

Say Bye-Bye to Your Star Forts Lucifer 3-30-26@ 4:59 PM

Lord, I praise You. I yield to You. I yield to You. Speak on, Lord.

I am God and there's none like Me. I speak and it is done. I command and it shall prosper. Kingdom of darkness, I speak to you this hour. I have watched you expand yourself repeatedly over this world that was created for man, and repeatedly when you reached a certain point, We've had to step in, Father and I, because this world was created for man, not for fallen angels. The time has come for your man of sin to rise and take his position. He will do it with the technology of man that's on the earth, that's above ground.

Hear Me. Hear Me, kingdom of darkness, this does not mean you will reclaim use of what you call your star forts. Never again will you utilize these or the technology. Forbidden technology taken from Heaven that was available for man. You twisted it and used it as tyrants. I take from you forever the ability to utilize your star forts. All that you will be able to use them for is the lie that they're presented to the world. Strategic locations in fighting battles and war. Bastion forts.

Daughter, research this, look this up and see if what I say is not the truth. From shore to shore, from sea to sea, from land to land, they have their geometrically shaped stars. Symbols that connect to the heavens. These stars can be found within the masonry. Masonry, daughter. Illuminati. Stars. Referring to the fallen stars. The fallen angels. Referenced in My Word in some translations as falling stars.

You want a world reset Lucifer? You got it!

But it's going to be Heaven style and with Heaven Justice.

Did I not already warn you, there would not be allowed anymore Nephilim or fallen angel technology to be brought up what was not already up in the process of being up? That does not mean the things of the past that you were stripped of you will regain. You will not! Your exception is you will reclaim Atlantis and you will reclaim some of the other hidden cities, but you will not reclaim the use of these star forts. You will not communicate with them. You will not utilize their power, I command and I decree this I, Jesus Christ, Son of the living God.

This is a Heavenly decree and I issue it in My Father's Name. It is done. It is commanded. I have spoken. It is done. Already My angels have been sent down to permanently remove anything that can be utilizedNot one grain.Not one grain of sand will be utilized. Not one grain of dirt. Not one particle of the air will be utilized in these ever again.

Everything that's in the upper heavens. Lucifer, you will be cast down. You were already cast out of the highest heaven, the upper heavens of the heavens. You will be cast down. Did I not warn you? Did I not warn you? Everything you've constructed in the Heavens is going to be taken down except what is needed. The bare minimum. So you cannot utilize that either.

I'm making this a more level playing field, as you call it, a playing field. It's a battlefield and I'm fighting for My children, and you will not, you will not be given so much power that they don't stand a chance. There will be time for them to repent. There will be time for them to run to Me, and there will be those that will make it to the end. Therefore, I'm taking all this superior technology out of your hands. You will utilize what is on the earth's surface from this point on. Nothing else, even if you bring it up, it will not work.

Hear Me, hear Me, hear Me, kingdom of darkness. I have declared it, and it is done.
