

It's Reaping Day O' World & Babylon 10-11-26@12:06 PM

The evening shades have fallen, Daughter. I'm preparing to strike hard an eternal blow to the Earth's inwards as I shatter the once powerful, Magnetic Black Rock Mountain. When I do, the Earth dies as she once was. She shall die slowly at first but as the days become shortened and the wickedness and the vileness of the man of sin's control led by the fallen ones, Lucifer and satan head over the demons even above beelzebub her death shall become swifter. No longer will she be able to sustain life except in places that I have protected and what shall be needed in the end time days, as the people out of hunger and desperation still in homes of their own will abandon them to live in cramped, horrible conditions in hopes of getting a remnant of food.

This shall occur soon after the abomination of desolation of the temple in Jerusalem. When the man of sin, the antichrist declares himself god of all gods.

I will bring new life unto the Earth recreating the Magnetic Black Rock Mountain but not as before. It shall be the same yet different to allow the Earth to flourish during the time of My 1,000-year reign of the Earth. It is after this time, after satan has been loosed from his confinement of 1,000 years and he gathers to himself those remaining who have taken the mark, those who did not become fully mutated, and all those who still have sin in their hearts who do not worship Me as the Lord, God, and King at this time and surrounds My Holy City and Mountain. These that have gathered shall be slain by holy judgmental fire from My Father.

Then I shall take all who are Mine to Heaven where New Jerusalem waits. I will then purge the world and all that remains of the earth, the created firmament and recreate new by Father's command. When the new earth, the new heaven, all that's newly created inside the firmament, Father shall joyously give the command for New Jerusalem to be set down upon the Earth, the Angels of Heaven will be singing, My children rejoicing, and never again will sin ever be present upon the new earth, the new Heaven, New Jerusalem or in any form again. Because, it shall be forever locked away, imprisoned inside the Lake of Fire for all who chose the dark power to sin over forgiveness, redemption and love.

Some teach that during the Millennium Reign, the 1,000 years that I rule on the Earth, this is the new Heaven and the new Earth. It is not! Hear Me Daughter, for satan is still yet to be freed and there are those still found on the earth who love sin and not Father and Me. No sin, no evil, no wicked things shall ever set foot inside it, or will sin's evil be permitted to rise again once a new Heaven and new earth are created. They shall always be outside the door, meaning never granted entrance. For they will be locked away in a dark prison of a hole that can never be opened and that sits outside of the newly created firmament and even now is ready and waiting outside of the current old one.

What most don't realize, Daughter and many refuse to see, is that pure holiness, true righteousness is balanced in righteous love and judgment. The world's inhabitants are more wicked today than during the days of Noah and Sodom, Gomorrah and some of the surrounding area cities. I searched through the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah checking each heart to see if there might be 10 righteous found and only Lot was righteous. Though he was not perfect in all his ways, his heart still loved My Father and he did try to follow His ways, but Daughter as biblical history records even his family had succumbed to the wicked ways of sin.

His wife looked back with longing, longing for the other children she was leaving, longing for the finer things she had acquired, and longing for her life she knew she would never have if Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. Her heart was indifferent and cold to Father. Her fickleness caused her to look back and was instantly turned into a pillar of salt for her disobedience. Then once safe, Lot's two daughters, getting him drunk, one during one night, the other during the next caused him to unknowingly have illicit relations with his own daughters, causing a grievous sin and breach in Lot's family and lineage. It was a grievous, wicked thing his daughters did. Again, showing how only Lot was found righteous. When Lot saw the evidence of what he had unknowingly done and the treachery of his two daughters he became broken. He became bitter, but then he came running back to Father and Me but the children lived under a curse.

This illicit act of parent and child and of other relations is no longer a rare incident. It is a foul act of violence and a breach of trust no matter what age when it occurs. This is another reason the Earth shall be purged by Holy Fire. Sin is the cause and Hell and the Lake of Fire is the penalty if one refuses to repent and ask forgiveness of their sins. It is their choice, their decision. But not all judgment given is rewarded on Judgment Day. It is written in My Holy Word you will reap what you sow.

It's reaping day not just for the one or the two but the whole world and its inhabitants. I have remained quiet moving only in small increments of time and space as I bided My time. I have watched the slaughter of so many of Mine as their blood has been shed because of My Name and there's still more to come. I have watched as the small babies barely having begun their journey in life are forcibly ripped into pieces, their skulls crushed inside the womb in the name of planned parenthood. It's premeditated murder! Murder of the innocent ones.

I have held Myself in check as I picked up each weight, each sin for every inhabited, every nation, every word and action laying them on the just and holy balances of righteousness and Holiness of My Father. We have methodically in holiness weighed the cost of all. You are guilty, oh world and now I come unrestrained with each account, each action, each weight administering holy, righteous judgment.

Daughter, it's reaping day beginning with evil, wicked Babylon-America whose show and force of power must be removed and diminished so antichrist can rise to power uncontested by the eagle. I have clipped your wings America-Babylon. You have chosen yourself to dwell and eat the dead things like the buzzards, and so shall you ever stay. But soon it shall be the buzzards, the vultures, and all the beasts and fowls that eat dead things that shall consume your flesh until you're nothing but bones. Then I shall sink you and your memory down into the waters' deep.

Because when your actions were weighed...you... America-Babylon has been the contributing factor, the main root and cause since you rose as a nation, of 89% behind all the evilness through man that has spread throughout the world. Lucifer has set up his seat of power in your once great nation and beneath Manhattan and above he rules like he did when the city of Atlantis was still afloat. This move to Manhattan's land came after his empire of Tartaria was struck by holy judgment.

So many are laughing at My words spoken through My children, not just you Daughter. Words like, "Look at all the satellites in the sky! Look how they send more up almost daily or monthly it seems. There's no way to remove all that in the heavens. You're speaking foolishly." Then I hear, "The AI will enslave mankind. There's no way that anyone can stop the growth of all the data centers or the surveillance of the people in our world." Others boldly declare that, "America is the strongest nation and yes it looks like war, but we have survived many wars before and will do this one also." These are some of the same things being spoken by many people in your world beneath Heaven's feet.

I say again, they won't be laughing when Babylon-America is struck from within by the hidden nuclear devices by antichrist's command that shall indeed detonate on the October 3 date, which is the Oktober 3 with a k, that is also the 9/11 date and the date of Licinius' great battle in the seven, but for you Daughter it is the 8th when the truth is revealed.

Watchmen, watchmen, watch woman, what do you see advancing in the night, in the day? Let Me answer that for you, Daughter. The destruction of Babylon-America's Manhattan as darkness descends shortly after. For I deal in truth in all things, not false reality, nor deception. Seek Me and you will find Me and when you find Me many shall seek further the truth of all things. In the end, you shall see Daughter and so will the world, what's left of its people and inhabitants that all that happens will be the same, yet different than it has already occurred.

The three days of darkness are a reflection and mirroring of My Crucifixion Day and return from death.

Oh, can't you see? Truth shall prevail for this world was created by My hands and Father's command and with the Holy Spirit's wind. Its very foundation is built on truth that shall no longer remain buried and hidden.

When the three days of darkness lifts, many shall no longer have sources for electrical power. Some will be restored, some shall have power intermittently. While others shall have its full use again. The end result is many places shall find themselves reverting to living like in pioneer days without all the modern-day conveniences, yet also having available to them some of the technology such as for some their cell phones and other such like. Are you prepared for this O' world? Will you be laughing then? How can you run surveillance systems or data centers in a place I declare to no longer carry the power of electricity and such like power sources unless I allow some form for some who are Mine?

Harsh reality is about to come crashing in upon this world of lazy, slothful, idol worshiping people and inhabitants of this world who think all these luxuries and privileges that are unearned belong to them. Your self entitlement stops in the minutes of 2-1-0 in My time. It's over! The time of plenty is over! The time of sorrow is now! The time of terror is now and it starts with New York's Manhattan in the time of 12 seconds of My time. Daughter, I'm done speaking right now. We will talk more later.

"Lord Jesus Christ, is this word to be shared?" "Every word Daughter, for time has expired for your world's people. It's tribulation time for the world now." "Okay Lord.
