

It's God Who's In Control, Not Man 5-1-20@4:18 AM Journal Entry

“I am known to some by one of My titles as the God that Healeth Thee. By others as Deliverer, Strong Tower, the Great I AM and these are all correct, yet still I am so much more. For no mere words that man can speak, shall utter from his very limited vocabulary can truly describe the greatness of Me... for I am God. This is not bragging as some suppose, merely stating the facts for I am known by many names to My people mankind, My beloved creation as Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Nissi, Jehovah, El Shalom, El Shaddai to name a few and to some I am simply known as the Unknown God, They know that I must exist for they see evidence of all that I have created everywhere they look and they do worship Me, again I say, as the Unknown God, and Child, this is one of the reasons that it's time for My people to wake up and start sharing My great love to all again. No longer shall I wink at the idiosyncrasies of fallen man who walk upon this earth with their chest stuck out as they walk about 'preening' like peacocks and that as you call it a 'Prima Donna!' Man was created to worship, to serve Me and to serve each other in love and friendship, for fellowship is meant to be sweet. But man, they have become defiled in all their ways leaving very little regard for the sanctity of life or for the holiness of Me. I am a holy God, full of righteousness and love, compassionate by nature in all My ways, but Child, I am also the Righteous Judge who instilled morals and boundaries meant to be kept by My creations.

Even the ocean, the great waters of the deep knows where its boundaries lay, never stepping out past them unless ordained by Me. The fox by natural instincts given by Me, knows to build the dens in due season, but man, My most beloved creation, they were given freewill. The ability to choose and make decisions for themselves and this in itself is a good thing. Or it was meant to be, but man has stepped out of his boundaries of a life of servitude... for all creation is subject to Me...but when man the created begins believing within himself that he is just as good, if not better than Me, Jehovah God then as you so often say to Me Child, 'We have a great BIG problem,' but actually it is man who has created this situation for themselves, for it is I, Jehovah, who is Lord of all. It was by My command that all was created. I do not have to prove Myself to you for My proof is all around of the magnificence of Me. Can man breathe life into another, without Me calling it back into man when they use their man-made devices? Can man tell the stars when it's time for one of them to cast itself from its place held by My hands to become known as what you call a "shooting" star?

Even man in all of his conceited self-worth, declare themselves 'gods' because I have allowed their great men and women of the earth to be able to reproduce, to clone life but only through the cell, the original created by Me. Man will never possess the full power, the ability to create something out of nothing, for they have to have something to start with, a point of origin to do all these great things and all points of origin are from My hands alone. The difference between man the created and I, Jehovah God, the Master Creator is that once again man must needs have something to build from for his many creations. But I, I speak things into existence from out of nothing and upon this world's creation, even all that you know, the things seen and unseen of this vast universe that your world is contained in, I am your Judge. This right is given to Me upon its creation and all are judged by My standards of justice and purity for My ways are holy, righteous, and stable. They have and always will stay the same for I change not. I am ever constant. It is by these righteous standards that judgement has been passed and called forth upon man. Now the whole earth shall be made to endure these things also for all things are connected, thinly held together by the invisible cords of creation.

It is from man's refusal to repent, to turn from their wicked lives of sin and walk holy before Me, that mankind now finds themselves in the midst of this pandemic, for the accidental spreading of this Coronavirus, this Covid-19 is part of the beginning, the prelude before the true, full brunt of the pronounced judgement is felt and has come upon your world. Your world has for the most part, taken My pleas, My warnings for repentance and tossed them out like one would take a bag of garbage, of refuse and taking it out and throwing it into a waste disposal. Such is the regard that man, My beloved creation has placed upon the value of My words. All except My remnant, My faithful few who have heeded My voice and as the full realization struck of the horrors of this virus came forth and many people started getting sick and many even dying, yet still the majority of men and women still refused to repent. It is out of great love and compassion that these things are brought and allowed upon your world and although man is more concerned about their actual physical well being, I am concerned for the spiritual, for the soul. This life granted to each of you is just a fleeting moment within the great hourglass of life, but where man chooses to spend their eternity, well, this decision lasts for a lifetime upon man's departure from life whether by death or by My Son Jesus' returning. It is appointed unto man once to die and then after when the Day of Judgment arrives, all will be judged for their time spent upon the earth.

These are not mere idle words that I speak to you for no idle word or vain babblings shall ever come forth from My mouth. These words are meant to make men realize that all that is occurring upon your world today is because of them and their desire to embrace more fully their lifestyles of sin taking into their bosoms, the pleasures of the flesh. Now man shall, and is even now receiving their just reward for their choices made within their lives and even in those situations in life that you may find yourself in, not necessarily by your choosing, you still have the ability to choose how to react to it. You can choose to allow things in life to crush and destroy you or you can allow them to teach you to grow and even prosper during even the most difficult and trying of times, especially when one places their trust fully in Me. O' come taste and see that I am good. My ways are righteous and in them true life can be found. Out of Me flows love, peace, joy, and happiness even during times of great hardships and even tragedies.

This war of nations that is soon to be upon your world, I shall not allow it to be stopped, for now all is set into motion to prepare for the great and terrible time of judgement. The time known to man when antichrist, lucifer's puppet shall rule with an iron fist, squeezing the very life out of the people who serve him. It's coming Child, all these things upon your world and as I have told you already this virus that your world has named Covid-19 is as you say, 'Just the tip of the iceberg,' for all these things have been set into motion to weaken the nations. Those who stand strong in power, so that upon the arrival of antichrist, your countries will more easily relinquish the control of their countries, the rule of them unto the man who is to become the Supreme Ruler, the man antichrist. These are not mere story tales, fables that are dreamed up, but actual events set to come forth at their designated time period of life upon your earth. Repentance Child, true repentance unto Me, the washing of one's sins away by My precious Son Jesus' Blood as you receive Him into your heart is man's only hope. For when man hopes and trusts within himself this is what he gets; a pandemic sweeping across your world with war waiting in the wind and famine swift on its heels.

Man without God, without Me in their life is full of much evilness of heart. Selfish and deceitful in all their ways, placing one's own self above the needs of others including over that of their own family, their own kin. Covid-19 is due to remain in circulation longer than your great men and women of science can speculate for it is I, Jehovah God who is in control of this unseen, microscopic germ and where I command it, it shall go. Until man takes seriously the information that I have provided for them even their 'cures' shall only be able to treat these symptoms for there is only one 100% cure and man is trying to treat this by what the other known Corona viruses are known to do. I say again, This is not like the others of this type of virus for this Covid-19 has 2 predominant strains which man has named the 'L' strain and the 'S,' and both strains thrive in the cold, but are also well capable of surviving in warmth. When your scientists of your world once again decided to try their hand as you say, at being Me, at trying to be God, I allowed these scientists, these men and women out of the evilness of their heart to create this mutating virus. I even allowed it to escape and to be circulated among the populations of your world for I have been warning My people, all people that for every action they make, there is a reaction, and from their reactions comes consequences both good and bad. This is what has happened.

Mankind has continually refused to repent of their sins and return unto Me and now they are living in the results of their own actions. War is coming and it shall soon be upon you and I am calling My people, all the people to prepare yourselves. I have always sent My warnings of impending destruction to give man time to repent, to prepare their hearts and lives before Me. Just like My beloved people Israel in times past refused to heed My years of warning, so has this world. But your nation Child, it was built upon Me, on My righteous laws which they have all but forgotten and a nation that forgets Me shall be turned into hell. Your nation Child, the majority of your people have chosen to push Me out of their lives. It was My presence within the lives of your people's hearts that allowed your nation to be blessed, but no longer. For your country now stands before me as a disgraced woman caught in the act of adultery by her faithful husband and now I have removed all but very little of My favor and My blessings off of your once great nation. It's only through your continual alliance with My beloved nation Israel that My favor remains on your nation as a whole. The eagle no longer soars among the heights of the peaks, but now feeds among the vultures, the buzzards of life. I have not removed My blessings and favor from these individuals who still serve Me faithfully in truth and love with their lives, but your nation as a whole. Get ready Child! Prepare your hearts first, then continue to make your physical preparations as well, for after war begins famine is soon to follow.
