

A Wormwood Poem of Warning 7-16-26@6:12 AM

Jesus Christ my love I am here, I am here my lovely Jesus Christ.

Bitter waters, bitter waters
The bitter waters are on their way
As Wormwood makes its journey
Heading toward the Earth today

Bitter waters I give you oh, world to drink
Like gall and vinegar the taste shall be
While on the cross, you once gave Me

Wormwood, Wormwood
I call you from My skies
I call you into active duty
I call you to poison people to die
In the days to come
You can have your way
When you descend
In My end time days

Wormwood, Wormwood
Bitter waters you shall bring
Wormwood, Wormwood
Bitter waters, not sweet
Wormwood, Wormwood
You must obey Me
For I, God, your Creator
Command this to be

Bitter waters you shall drink
Bitter Waters and not sweet
Of 1/3 of Earth springs and rivers that be

Wormwood, oh, Wormwood
In My Great Day you shall be
In My Trumpet Judgments
Occurrence number three

1/3 of the waters now made bitter,
Not sweet, so don't drink
Or poisoned you'll find yourself
This you will be

This is different oh, world
Just wait and see

From the 1/3 part of the bloody sea
From Trumpet Judgment number two
As I warned you it would be

Wormwood comes Daughter, Wormwood comes. She has been called forth to begin her journey to make her descent into the world of man by My command. Is it not to be so? Is it not written in My Holy Word?

A charred, ruined, barren land with poisonous water upon the Earth and all that you have stored away, kingdom of darkness, for the days to come, shall find your store houses of tanks above and below the ground in much the same condition, if not worse. For water has always been a gift to man, and not meant to be used as man's new liquid gold.

I take from you, kingdom of darkness the ability to monopolize the water upon the Earth and below, for your evil purposes alone. That which you collect under the guise of the data centers, you shall only have half of the final total collected. The prior stored tanks filled, and water bottles stockpiled and reserved in shelters, bunkers, and such alike shall fail you as well. You shall have no potable water to drink.

Now Wormwood comes to take care of
The rest of the waters to be made bitter and not sweet.
By My hand of judgment
At one... two three times of passages after the burning mountain falls into the sea
