

Why Am I Elijah Dream 5-21-22@1:17 AM & 2:37 AM

I dreamed I was watching two men in Biblical clothing walk through a city I knew was Jerusalem. They were bold in their words proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ, the errors of sin, and the wickedness of the man of sin, the antichrist. They didn't need any microphones because their voices boomed loudly for all to hear for a good distance it seemed. I knew I was seeing the 2 witnesses of the book of Revelation written about in chapter 11, but also referenced in Zechariah in chapter 4 as the two olive branches. As I am watching them I find myself thinking these thoughts. Many say the 2 witnesses are Elijah and Enoch because God took them up to Heaven without them dying. Others say Moses or possibly John who wrote the book of Revelation are one or both of them, while Zechariah indirectly relates in prior chapters before chapter 4 that it's Joshua and Zerubbabel, but these two died and were buried.

I watched as the 2 men walking side by side continued to declare boldly all the words from my love Jesus, Jesus Christ. I noticed one man's hand was hairy when he reached out and pointed toward a direction. 1 Kings tells us Elijah was a hairy man. I know somehow this witness is him. I watched as they began walking in the direction the one had pointed to as they continued walking through the streets and city of modern day Jerusalem. The people were very angry with many screaming foul curses at them. Yet their actions didn't seem to bother either one of the two witnesses who obviously were on a holy mission for God. The one witness with the hairy hand was dressed in a long robe-like garment that was red with black and white narrow vertical stripes. He wore a red covering on his head. The other one was similarly dressed except his garment was light blue and it had red and white stripes instead of black and white as worn by the first witness. Their garments went almost to their ankles and they both wore brown sandals.

Suddenly, there was a commotion to the left of them. I watched as they each slowly turned to see what I knew they already knew somehow was the cause of the ruckus. There before them stood a good distance away a group of solid black dressed soldiers carrying what looked like some type of gun you would see in a science fiction movie. I heard one of the soldiers in black speak in a voice of authority. I could tell by the sound of his voice it was a man speaking, although all the soldiers' faces were covered in solid black helmets with black faceplates. I couldn't help but wonder what was going on as I watched intently all I was seeing before my eyes.

The soldier cried out, "Halt! You are in violation of the ordinances of peace for our one world's united government of peace. You are ordered to desist speaking and you will come with us. There is a death penalty for all who speak the name of the false gods as the savior of our world. Our supreme ruler is our god and savior. You will come with us and you will not resist," he finished saying. As he issued this warning all the other soldiers lifted their weapons and pointed them at the 2 unarmed, bold witnesses of Jesus, of God. I watched intently as the witnesses of God in red looked toward the one in blue and then the one in blue began speaking boldly.

"It is appointed unto us by the God of Heaven and His Son Jesus Christ, the real Savior and Lord of this world to announce the atrocities and sins committed by the supreme ruler, the one we know is the antichrist written in the Mighty Word of God as well as those of the evil, wicked inhabitants of this world. Until our appointed time is over, you cannot stop us, thus saith the Lord God Almighty of Heaven and His Son Jesus Christ." The reactions of the soldiers appeared to be mixed with many not expecting any resistance and definitely not this kind of reply. One of the other soldiers who spoke in a female voice asked out loud. "Could it be them? Are these the 2 we've been warned about? If so, we need to proceed with caution." The soldier in charge let out a string of profanities and yelled out, "More fairytales from an ancient Holy Book about a false God and Creator. Fire!" he yelled.

Before he could fully get the command out to fire, out of the mouths of the 2 witnesses erupted fire that ran down to their arms that caused their arms to raise as if someone else or some force inside them was controlling their actions. From the one dressed in red, there erupted from his hand an almost solid blue fire with traces of pure white inside it. The witness dressed in the blue's fire was predominantly red with traces of blue flame in the fire erupting out of him. I watched in stunned silence. Why the colors of the fire were seen differently from the 2 holy witnesses of God I'm not sure, unless it has to do with the Holy Ghost and His fire, His anointing inside them. After all, Revelation 11:3 says their power comes from God. I was thinking as I continued to watch in horror knowing what was to come from the Holy Bible.

Just then the fire from the 2 witnesses combined into one and became almost a white, purer in color and the fire's intensity, I knew somehow, and consumed instantly all the soldiers, leaving nothing at all where they had been but a very large charred spot. The people who had been smugly observing all this now were screaming, yelling, and running away from what they just witnessed had happened from the fire of the 2 holy witnesses of God.

I heard a loud voice from the Heavens say, "Tell antichrist My 2 end time witnesses and prophets have arrived, but it's not who all are expecting. It is neither the physical reappearances of Elijah who once walked the earth, nor Enoch who both were taken to Heaven by My commands. Neither is it another of Mine who has died already then was brought to My Heavens when I, the Son of God, Jesus rose from the grave. For these are those who once were born and resided on the earth as men, but no longer. They have glorified heavenly bodies now, not ones of flesh and bone.

It is My power given to them from My Father, His power given and used through My Name whose Name is above all others for I am the Christ. Christ Jesus. Many of My children I have warned as the end days draw near that Elijah would come and bear witness. With many believing physically as one of the end time witnesses of the two. This is what I mean.

First all things that have happened once, will happen again, the same way, yet also different. This is because the people and circumstances surrounding the next occurrence will be different. As an example of what is to come in these latter days, it is written in the Word of how Elisha had received a double portion of Elijah's anointing. The Elijah that shall return is another person that shall have the same part of the Holy Spirit's anointing that Elijah the prophet operated in without measure. As well as the part of the anointing of Moses with the same attributes and zeal for the Lord's work as Zerubbabel.

But all these holy men mentioned no longer live on the earth. Since they no longer reside on the earth, with Heaven as their new home, they no longer have the flesh of a man that gave them the rightful dominion, the ability to rule over creation as given to Adam for all mankind. It's no longer needed in their changed, glorified bodies, but for the 2 end time witnesses, this dominion and right to rule creation is needed as they fulfill the written Word fulfilling the control of the heavens, sending forth plagues and so much more.” Then suddenly my love Jesus quit speaking.

I heard myself ask out loud, “Lord I understand some of this and I ask You in Your Name to teach me more through Your Word. But why are you only telling me about the one witness when there are two of them? What about the one dressed in the blue? What about the anointing he will work in and the attributes he will have too?”

I heard Him say to me, “They are similar but different allowing My 2 end time witnesses and prophets working together as one, to accomplish all that is written they shall do and more.” “I understand this part. Thank You my Love Jesus, but why are You only speaking about the one in red. The one who will work more in the anointing of Elijah? What do you mean by this Lord?”

Suddenly the 2 witnesses turned to face me directly. I saw the face of the one dressed in blue first. It’s now forever imprinted on my mind I know somehow. His face is familiar and known to me. I turned to look at the face of the witness dressed in red with the hairy hands like Elijah. He was indeed a hairy man with a long beard. As I looked into his face, suddenly it changed into someone else. There instead I saw myself dressed in the red standing where the Elijah anointing type witness had been. Still standing next to the witness dressed in blue.

I knew my mouth was hanging open, even though in this dream I cannot see the one of myself who was observing all this. I exclaimed in surprise, “Why am I Elijah? What just happened? Lord, what are You saying? What does this mean?” The questions kept pouring out until finally I said, “That’s me in the red. I’m a little older than now and my hair, my hair is longer and looks whiter. You told me in 2020 when it’s time for me to walk fully in what you have called me to do for You that You would change my hair white with grey and traces of silver. Oh and it would be longer. Since I’ve been sick, my hair hasn’t grown much. Is this that time? Lord, are you telling me I am one of the 2 end time witnesses? Lord, I can’t be one of these two....or can I?”

Little Daughter, this is who I have created you to be, but even in this I give you a choice. For should you choose not to walk the perfect path, a harder path than most that I have chosen for you and take a lesser one, I shall still bless you, but another will have to be raised up to be this witness of the two. Because Daughter, to rule the elements, the waters, the plagues and do all My 2 witnesses do in My Name, they are called to be from those still alive on the earth who maintain their rightful rule, their dominion over all created things. Then being My child, no other power of the enemy, even those inside their dark kingdom with man’s dominion, can counteract or prevent what I have My 2 witnesses do through the time of the tribulation.”

“Lord Jesus, do I have to make this choice now?” “No little one, weigh the costs, then make your choice. This is why I have come to you before the tribulation period comes upon the earth.” “But Lord, You already know what I will choose,” I heard myself say. I heard Him reply in a voice of kindness and love, “Yes, I do, but until you make your choice, the truth is not birthed into the reality of your world you live in.” “Oh, okay, what about the other witness? Does he know yet? I recognize his face now.”

“No, he does not. I have yet to speak to him directly. You are the first of the 2 given the choice to decide how you are going to proceed.” “I know his face,” I said. “Yes and you are charged with his identity being kept hidden for he is not to be revealed yet.” “What about me? If I accept this, will I be known?” “Little one, focus on what’s before you and not so far ahead. Take one step at a time,” He said to me gently in love. “Oh, I will my Love Jesus. I have much to pray on.” “Yes you do, little one,” He said. Then I awoke.

“Father God, am I really one of the 2 end time witnesses?” “You are called to be and created to be, but it’s a hard, difficult road. I will not force My child, or My children into these hard walks. It must be a choice, for to walk here requires unwavering faith in My ability and My Son’s ability to protect you in all you will need to go through to be able to withstand antichrist during the time of his rule.” “Okay Father God, I will pray about it then let You know.” “I know you will little one.”

As I am looking back on this dream in 2026, I realized the attributes of Zerubbabel are for the underground church to come that I am to be a part of before stepping out fully as one of the 2 end time witnesses for Father God & Jesus Christ with their help.
