

Not Everyone Chosen Lives Holy Lives 7-18-20@6:08AM Journal Entry

“Tell me God, if You don’t mind me asking, for You know already the question that lies upon my heart this morning.” “Yes, I do Child, but ask your question.” “Okay. Why would You let Your Spirit and power, Your anointing continually come upon Samson when we know he was living in sin? He was sleeping with a harlot, with Delilah. I ask this God because I am troubled by people who I have seen You use mightily and yet, upon further examination their lives are not the holy one You have called us to live. Why is this? I do realize You will use whom You choose, but to repeatedly use someone like Samson, though called by You from the womb, he was still walking in sin and in open rebellion, disobedience unto You. So please if You will, help me understand as only You can dear Heavenly Father. I know from reading in Judges 13 where Your Holy Spirit led me to upon me questioning this within my heart, and I know in this situation, Samson did not himself choose to become a Nazarite like most people. But he was chosen by You, and foretold by an angel to Manoah’s wife before she even conceived. Up to this point she had been barren, unable to have children and told that she would bear a son, and that he would be a Nazarite. I read in Numbers chapter 6 where it discusses the vow a Nazarite takes. Which it is a vow to separate themselves unto You, God, and they are to drink no wine or strong drink, eat no grapes moist or dried, nothing from vines, from kernels even to the husk which is the skin. It talks about all the days of the vow. So apparently these vows were not always life long vows, but a period of time they vowed to set aside for You. Dedicating themselves totally as we are called to do in the New Testament in Romans 12:1-2 which says, ‘1. I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. 2. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.’

The Nazarite during the time of his or her vow were told not to allow a razor, not to cut their hair but to let it grow. They were not allowed to go near a dead body during this time set aside for You, no matter how close the person. Even if it was a mother, brother, father, or child because they had the consecration. They were made sacred before You, God. At the end of their vow they were to make the ordained sacrifices with the priests, but before they left the door of the Tabernacle they shaved their head, and took their hair. Which the shaving represented their separation, the ending of their vow to You and they took their hair that had been shorn from their head, and they placed it in the fire which was under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. Now God, I understand this, but Samson did not choose to be a Nazarite himself, but You chose him and his, was a life-long period of time, because You chose him Yourself.” “Yes, I did Child, yes, I did.” “I understand God, that we go through Your Son Jesus Christ to reach You, and that You have placed a holy calling on our lives. Your word tells us in 2 Timothy 1:9 which says, ‘Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.’ Even though Samson lived the life of a Nazarite in the ways of not cutting his hair or drinking wine or strong drink, in all these things his life, his heart was not dedicated to You. Yet You still continually used him, for it says in Judges 14, verse 6 And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him. How can someone who You pour Your Spirit on mightily still walk in the ways of sin? Please help me to understand, because I see it in others even today. Maybe not as strong, but yes, You are still moving through them, even though all the fruits they are bearing are not always good, some even being half rotten and even fully.”

“Child, I see you desire to understand these things, not for ill intent but out of concern and even love, for I have placed deep within you a love, a concern for all people both the saved and the unsaved. Child, this is a good thing. Listen closely Child, and I will bring understanding to your heart and mind this morning. My people, the Israelites, they had sinned greatly against Me, much as your nation has today. They worshipped idol gods, even one another placing these things on the pedestal of their hearts, the place where I, God, their Creator once sat. They continually defiled their bodies with one another even performing that which is unseemly and unnatural with their men lying with their men, and their women lusting after their own kind, for so wicked had their ways become. They abused their little children in all sorts of godless ways, even sacrificing some to their false gods. Much like your people of today, except instead of making them walk through an actual fire or taking their physical life, you take their lives spiritually when being their parent you introduce them to the ways of satan, your enemy through your ungodly music, through your television and movies, through your video games, with most never realizing by doing so, they are opening up doors, entrances to allow demonic entrance and activity into their lives. Yet, man will continue to do these things, for the unsaved man is selfish and self-centered, and to deny his children these things would mean that he would have to deny doing these things himself. How do you expect the sinner, ungodly man to do so when My own children, those who profess to love and serve Me still do these things? These things, your televisions, your music, your gaming systems are not evil themselves and can be used wisely and in the good, but when you use them in the ungodly ways with vile cursings issuing forth, violence, murder, fornication and adultery, when the lewdness of evil man is present in these things, and then you place them upon the pedestal of your hearts, you have just made them your gods. Your false gods and this is where the children of Israel found themselves at.... without modern day electronic devices. Then they were judged by Me, by My righteous standards, and I delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for a period of 40 years, but I being a God of love, I promised restoration, deliverance from their enemy, and it was through Manoah’s son who he named Samson that I chose their deliverance to start from.”

“I could have chosen anyone, for it is I who chooses the ‘how’s’ the ‘when’ and the ‘why’s’ of things. For everything I do is not needful for man to know, for he would not be able to fathom the greatness of Me even if he spent every second of his life from birth to death trying to do so. I chose Manoah and his wife for I knew after My angel appeared twice unto her and once unto him that she would follow all My instructions concerning her body. As well as both of them raising Samson in My holy and righteous ways, since I had chosen Samson to start the deliverance of My beloved children of Israel. My children, the children of Israel, although in bondage once again under the rule of the Philistines, most had become complacent, even comfortable in their lives. While others cried out for deliverance, for I shall always have a remnant. A group of people who shall remain faithful and loyal to Me, who love and serve Me with all their hearts, and because of their cries and the ending of the allotted period of time for their captivity to be ending, I used Samson to arise strife between My children and the Philistines.” “But Samson’s life itself was not godly!” “No, Child, it was not, for a godly man would not in times of peace, murder 30 men for their garments to repay a debt as Samson did the men of Ashkelon after his unfaithful wife disclosed the answer to his riddle to her kinsmen. For sometimes I will use someone whose heart is not pure to bring about My divine purpose, My holy will for your earth as I did Pharaoh when he hardened his heart against Me and My servants Moses and Aaron allowing Me to display My mighty power before the eyes of all, and then bringing forth the deliverance of My beloved children of Israel.” “But Samson’s power came from You, from Your Spirit coming upon him.” “Yes, yes, it did and I can pour My Spirit upon whom I choose. Remember King Saul when he came with murder in his heart to Ramah to kill David, but when he came upon Samuel and My prophets he stripped himself of his clothes and prophesied until sundown which did give David the well needed time to flee. Child, I did not override Saul’s will, but when Saul came in contact with My anointing, My Spirit in its full power, and he having once been operating and living in My anointing could do nothing but fall under My holy presence. For My prophets had been prophesying for a long period of time and worshipping Me and My presence was strong.”

“I used Samson to stir up division and strife between My children and the Philistines. I even caused his own people, the men of Judah in the amount of 3000, for they knew his strength, to take Samson and to give him to the Philistines, which I actually used them, the men of Judah, for Samson to slay a thousand men and yet, Samson, being raised in My holy ways when he was with great thirst, he called upon Me for something to drink. So I opened up the jawbone which he had slew the Philistines with, and I caused water to come out of it, allowing him to drink and to revive his body and spirit. Child, I also placed Samson in the place of judge over Israel for 20 years during the days of the Philistines.” “I don’t understand God, I don’t understand. Samson knew You for he called upon You and You heard him and answered him. You placed him as a judge, judging right from wrong. Tell me, how and when did he fall into the sin of fornication? When he started going in unto Delilah? Was he still a judge at the time, for it says in chapter 16 that he went to Gaza and saw a harlot which we know was different from Delilah. Next he came afterwards in the valley of Sorek where he loved Deliah, so apparently he was traveling. How can someone who knows Your anointing, Your Spirit and its moving within their lives, do Your work, yet, keep dabbling in sin?” “Child, although it’s not written within My Holy Word, I did warn Samson of his erring ways. If you will look at the other lessons found within My Holy Word, I always send warning before a pronounced judgement comes into existence brought forth by My command. He kept tempting Me, Samson who was chosen to judge My people and being a judge knew My law, and knew it well. Yet, he would let his fleshly lust for the women of ill repute ensnare his soul.”

“When he fell into the trap set for him by Satan, your enemy, he kept going back even knowing that there is a price to pay, a consequence for every action. He spent many, many of your days in the company of the deceitful, evil woman, this harlot called Delilah that he had given his heart to, and after her constant whining and badgering, he, knowing he was never to do so, told her wherein his strength lay. For he was a Nazarite unto Me from his mother’s womb with no razor ever touching one single hair upon his head. For his head to be shaved, to be shorn would cause an ending of this vow, separating him from Me and My anointing. So Child, while this vow, this agreement was intact, while he was obedient and did not reveal to any wherein his strength in Me came from, then yes, My Spirit would continue to come upon him and I would still use him all the while though I was still trying to reach his heart to have him to return to My righteous holy ways. Child, even in your modern world of today, you will find people holding positions that are supposed to be led by Me. Positions like pastors, teachers, and evangelists to name a few that hold these positions without living the pure and holy lives. Will I still use them at times? Yes, for I will use whoever or whatever I need for My divine will to be done.....but up to a point. There is a price to pay for every action you do in this life, and Samson, he paid dearly for being disobedient to My voice and My urgings to repent and it cost him My anointing. Because Delilah called for a man, upon learning the secret of his strength, and had his head shaved, thereby My anointing departed as well as My strength I had empowered him with, making him weak as other men. As they were putting out his eyes, and he saw Delilah, he realized what sin had cost him.”

“Child, there are people at times that you may come in contact with during your time, your allotted time on this earth that your discernment will reveal to you that all is not ‘right,’ but what they say and are doing is still lining up to My Holy Word, and accomplishing what I need done, but it will not be allowed to carry on for long. I will send warning after warning and if it is not heeded but ignored, sin lies at their door and they will become fully ensnared for I will at this time step back. I am many things, but I am also what you call a gentleman. I will not stay after I am continually rejected, and when I leave, so does My favor, My blessings, and My protection, and what is left is their voice clanging as tinkling brass where once it flowed with the beauty of My Spirit. My Holy Spirit shall not always strive with man, but even then I am a forgiving, loving God and I will forgive everything. Every little sin and every big sin as you call them, but in My eyes sin is sin. No ‘ifs’ ‘ands’ or ‘buts,’ and I will forgive all with the exception of one: blaspheming My precious Holy Spirit. This, this is unforgivable, without pardon and it is an absolute guarantee that you will spend your eternity in the Lake of Fire when your fate is known on Judgment Day. Does this answer your question, Little One?” “Yes, God, yes it does, but You knew it would.” “Yes, Child, yes I did,” “I love You God, so very much. Thank You once again for taking the time to spend precious time with me!” “You are welcome Child. You are welcome.”
