

Touch Not My Anointed & Red Smooth Stones Vision 4-2-26@10:57 AM

I was praying and speaking with my lovely Jesus Christ about a vision of red smooth stones I kept seeing when this word came forth with another vision.

"I say this day Daughter, you're not in error." "Help me understand what I saw Jesus Christ" "See what I show you Daughter."

Lord, I see a sprawling complex, a sprawling complex of various sorts of buildings. Lord Jesus Christ, it's surrounded by red smooth stones. Red smooth stones everywhere. Similar they are to the yellow Stones I've seen in dreams and visions that identified Yellowstone National Park. Lord, I see red smooth stones, I see, I see red smooth stones all around this location. Where is it?"

I say this Day daughter, just like I raised up Pharaoh in days of old to prove that I am God to those who would not believe, the stiff neck and the rebellious, I say this day, touch not My anointed and do My prophets no harm! Within these facilities they have raised up their hands against My anointed...sent out against My anointed.

I send My fire down now so I will know it is My hand and what they say is untouchable is not untouchable from the God of Heaven. I have declared it, it is so. Rain down, My commands rain down now.

And Daughter, I send forth judgment at those that hide in the sister sites that raised up their hands against My anointed! Those who declare themselves untouchable, watch Me move!

I have warned all, My children, My anointed do not touch them! Although it's allowed at times to bring about My divine purpose and divine judgment against you, you knew not to do so and chose just like Pharaoh. I bring you down now.

These in the sites that are Mine, pay attention! Choose you this day..... who will you serve?

Fire, fire, fire from within that spread from without. Hear Me Daughter, fire from within that spreads from without. Divine judgment, Divine judgment, Divine judgment called forth from the Holy God who sits on the throne ruling and reigning in the affairs of men.

"Where is this Jesus Christ? Where are these locations?" "Seek Me for My truth, Daughter. Let My Holy Ghost spirit lead you to the answers you now seek." "I will my lovely Jesus Christ, I will, in all things."
