

I Come as a Furious Storm of Fire 9-5-26@10:52 AM Shared 9-6-26

Daughter, Daughter of Mine, I am the right arm of My Father. I do My Father's will.

Hear Me O' world, the charade of the dark kingdom played before the people on the world's stage of war and destruction of their planned excursions and wars is no longer in their control.

I rise up in the power of My Father. I come as a furious storm and take control of the nations of the world. Now war is commanded by Me as holy judgment against a wicked world that refuses to repent of their sins and do the holy commands of My Father, so their lives could have been prosperous and full of love, joy, peace and contentment.

I come as a cloud of storms upon this world of fiery judgment. I call to the armies of the north, 'Rise up! It's time to war.' I stir up the armies from the west, from the south. 'Prepare your arms for war!' From the East I say, 'Come as an overflowing scourge!'

Even during the times of the antichrist's false peace, I say, 'There shall still be war, war, war!'

Daughter, it has been foretold that from within, hidden within Babylon would come her destruction. America is this Babylon to be destroyed. Her harlot city is New York's Manhattan. Both, I declare, shall be destroyed!

I have warned that the blood lust of war has been released. Now I call for it to rise up in every nation, for great are the sins and lives of iniquity upon this world of man and beast, demons, nephilim, and fallen angels.

I will not spare, nor show mercy to anyone who refuses to repent of their sins. I shall burn this world with melting, purging fire.

Clouds of destruction shall arise. I am in control now. I unleash man against man. Nation against nation. You are wicked O' world. Now reap your rightfully deserved just rewards. For did I not warn +you would reap what you sow? This applies to all inhabitants of this world.

I see your plans O' kingdom of darkness. You thought you would maintain control of this world with your iron grip through technology, electronics, manipulation, blackmail, and so much more. You have kept a hangman's noose around My created people by all your evil actions. No more, I say, shall you do this for those who are Mine!

I send destruction in the heavens toward all your evil technology not removed yet. Your evil updates you install in all the devices used by all, including My children, I now resend back to you for all who are Mine. I blind you to My true children's activities through your technology and devices and I command you to be deaf to their motions, activities, and even vibrations and sounds their bodies make physically and spiritually.

This is the beginning of My defense of safety for My children, because most will come out of the 3 days of darkness unprepared for My return. Which shall occur the same, but different as when I was in the tomb for 3 days, then rose back to life in total, triumphant victory. Hear Me, I come the same yet different. What I'm doing here now, is for those not ready for My return and those of Mine now.

Do you understand now devil, that I shall not let your hold on this world be maintained any longer! You shall be allowed to continue only in what is needful for you to do to fulfill your role in the written Word of God.

Can you feel your control and power, all the planning and scheming slipping through your evil hands as I, the Righteous King and Owner of this world reclaim My rightful place in preparation for the thousand years of My reign to come? Let me answer that for you lucifer, O' fallen one. For I see, hear ,and know all things. Yes you can. You definitely can and you cannot do anything to stop it. You are powerless against Me!
