

Aid & Opposition for the Eagle 1-30-20@5:21 AM Journal Entry

“I’m here sweet Jesus, but once again I have overslept but I know also that this was Your great love and kindness toward me. I battled in my body until late last, but I felt the power of prayer from my friend to You on my behalf and I eventually was able to go to sleep. For this I am very much thankful and I know it was You. I did hear my alarm and I do remember shutting it off, but I went back to sleep which is something I rarely do.” “Child, it is as it should be for although you push yourself hard to get all these things done, I am not going to have you push yourself to the brink of total exhaustion. Child, I am not a taskmaster unlike your enemy the devil who will push and push people into a total state of exhaustion both mentally and physically, yet still push them even further. We created your body, Father God and I and it’s not Our intention to abuse them.” “I am understanding this Lord, more and more and I choose once again to trust You for I know that there is a reason, a divine purpose for everything that I must face and I trust You, Jesus Christ. I pray in every situation that I find myself in currently and those still yet to come, it is an opportunity to share Your love, this blessed hope of Your gospel somehow, someway to all those I come in contact with along this life’s journey.” “I will never leave you nor forsake you and I shall continue to go with you even as I do now everywhere that you find yourself going.” “Thank You Jesus, for this is all I ask that You go with me and do not leave me.”

“I see Child, already, that your mind is still studying on why Persia, or Iran has chosen the day of Purim for My beloved people Israel and Jews everywhere. Although you realize how it will affect the Jews you are wondering more about the effect of it on Iran and its people? Child, they are a symbolic people and they do nothing without it pertaining to an event or occurrence in their lives and history. Child, as you have looked up on your internet, symbolic is indeed something or a thing that represents or even stands for something else. This declaration of war represents to the Persian people open defiance against My beloved Israel and the eagle. Nothing they do is without a purpose or hidden agenda for they are a people of much hatred and corruption not only among their leaders but their civilians as well. They are united together under the guise of ‘religion’ in hatred against your country the eagle and My beloved Israel. A united people even when full of evil can do much and much harm to all that they consider unlike themselves.” “It sounds like to me Jesus, that this hatred for us, for You, for truly You are the source of their hatred, but it has consumed their whole population!” “It has as you say, pretty much so.” “It’s hard for me to truly grasp how hatred can consume someone, so many people at one time!”

“Child, My beloved nation Israel is surrounded by hostiles. Those full of much hatred toward them and also toward the eagle who has stood by Israel in times past, supporting her right to exist as a people.” “Forgive me Jesus, for I really am not good at history or geography but I do realize that Iran is on or near their border for them to be able to strike Israel with their missiles.” “You are correct Child. War is upon you, Child. It is imminent and I am aware that your friend has been counting down the weeks until the declaration of war but what you should be doing is start marking off the weeks as they go by for each one draws you closer to that of My soon, coming return to claim My bride, My chosen people. Look Child, for the queen of the south she also is beginning to stir out of complacency as the king, corrupt in all his ways, continues to hide behind diplomacy, for he is the largest of three within the south to rule but the least honorable of the three. Look for him to offer aid to the eagle but betrayal is in his hands as he affirms his allegiance for that of Persia and the bear. For the bear's influence and seducing words from the lips of Putin shall sway the heart of this double minded monarch.

To the south, Jesus, this would refer to either South America or toward Africa and all those countries would it not?" "Yes, Child, it would and you are beginning to learn but Child, South America countries have no monarchy having 'escaped' from this type of control in years gone by. You will find this country to the south not far from Spain, but near the great desert." "Forgive me God, again, but wouldn't it be easier to just tell me where You speak of?" "Child, then what will you have learned, for this way as you compile the information and begin researching all that I tell you, you will become more aware and begin to realize the true significance of all that I say. Child, you know that I speak no word idly and there is a purpose and a divine reason for all that I do in word and deed." "Yes, God, I do." "Child, the people of the north which connects your lands, they will defy the urging from the bear, ignoring the veiled threats told in secret and will stand boldly beside the eagle and the queen of the east's lands, though it will be a cost to them as her country faces the backlash from her decisions from the hand of Putin in the form of many sanctions. Soon the export to the bear will become non-existent but the aid to the eagle shall become invaluable for the eagle's dwindling food supplies shall be greatly appeased when this people steps in and offers their aid and to that of the queen as well. All these words, these occurrences shall continue to fall into their proper places just as I have ordained them to be. Watch Child, and you shall continue to see the moving of My great hand across your world as I line up these events and people into their proper places." I am, God, I am." "Yes, Child, you are and there is more, so much more that is yet to come so be ready Child, and pray, pray often and read My Word, studying until you know it as if it was your own life. For it will become your life, your strength and your guide along with My precious Holy Spirit." "I will God, and I am!"
