

Watch for the Auroras, But Not As You suppose World 1-21-26@3:05 AM

He that was, is no more. Time is no more. The sands of time are no more, and the clock is striking midnight. Woe has come, has come, has come. Countdown begins as peace leaves your world and tribulation arrives. Did I not say, 'Tick tock was no more daughter?' Yes, I did. Time as you know it is no more. Now it has been changed. Days become shorter now, or who can withstand it if I did not command it to be so? This I do, on behalf of My children, I love them so much.

Run to the mountains, run, I say and flee, for antichrist is about to come after you, My people. Shut the door and hide in Me as I send down My indignation and wrath beginning first with a dark, dark time of 3 days count as when I was in the tomb.

Yield to Me and quit holding on stubbornly to the things of the world that are meant to entice you away from Me, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Maschiach, your Lord and Savior. Choices, choices, choices yet to be made. While many are living in the ashes of a destroyed life by the choices made without asking Me to lead their way.

Come, I say, come to Me you weary ones. Why try to carry the loads you were never meant to carry alone, when I, your Savior, am here to help you? Lay it down at My feet. Take up My yoke. It's easier My children. Let Me help you. You're trying so many of you to do everything on your own. Look where that has gotten you!

My children look at the lateness of the hour. The call for the Bridegroom has already gone out throughout your world. I'm coming! It is so... it is now!

Why squabble over so many things that if you're not careful and prayerful in Me, shall cause you to be left behind. Focus on Me, wholeheartedly on your relationship with Me. There's a reason My Word speaks of the road being narrow and few shall find it, walk it. Few, My children, it shall be few. This means the majority who say they love Me with their mouths are not going to My Heaven.

If you don't repent for your compromising with the world, you do not enter My Heaven. If you do not repent for your arguing over the Word, that has caused division and confusion in My body, you do not enter My Heaven. If you continue to sin, and My Holy Spirit is convicting you of such things, but you do not repent, and then you die in your sins, you do not enter into My Heaven. For that's what these things are, with so many more I have warned of in My Holy Word given to man through that same Holy Spirit that brings conviction to this evil world. These things are sin! It's sin!

Many think they can enter My Heaven where only righteousness and holiness is, with sin in their hearts, their lives. I died so you could be free from your sins. Washed clean of them. Tell Me world, if I gave My life, dying on a cross, shedding My Blood for mankind to be washed clean from their sins, what makes you think that after the price I paid for you to become sinless, as in washed clean, that I will let those with sin still in their heart, causing them to have spotted and dirty garments to enter My Heaven? Yet, this is what most think. This is why only few shall enter.

Take a good look around My children at those professing to love Me. Examine their lives. Then look again when I have returned, and see how many are still here! You'll have a hard, hard, hard road to travel for those who still choose to follow Me after I have returned.

When I removed My bride, those who forsook all to follow Me, for even My two end time witnesses will be removed, but in a different way, so they can fulfill My Written Word's end days prophecies in My Holy Word, instant lawlessness shall have entered your world. The man of sin's time will have fully come, and after the initial shock of all that occurs in My return...before, during, and after, it will become evident how changed your world really is when a person's life is taken for something as simple as a piece of chewing gum.

Get the picture children? Are you beginning to see a clear picture yet? For some yes, for most, no!

If you find yourself left behind, you are going to be enduring a hellish time on Earth. For that's what has been released and unleashed on man's physical world. Man reaps what he sows. You will be reaping the rewards for not having your garments white as snow as My Word warns you to be wearing and ready in for My return.

How do you keep yourself spotless and your garments white? Following your knees and repent of your sins, and I will wash you clean once again. Then go and sin no more unless the worst state you be found in upon My return.

Sin has a cost! I paid that for you, because its wages is death. All who are Mine, all who are like the five ready virgins are those who are pure in Me, ready in Me, and watching for Me. They are mindful in Me. This is evidently shown when they were prepared with oil enough in their vessels to endure until I came in the light.

Found without oil in your lamps means what children? You have no light! You're walking in the dark! What has light to do with darkness? In other words, though redeemed, these five virgins without oil to light their lamps were now walking without the light. They are walking in darkness. Being called a virgin represents how they were once redeemed as Mine. They had been clean and pure. Still called virgins or Christians would be another word today, they were unprepared for My return, the Bridegroom and were left behind.

The oil for the lamps of the five wise virgins, or Christians shows those who are ready in Me, and are still the light of the world. They're walking in righteousness and holiness in Me through My Holy Spirit that leads and guides them as light does, to light your path and show you which steps, which path you can safely take.

The five virgins or Christians who were foolish who brought no oil, are like the many of today who think they are ready for My return, but without the Holy Spirit, the oil in their lamps to lead them. They were redeemed by Me, but by their own choice not to have the oil with them, or inside them, they are walking in the darkness of the world. They are not fully clean.

What happened to the five foolish virgins, the Christians who have been redeemed, for they were called virgins like the five wise? They were found walking in the darkness. They had no oil to light their lamps. This is referring to their unclean status of the readiness to meet Me. What happened to them? What is found written in My Word? They were left behind! Do you not realize yet, what is written cannot be broken in My Word, for I am the Word in the flesh?

These have not been idle warnings that I'm sending to My children. These are not words spoken that at the last minute, they will change and allow you to enter My Heaven in dirty garments. These are words uttered by My Father through the Holy Spirit that shall not be moved, or changed. Just like when He spoke, and the Earth was created. Get the sin out children, or be left behind. I say again, get the sin out!

Salvation is free, redemption is free to you, for I paid its horrible cost for you. Once redeemed, you are redeemed, but if you walk out from under the protective covering of My wing, that is by your choice. No sin shall enter My Heaven again. Get the sin out, get the sin out! Repent, I say repent!

And for those that say, 'This is not how it is, you're redeemed, so therefore my salvation is secure,' you will see the deception you have walked in, so you could have your conscience soothed by the enemy's lies. So, you could walk in My ways while holding hands with the devil, and partaking in all he offers you in the world. It doesn't work that way, children. I gave you My all, so you could go free. I expect you to give your all for Me and separate your lives from the things of this world.

Daughter, I say this to you, because you understand having spent much time at My feet. Tick and tock of time is no more. It has changed, it has stopped. The sands of time have long since stopped running. Time is no more! Prepare for the darkness to descend, and I send the dancing lights, not as Lucifer and the world understands they shall come. They will in part, but mostly they will not, because as I have commanded, the three days of darkness should take them by surprise.

Children..... Be ready..... Children..... Be ready!
Children be ready, for your Bridegroom comes and I'm not coming alone!
