Charlie Kirk, Oktober 3 & More Dream 10-30-26@4:12 AM

Lord Jesus Christ this is the first dream of two You gave me last night with both discerning as true from You. The second one was a personal dream. "Please Holy Ghost Spirit don't let me write one word that's not from my lovely Jesus Christ." "I won't Daughter of Zion. Now write and finally pull all the pieces together and show the world how it is that the God in Heaven, the Holiest of All Who still reigns in the affairs of the world He has created."

I dreamed I was once again outside under a white canopy type tent. There was Charlie Kirk sitting at a table with a microphone in his hand. There are people with him inside the tent. I looked up to see the moon in the sky was still round but not quite full. I was standing near the outer edge of the back of the tent. I could see in front of the tent people had gathered in which some had been debating Charlie Kirk. He held up his hand as if to signal the crowd that he was going to take a short break. Suddenly, he turned around and looked me straight in the eye and said, "You're finally here. It took you a long time to return." He motioned me to come into the tent, which I did. Someone in his group provided me with a metal folding chair which they opened and set to the right side facing of Charlie Kirk.

"Please sit down," he said to me. There was a sadness to his normal jovial voice. As I sat down, I noticed I'm the only one on this side of the tent. All the other people with him were on the opposite side. He turned his back toward them to face me directly. He pointed his finger to his table. There before me was the same flyer paper I had seen in another dream called 'Oktoberfest 3' I had received on 10-3-25. I remember I'd been shared with another dream also. The flyer says October 3 with the k and the date for that day was October 3 as in the month of October with a c for the United States.

He looked at me and said, "This is the time for these things to occur. The Moon is in the right place." "You said that the last time I was here, what exactly do you mean by that?" I asked him. He gave me a short smile then said, “It's not quite full, so it's within the quarter." My mouth fell open in surprise when he said that. He moved the Oktober 3 flyer aside, to show me a paper that had advertisements for festivals that told of events and happenings for the October 3 date which was the actual real month and date in the dream. It looked like it was to be a grand time for the Oktoberfest goers. I looked up at him intently and then said, "Charlie, I know about Oktoberfest." He gave me another sad smile then he said, "You only know part of it."

"What do you mean?" I asked. He begins speaking. "The King of all kings, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior has sent you on quite a quest for the truth to see if you would prevail in finding it or give up like so many others who claim to love Him but turn and depart when things get too hard and tough. He spoke of these things in the parable of the sower." "Yes, He did, it's in Matthew 13," I replied. "I knew you would know it's within the Holy Bible," he said quickly.

He looked briefly at his surroundings and up at the Moon then back at me as he said, “It's within the quarter, when these things have their beginnings. Not just one event but more. You have been taking on a journey into the past history of the calendars then returned back to the future with the truth of what I am to share with you. If I was still alive all would know in the spanning of days that this October 3 is the day for this particular event to begin and no one would be able to prove me wrong." Suddenly I heard a loud type of noise that sounded like a kaboom behind us. He didn't turn around but I did. There forming in the area behind us I saw was an angry mushroom cloud.

I turned to him quickly and asked, "How can this be? Today is October 30th for me according to the Gregorian calendar I have to use in this country." "So it is," he said in the knowing voice. "You've had many clues. You followed the trails hidden within the enemies hidden plans, and inside their presented entertainment to the world. You researched, fasted, prayed, and sought our Lord Jesus Christ for divine clarity and understanding of all you were being shown. This is why you have been brought to this tent once again by dream," he finished saying. He pointed again to the flyer with the Oktober 3 date spelled with the k, then to the October 3 spelled with the letter c. Then he pointed to the flyer about all the festivals in the Oktoberfest happenings. He said quickly, "The Oktoberfest occurs worldwide during the month of October with a c for your nation, while other nations spelled this month with a k. You were shown this because it was marking the targeted month itself for these attacks which when you apply all the calendar manipulations it shall still be the 8th for you and not the 7th in the calendar of where you live."

He gave a quick smile then continued speaking. "The God of Heaven and our Lord Jesus Christ run everything in perfect order, divine order which calls for the absolute truth. It does not matter what mankind thinks of his ways because they are higher. In addition our world has been pre programmed to believe the lies of the fallen angels instead of the simple truth of how all things came to be. They are the author of all this confusion. Go back to the back of the future movies and apply what you know. Remember the moon has a place in all this. It's the reviving of the old Roman Republic Empire by those bringing forth the beast system wherein your final answer will lay. Wasn't it only recently that you discovered that the 10 days dropped from the 1582 Julian calendar which was a 365 day calendar, and converted it to the Gregorian that caused that year to then only have 355 days? Again this is because they dropped 10 days. This is the same number of days that the old Roman Republic pre-Julian calendar had prior."

"Yes I did," I said quickly. "It was after much praying and fasting that my understanding was that the dropping of the 10 days from the Julian to the Gregorian was in reality to realign the calendar year with the revived Roman Empire's 355 year day calendar. Both the Julian and Gregorian were already around 365 days in their calendar. I realize once they reset the days of the calendar back to 355 they would use the Gregorian calendar to be pushed as the one for the world. It's the beast's system calendar in which the majority of the whole world has been reset and aligned to. I remember Lord Jesus Christ had shown me in the first Pi 88 dream one of the three calendars which was a Gregorian had something about it being the property of antichrist, #88, which is one of his chosen numbers, right along with the number 314."

Charlie gave a small smile and said, "See Heaven was directing you all along even in the little details." "You're right," I replied. Charlie Kirk turned toward the table and laid his hand on the Oktober 3 with a k date, then back to the October 3 with the c. He used his pointer finger to begin pecking on the number to emphasize its importance as he said, "This is the appointed day." "But how can that be? This is October 30th but you're saying it's October 3." "It is October 3," he replied. "Remember how the man of sin loves to play with his numbers. There are many ways to make a number have a different value. You've seen him do it often when he's targeting something. This is that appointed day of spanning days of time, the time of the exploding pumpkins and all will see you are correct. No one will be able to prove me wrong." As he said this, I heard two more loud noises that I recognized as the same type of explosion as the first one earlier. He looked me directly in the eye and said, "Just as surely as the Lord Jesus Christ has said lightning shall strike the clock tower housing Big Ben, also known as Big Ben itself, so shall these things be." I turned to see two other mushroom clouds forming behind us, then I woke up.
