

It's Not Global warming Causing Nature's Chaos 9-25-26@8:37 AM Shared 9-26-26

A settling of balances, a settling of balances of just weights. The time has now arrived upon your world Daughter of Mine. A time of accountability. A time of reckoning for mankind, for nephilim, for demons, and the fallen ones has come for all.

Three score and 10 days you'll find your world forever changed in its climate. There will forever be summer, a time of fall, of winter, and a time of new birth which is the time of spring. They should still occur but not coming as before.

These months of each year are forever established at creation, but man's manipulation and altering of DNA structuring is the cause of shifting seasons as that which I have created has now been altered by the fallen ones' technology and learned skills given to man.

It's not global warming that's causing all the chaos in nature. That which I have not called forth in righteous judgment, but it's due to the manipulation of the earth, its atmosphere, its waters as lucifer's kingdom try to maintain the DNA structure of all I have created while trying to remove Father's Name, His imprint from it.

The warming of the ice causing the melting of icebergs is not global warming, but the ice is beginning to be melted to weaken its hold around the spiritual barrier wall. So when the time comes inside the 3 days of darkness the two realms can easily be merged into one. The physical and spiritual as man and nephilim, man and demons and fallen ones all walk in the same physical realm, no longer restrained by My Spirit's hands. When He steps back, the spiritual barrier will no longer exist. The two realms shall become one.

When He does step back fully, the unleashing of evil shall explode into the world of man even with the numbers greatly reduced in all I have commended aid My children. It is a time for evil to reign fully in the world of man as antichrist sits on the throne of the world's power.

But oh, Daughter, is control, he is authority does not supersede Mine!
His rights do not override Mine for I am Lord of all lords and King over every king but My Father who alone sits in a position of absolute power and authority that He's always existed in but is governed and motivated by love, for He is love.

Daughter, the time has come for me to no longer remain a mystery to the world. Many know me and have heard of Me as Savior of this world. Some call me Lord. But now it's time for the world to see the other side. Not the Sacrificial Lamb and suffering Savior who allowed Himself to be hung on a cross for man's sins. Now it's time for the world, hear Me Daughter, for the world's people and inhabitants to recognize Me as the fierce Avenging Arm of justice, the Lion of the tribe of Judah.

I come fiercely. I come with a valiant and strong right hand. I come with a bloody sword. A life for life, I require for all whose lives were deliberately ended before their appointed time by manipulation, direct influence from others, or the perpetrators from the kingdom of darkness.

Even though all hell shall be unleashed...All of lucifer's agents, demons, and nephilim shall be freed who are appointed to be, Daughter, what is it to those who are Mine when I defeated... Myself alone... all that have existed and still to come of the kingdom of darkness?

Even when My children are allowed to be placed into antichrist's hands for a little season, they just still have the victory through Me. For this world will no longer have any hold on them. What does it profit a man, a woman if they gain the whole world only to lose their soul to sin, to antichrist.

This is the fate of those who choose to reject Me as their God and Lord and accept antichrist in My place as their God. Woe to those who do so, yet such is the way evil, wicked people that enjoy the lusts of the flesh which is only momentarily. To only then have to spend their eternity in the flames of torment where the worms eat their flesh and they never die.

This I have warned to all.....It is your choice if you go there
