

Epstein, Charlie Kirk, Martyrs, America Falls then Invasion 9-15-26@9:41 AM

Note: When it speaks of, this day, this night, tomorrow, on the morrow and such like is spoken, it can refer to the one that's being lived in, or pinpointing a specific future one to come.

Lord Jesus Christ, I'm here again my Love. Oh how I would love to be there in Heaven with You. This world is a mess and You are our only hope.

After praying the Lord Jesus Christ spoke to me these words.

They shall sacrifice Epstein. Jeffrey Epstein, they shall sacrifice him.

The day has come Daughter in which the evil should turn upon each other in hopes of acquiring a higher position in the man of sin's organized one world government and religion.

Betrayal lies at the heart of lucifer and his kingdom. Betrayal works side by side with rebellion and pride, pride in oneself.

I call for division, division and conflict inside the infrastructure of the kingdom of darkness and soon you shall find your organized world inside man that once ran like a well-oiled machine shall now run like one that skips tracks, and continuously stalls and veers off course in many directions. Thus it shall be from this point forward in the world of man above and below the ground.

Tick tock, the time for the removal of the fallen ones and even the nephilim of some has come as gross darkness covers the world.

Come see O' world. Listen to My words. Scoffers and mockers, liars and deceivers, human agents of the kingdom of darkness this day you shall see the hand of the true God of Heaven, His Son's words be fulfilled.

I cut the head off the source of evil of man's power. I cut the head, the jugular vein to Babylon-America and strike its evil heart of wealth. I knock out from underneath you O' vile land that embraces the worship of false gods and is infested with the fallen angels much like the corrupted evil land of California, the legs of stability from beneath you.

You fall Babylon-America! Like a house made out of cards, My hands shall cause you to collapse. The high tide of destruction has arrived this night. O' weep daughter of Babylon who calls herself a queen. You are defiled, vulgar, and vain. Pride has caused your downfall like lucifer you serve so proudly.

Come ye other lands near and far. Behold the destruction of a city, a nation who turns fully as a nation, as a people from their holy God and Creator, from their only true Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach who speaks to you this day of a night.

See how this nation is turned into a living place of torment, of fire and destruction, of death, plagues, famine, and cannibalism as destruction's hands strikes blow, then blow, followed by invasion, captivity, and continued war.

As time progresses as prideful America is brought low even during the foretold time of tribulation in which she shall go into captivity, Putin, Xi Jinping, and others in the coalition shall surround her.

But in times of trouble in great distress, when holy judgment falls, then hearts will turn to true repentance and seek their God and Lord again. When people's hearts return to Me, then I will no longer keep My back turned and I will help those who are Mine inside of Babylon-America until the time I flood her with great and mighty waves and sink her unstable grounds, her lands fully into the waters deep.

As a sign to those who will be Mine during this time that if they return, I will be their God once again, I say, not one single state still occupied by those of this evil nation shall be totally captured by the enemy's hands of those that have not already been destroyed, those unlivable, and those that no longer exist as being a formerly recognized state.

But Daughter, evil wicked Babylon-America shall fall. Manhattan shall fall! She shall never be in a position of power ever again. Once the war begins against America-Babylon it shall continue until her end by watery grave, in both the land and waters. While much of the rest of the world still standing and not destroyed by earthquakes, disasters, fires, and continually falling judgments from Heaven shall begin focusing their attention on Israel and the revival of the old Roman empire.

It shall still be a time of martyrdom for the whole world, even America-Babylon closer to the end of her fall by antichrist's forces. But much blame for all the missing children, people, and the plagues and pestilence will be placed upon My children. Once the fake aliens, the demons, nephilim, and fallen ones arrive as so-called saviors of the world, they will announce they were responsible for the removal of the missing people. They will blame the Christians, those who believe in Me as their Lord and Savior as the source of the plagues and so much more including the cause of the 3 days of darkness announcing this is why in part, why so many people had to be removed.

Because of this, many people all over the world will begin hunting, torturing, and killing those of Mine out of their own confusion of all that's occurred in the world, their deep pain and grief that will turn into bitterness and hatred.

In a time now ruled by antichrist and the kingdom of darkness few will have any remorse at killing someone they know served Me or are still doing so. It will be a time of absolute chaos and lawlessness once the shock and disbelief has been removed and the truth has been replaced with the kingdom of darkness' dark narrative of blame placed upon My children.

After all, this will mean there will be less the antichrist will have to hunt down himself. It means any that are tortured and killed are less voices speaking the truth and what really happened.

Which is as My Word says, I came for those of Mine who kept themselves unspotted and clean from the world. Less voices that still know My pure gospel and not the watered down, rewritten copy that will be available and merged into the accepted religions of the Abraham Accord's Church where will be birthed from antichrist, the man of sin's unified one world religion in which as time progresses he will replace himself as god of all gods.

Now Daughter, I refer to Jeffrey Epstein once again who is currently very much alive but not for long. They shall sacrifice him. In the delusional world of the fallen ones, they have offered a sacrifice of one who was good. The first martyr by antichrist's hands has already been offered in which I allowed you to witness his death.

Now they will offer a polluted, evil and defiled one. One that's loyal to them upon their unholy altars believing it shall bring a balance to the power and time to rule. It will not, Daughter but they will sacrifice him nonetheless. The first sacrifice was a man, a son of Adam. The second sacrifice, a son, a nephilim offspring of one of the fallen ones.

I tell you this Daughter for you to share because there are some in the kingdom of darkness who witnessed and participated in the first martyr's death and not the fake assassination as presented to the world. Some of these same ones, once they learn of one of their loyal own will be sacrificed, and some after it has already occurred, their hearts will be weakened and I shall then draw them with My truth and love to accept Me as their Lord. Their souls shall be the reward for all these evils that have occurred around Charlie Kirk's real death.
