fell to my knees in holy worship of my Lord and King Jesus Christ, Son of the living God Jehovah, yet God Himself also somehow. Everyone in the world I knew heard His holy shout. I know every eye is seeing Him. We'll behold Him, all the world in His majesty and power. I couldn't take my eyes of Him, who my soul loves. Now there are trumpets sounding. Everything's in slow motion, and it's like it's all happening at one time. I'm just describing it as my eyes and ears try to capture all that's happening so suddenly!

I saw again as in past times, the holy angels as they descend quickly to the earth below appear now as streaks of lights going down and coming back up with others, and I know it's the rapture. The catching away or being caught up. However you want to say it. Then suddenly they're gone, and the world's shaking, and the world's cracking even further. I am left here now to fulfill what I was created to do for Father God and Jesus Christ my love even though my heart has a deep, deep longing to have gone with my brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ. I heard a voice beside me say, "Daughter of Heaven, Daughter of Zion, of Heaven's Court, come with me." My feet aren't steady. It's like the whole whole world is shaking. I turned to the voice to see it was a holy angel of God. He's dressed in solid shiny white, and has light chestnut brown hair. He has piercing blue eyes, dark blue eyes and he's tall, which all the holy angels are tall, unless they allow themselves to appear smaller. They have the ability to change their form. That's how we can entertain angels unaware as Hebrews tells us. Again, I heard the holy angel speak to me. "Daughter of Heaven, of Zion, please come with me. You will be safe," and he held out his hand. I grabbed it quickly now as the ground was beginning to shake more violently beneath my feet. Then immediately the scene changed.

Next Scene:

We are in another location, the holy angel and I, but we are not on the ground because it's still shaking from the massive earthquake that is occurring. I looked at this new location in surprise as I recognized it, because it is somewhere I've seen before. There before me was a giant rock mountain and inside the side of it was the face of a man that looked carved into it, but I knew it wasn't. Jesus Christ my love had already shown these to me and explained what it was. I looked at the holy angel of God as questions began filling my mind. He, knowing my thoughts, replied, "Watch Daughter of Heaven, of Zion and behold what the Holy Risen Lamb Just and True, spoke to you in past times of what would come.” Then he pointed to the rock mountain. I cast my eyes upon it to see that the ground and rock mountain were beginning to crack open. I knew inside this rock mountain was a giant of a fallen angel who had been encased inside the rock mountain while fully awake as part of his righteous judgment from the Throne of Heaven for his rebellion and many atrocities he had committed against mankind and our world. He had been imprisoned until the time of judgment of the Great Day of the Lord as spoken of by so many of the prophets in the Holy Word of God. It is now the time of judgment and wrath upon our world. I spoke quickly and said, “My understanding is these fallen ones were to be released inside the 3 days of darkness, why are they only now being released after the darkness has lifted?”

The holy angel looked at me intently and replied, “Your world is still living inside the 4 chain link suddenlies which is one holy judgment issued through separate events upon your world. So until all 4 events have occurred you are still living inside it although the darkness has lifted. So in Heaven’s eyes, this is still part of the interconnected 3 days of darkness. As you are aware, Daughter of Heaven, of Zion with the lifting of the gross darkness upon your world, the spiritual and physical worlds, the realms have merged into one, meaning their fibers of existence are now one reality, including their timeline has become one. Until this merging had been completed, the fallen angels imprisoned in your physical world could not be released. The spirit realm will no longer be accessible except for hell beneath and the abyss and that will be regulated and locked under supervision of the Angelic Host of Heaven.” “Oh, I understand,” I replied, “Thank You,” then asked, “May I know your name?” He looked at me for a brief moment then said, “I am called TiJhahna. (Sounds like Tee-John-a) “Thank you,” I said in which the holy Angel nodded his head in return.

Suddenly I heard what sounded like a raging bellowing roar. My eyes turned immediately to the once rock mountain to see the mountain was mostly gone and so was the carved face. Now instead was a very angry looking, fallen angel. His eyes are blazing with seething hatred as he yells out, “Free at last!” Then he makes some guttural animal-like sounds and I instinctively knew he was going to go on a destructive rampage and killing spree of anything and everything that crossed his path if he was able. He’s very tall, very muscular, very beautiful to behold if not for the scowl and anger upon his face. He’s very, very angry. He’s fully free now and he stands as tall as the titans were recorded to have stood in their height. As I looked at him I knew there were more being released in this big earthquake as part of judgment upon an unrepented world as we enter the Tribulation. Although we’re very high in the air, this fallen one was allowed to see us. He pointed his finger toward us, his arm trembling in his rage and he said, “TiJhahna, tell the God of Heaven I will not forget His long imprisonment. Come down here and let me get my hands on your throat and that pet of the filthy Nazaren. I remember Him bringing you here to gawk at me,” he shouted, spewing hatred and loathing with every word he spoke.

In a voice of righteous authority the holy angel replied, “Dan’el the Almighty God of Heaven is not deaf. He not only hears you, He hears your heart and knows your thoughts and intentions even before you were created O’ fallen one. You have no power here Dan’el, nor can you touch this Daughter of Heaven. She belongs to Yeshua Ha’ Mashiach, Jesus the Christ, the Risen Lamb who has defeated you. This one understands she has the power to bind you in His Name again through her birthright by the Lamb’s Blood.” The fallen angel’s eyes bulged in anger and he yelled obscenities I knew had to be in an ancient obscure language at us before turning around and running in the opposite direction. I was amazed at how agile he was and how quickly he moved even with the ground still shaking, though not as much as before. In addition there was still debris on the ground and trees, rocks and other things occasionally falling at times as he ran swiftly away. "Does he have wings?" I asked Tjihahna, the holy angel of God. "He does, but he won't be able to use them for a little while due to the long imprisonment. Then he will also find out that he is no longer permitted in the heavens as Michael and his angels will have fully retrieved it from the hands of Lucifer and his kingdom as Jesus the Christ had proclaimed would be done." "That's one angry fallen angel," I said quickly. "Yes Daughter of Zion, of Heaven's Court it is and he is but one of many unleashed upon your world for this time of end time Tribulation foretold about in the Scripture of Truth," the holy angel replied.

I looked at him and said, "These fallen angels...they're very powerful, but they're still subject to the mighty Name of Jesus Christ. So, no matter what or how they're created, whether powerful or weak, they're still subject to the Name of Jesus Christ." "You are correct," Tjihahna the angel replied. I looked around at the wreckage of this area due to the earthquake and the fallen angel then I remembered I had seen some of them encased in ice, thick ice inside a mountain in Antarctica. "Tjihana, will those fallen ones encased and imprisoned in ice be released also during this time?" "Yes they will, Daughter of Heaven and of Zion. All fallen angels are to be released unless otherwise bound for longer lengths of time by the command of the Great and Mighty, Faithful holy God of Heaven or through other judgments given through the children of Heaven's prayers prayed in faith in the Risen Lamb's Name that has them to be bound again after learning of their coming release in the 3 days of darkness." "That's interesting to know," I said with a slight smile, "would you be permitted by Father God in Heaven to expound on this a little further?" I asked him. He looked at me intently and said quickly, "Some things are best left kept a mystery so the kingdom of darkness will be left wondering and struggling to determine what the Holy Lamb of God Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach has commanded when His believing children prayed in His all-powerful Name." "I think that is fantastic," I replied, then continued, "and very wise of my lovely Jesus Christ too." The holy angel smiled slightly as he said, "Daughter of Zion, of Heaven, He is after all the holy Son of God!" "Yes, He is, He is indeed," I replied and at these words I awoke from this dream.
