

Circle of Stones Dream & Word 4-3-26@1:01 AM & 5:16 AM

"I dreamed again my lovely Jesus Christ and it discerns from You. I'm asking You for clarity on it. Here is my dream You gave me. Sweet Holy Ghost Spirit don't let me write one word that's not from my lovely Jesus Christ." "I won't, Daughter of Zion, now write once again what the Lamb of God has shown you."

The dream began when I was standing outside in front of a giant upright stone standing in a circular pattern. Some of the large boulder type stones had another stone laying on top of two of them. I knew immediately in my Holy Ghost Knower as I call it, that this place was constructed on a ley line. As I looked closer at the tall boulder type stones I recognized them from pictures I'd seen on the internet in past times. I'm at Stonehenge. One of the many locations of stone or rock circles found in our world. Once I fully recognized that this was Stonehenge and one of the circles of stones located around the world I was immediately whisked away and taken to location after location of the stone circles across the world. Most of these I knew were known to mankind, while some are not. I'm not sure if I was taken to every single one on the Earth, but it sure felt like it.

After traveling from place to place I was then taken back to the first circle of stones' location at Stonehenge. I was suspended above it hovering in the air, instead of standing in the green grass as before. Suddenly, I heard a great rumbling and I watched as the ground began shaking. The stones in the circle begin shaking and moving out of their places. Next, the ground began cracking and splitting open until the Stonehenge boulders were completely destroyed and part of it had fallen into the open ground. My mouth was hanging open in surprise. I was taken again from place to place where these circles of stones were that I had seen previously and I saw most every other stone circle was destroyed in various ways, but mostly through strong earthquakes. After they were all destroyed, but a few, I heard these words spoken in an audible voice:

“Thus are the results of the fallen ones’ placed circles of stones!”

Then I awoke both times. I prayed after each time and You told me to come now and You would speak with me. It's now 12:28 PM and You have called me to You. I'm here my lovely Jesus Christ, I am here.

Daughter, that which I have shown you is to come. The placing of the stone circles were part of the fallen ones' ways of conducting travel through the position of structures on the electrical current lines which are partly the Earth's electrical energy lines that they utilized. These are also known as ley lines. These stone circles are also places where the fallen ones as false gods demanded worship and blood sacrifices. These locations were later connected and used in their vast Tartarian empire. So, Daughter, I speak to you right now. Deliver this Word from Me without fear, for I, Jesus Christ, Son of God, the Head over angels, principalities and all powers have you protected and all you love by My command."

"I trust you Jesus Christ, and with Your help I will do all You say as Philippians 4:13 says I can."
"Yes you can Daughter, through Me, because I am incapable of failure."

Kingdom of darkness, lucifer the light bearer, how bright will you shine your false light when I take from you your rock circles, your circles of stones? I do this now leaving you 10% to operate with. This will still allow you to do all you are required to do and still fulfill your part of what's written in the Scripture of Truth. You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting once again fallen ones. You were warned what would happen should you try to utilize such things again.

I take from you 90% of all rock circles you have so carefully laid out from ley line to ley line, to structure to created structure. The world is Mine and all that's within it. It was created for Me and by Me. Now hear Me and hear Me well, oh, fallen ones who rebelled in heaven and your evil seed. When the Black Magnetic Rock Mountain shatters and the Earth's heartbeat becomes erratic, no longer shall you be able to traverse from point to point on the ley lines of Earth. When the Black Mountain Rock shatters no longer will sound and frequencies, pitches and tones, notes of music be forever the same. All will be without balance. Even Earth's vibrations shall not follow its original patterns. The colors shall change from their normal patterns for where there once was a blue sky, it will change into blood red with your kingdom being the root cause of it all.

I created the world perfect by Father's command. Father spoke and all was created. When He spoke, it became sound, pitches, notes, generated frequencies, vibrations, colors, patterns, balance and more. When you tempted Eve in the garden and she sinned, all this was shattered. After studying and learning most of the frequencies, sounds, vibrations, tunes and such like used in creation you applied them to your past grand empire trying to create a utopia empire in perfect harmonical balance of creation that was found in the Garden of Eden. But this wasn't what it was for those you made yourselves lord over. For your utopia society you chose to use cruelty and bondage to those different than you who chose not to submit to your cruel, iron control and rule. This is why, in part, your history was erased. You were never a superior race, a peace loving people, the star people of an alien race you are now currently presented as by those researching your history.

The web of lies that you have woven throughout history to those that look into your tartarian empire and other such times when you were upon the Earth depict you, oh fallen ones, as a people of pure ways with superior technology that threatened the other rulers in the world. In your presented narrative by many, this caused the other rulers of your world to unite and to destroy your peaceful empire, and then they conspired together and erased evidence of your existence out of man's history. This is not the truth. It was by holy judgment by My command that your tartarian empire fell. You tried once again to subdue and control mankind before it was the allotted time to rule through the man of sin... antichrist. The antichrist. This is why the world rulers did unite and remove all traces of your existence except for the trails I left to be found later. The rulers of this world thought they still needed your superior technology although you were driven behind the ice which miraculously Antarctica was discovered and placed on maps shortly after. They were covering the results of My judgment's hand of raining fire, exploding volcanoes, the build up of the ice formation and the darkness that took out your empire piece by piece, place by place through My Holy Angels.

This is also why other countries not directly involved with you, oh evil ones or your doings begin destroying much or what you had left behind for fear of My holy judgment falling upon them because of these items and relics remaining in their lands. It was wisdom for them to do so because these items and relics were accursed items like Achan's silver, gold and Babylonian garment he took in Joshua's days. You have now raised up a generation of people waiting with wide open arms for you to come to them once again as the star people, the superior race, the anunnakis or any of the other names you chose to call yourself in the past to mankind to deceive them of your true nature of evilness and wickedness. When really what they have done is openly invited you, fallen angels who sacrifice babies and drink their blood after you defile them in horrible acts to come walk among them, rule over them and be their gods once again.

Many desire for you, oh fallen ones to come, lead them into a new utopia world again and you will lead them into a new world, but not as they suppose. I give you the man of sin who shall lead the world into the fallen angels only possible, utopia society they can bring to this world. Here are a few things it shall be made from: Death, hell on Earth where demons roam freely, robots oppress man, worship of Father God and Me is restricted and illegal with penalty of death if you whisper Our names with an ax or guillotine waiting for your neck. A world filled with war and war again, murder, chaos, famine of great dearth, and unleashing of biological and chemical weapons in addition to plagues and illnesses that are known and unknown. You'll be herded into segregated areas to live. To work, to buy, to sell you must take antichrist's mark, the mark of the beast. His mark of loyalty. This is just part of what the world has openly invited into their arms through the fallen ones' deception of the fake aliens to come and this they shall receive.

I say to you now, kingdom of darkness once again, you will not rule with any further technology or electronics, even weapons than what already exists in the world of man that lives above and not below the Earth's top soil or beneath the waters of any kind. This is non-negotiable. You'll be left with 10% of your circles of stones and no more.

Do you understand now oh world, how I am in control of this world and not man, nor the fallen ones? I speak one word and all frequencies in existence that once were, shall not be the same and all such like. This I do now..... Because if I do not, man's alteration through the fallen one's technology would cause the destruction of this world before its time. All because fallen ones, you tried to remove My Father's Name Yhwh out of all He created.... which is everything.

So, kingdom of darkness, I take your rock circles, your circles of stones of My choosing from you, except for 10%. I take also from you lucifer, and your dark kingdom the ability to learn, re-learn or understand the frequencies, pitches, patterns, DNA codes, colors, notes, vibrations, sounds, and all such like you once knew and had taken from creation's existence. This is now done by My command. I do this now. Nor can evil man attain them either. I do this by My Father's command. This Daughter, the circles of stones, these rock circles are indirectly related to all these things. This is why you were shown their destruction. It starts now.
