

It's My Great Reset That Comes, Not Lucifer's 5-16-26@6:15 PM Shared 5-17-26

"Daughter of Mine, I would speak with you again." "I'm here my lovely Jesus Christ, I'm here my Lord."

Much weighs heavy on your heart and mind at times, as I reveal to you more and more the hidden depths of the enemy's actions. Repeatedly, I have heard you ask Me, 'How do we fight such evil wickedness and deception?' Every time I have given, and will always give you the same answer. It's through Me, but Daughter is not only through Me you fight and war against these things of the kingdom of darkness, through Me you tear them down and destroy them.

In all the deception and lies, even in the time of great deception of delusion, it doesn't mean everything has to remain hidden and cannot be revealed. On the contrary, the only grand, great delusion, the great deception that is foretold in My Holy Word is how the man of sin, a man so evil and wicked to the core, possessed by many demons can charm the world like a snake charmer to a basket full of hypnotized snakes who do his bidding. That's it! This is the deception that is written about. All other things can be exposed and revealed. This is evident because although allowed, many of My own, as well as others have been exposing the truth about the fallen angels and demons who are really the fake aliens supposedly coming and not real aliens from outer space. The fallen angels are the annunaki. The fallen angels are the children from the stars, the tartarians who created the star forts, star chambers and stargates, they're all one and the same, the fallen angels.

There are many mysteries to be revealed of what occurs in the world of man, including the schemes, plots, and plans of the enemy. I have shown you how your world is like two worlds, with one comprised of the elites, nephilim, and fallen ones controlling the other world. The other world would be where the common and lower class live, where the poor reside. This is not how the world was created to be for mankind to live. This will end too and it will be 'suddenly' when lucifer's kingdom loses control and he, and the other fallen ones in the time of antichrist, will find they no longer live in a divided world of man. And no, Daughter, I am not talking about the two worlds being one of the spiritual realm, and the other of the physical before, or after they become one.

I take from lucifer's kingdom so much more than he, or the others of his kingdom can comprehend. I see their plans, their plots. I hear their schemes, but no longer will I sit passively by, because My children are asleep. Many have awakened to a deep hunger for My love and holiness. A combination you...kingdom of darkness, cannot stop or defeat this time. As many hearts grow colder and colder, with many falling away, there are those of Mine, the faithful and few who love Me and serve Me unconditionally. Their faith alone in the power of My Name can cause your whole kingdom to fall like your nephilim giant of old, Goliath. So, realize this lucifer, in My great reset, it shall be worse for your kingdom than when I scrambled the language at the time of the building of your great tower as you thought you could reach the top of the firmament with others and breach Heaven, entering it once again. You failed then, you will always fail, as you have repeatedly done in the past. Hear Me kingdom of darkness, the great reset that I have coming that shall overshadow and prevent your well-placed plans you have been making for many centuries of man's years of a reset of your own...shall set you back in your advancement like with the Tower of Babel. Only this time you will not be able to step back and regroup, replan and re-scheme, for antichrist's time is now. I say again, I shall remove it all, all that you own and possess out of My heavens, leaving only what's needed for the foretold war against Babylon to transpire, but nothing more. Oh, world of the elite, those loyal to lucifer's kingdom, I take from you now and his kingdom, your wealth.

The gold is Mine and the silver. I own it all. What will be left will be in the storehouses of those countries waging war during the time of antichrist's reign, for the Written Word will be fulfilled. But your individual wealth, your individual storehouses and bunkers of those who still are alive and survive all that I bring down in righteous judgment will find its way into the antichrist's coffers, so he can buy, bribe, and supply for all it takes to run his kingdom. There will be exceptions, for he will not spare any costs for his own luxury or for those closest and truly loyal to him, but this is only a small amount of those who live outside the world of the common ordinary men and women who have to work to survive. Who suffer at the hand of lucifer's kingdom as they manipulate and control all that's in the common people's everyday life, while they never realize they're in bondage and in a controlled world where the political environment, the wars, their every movement is watched, planned for, with counter moves of all that they do. Few have broken free on their own to learn the hidden truths, but then there's My children. Those who accept Me in their hearts can know the truth for those who seek, shall find. Man looks at the physical world, but all that's occurring is really an arena of open warfare for the battle for the lost souls of men and women of your world.

The world's separate, lived-lives were not always like this, nor will it remain. In My great reset, I reset the whole world including the elites and upper elites, in addition to their abodes, technology, skill, wealth, and all things of lucifer's kingdom too. What I do is for the better of My children. As many will bemoan and complain about the loss of their electrical power and the limited use of their smaller computerized devices, it will only be at a later time when they will realize how the lack of these things kept them hidden, kept them alive from the high-tech surveillance systems of the world like Palantir who is already out of date and surpassed by the Excalibur systems. The one that is fitting for a beast king and his beast system. But even now I command them all to be reduced to that, of only what is needed and nothing more, as it was determined in holy judgment and inside of Heaven's Courts.

Daughter, I shall take the gold, I shall take the silver all back, for they belong to Me, to My Father, they are Mine. I call for this to be done now, but still making what's needed for My own children, My beloved sheep available for them, because I love them. The electricity is Mine, it's current originates from the Earth. The natural resources, the coal, the oil, the water, the metals, and precious gems and stones are Mine. I reclaim them now, but I shall leave you lucifer and your kingdom, your vehicles and technology that uses these things, but without any means to power them..... but for a few, to fulfill the end time days. The other natural resources, the minerals, gases, ores, all the riches in the earth and sea, all the treasures of the heavens, the elements of the Earth, sea, and sky I'm taking back and they shall operate contrary to your desire, but for My own children, I shall provide.

Lucifer, where you and your kingdom, and those loyal to you lived in luxury, abusing all that was freely given and provided for all inhabitants of the world, you will now find yourself without such things. Except for those loyal to the man of sin, or those in needed positions to fulfill that which is required in My written Holy Word. Such as Gog and Magog's land as one example, but only in places and positions where needed. While I will allow My children access to some of these things though, at times, in different ways than used before to help ease the heavy burdens of life caused by the man of sin's reign of false peace and terror.

Let Me make this very clear one more time, lucifer, this world is Mine! All that's in it is Mine. So you will not be able to use any of My created things, unless I allow it, because when antichrist finally steps out into power, it shall be the Great Day of the Lord that has begun already, and that would be My Day! I am the Holy Lamb of God and it's My wrath you and all the world shall endure and experience.

Now you have a clearer picture of what to expect. My Daughter and others of Mine came to My Father and Me at different times and have asked, "Where is it written in the Scripture of Truth that your dark kingdom has all this technology and computer surveillance and such like for antichrist's reign?" They have pointed out like you Daughter, they realize some of these things are needed as they can now see how the mark of the beast and the ten kingdoms, the beast system needs these things, but not surveillance of the whole world. Not for them to be totally empowered with weaponry, gizmos, gadgets, devices, technology and such like, including wave and sound technology warfare that makes it almost impossible for a human to escape and hide. They were right. I heard My children's prayers. I laid all the evidence including their prayers, petitions, their bottled tears and My Written Word against all your kingdom has, and have planned lucifer. The just balance fell to their favor.

I shall continue to take from you all that is Mine, except what's needed for the ending of days and use it for the good of My children. So, look for more to be stripped from your evil, wicked control, commands, and kingdom. I do this for My children, and those who shall find themselves living and some dying, inside the seven-year tribulation written about in My Holy Word, for this time has arrived.
