

Ancient Ruins & the 3 Days of Darkness Dream 12-26-25 to 12-28-25

"Jesus Christ my Lord, I've come to write out the dream from December 26th until today December the 28th. Sweet Holy Ghost Spirit I asked in Jesus Christ's Name, please don't let me speak a word that's not from Him and His great Name I pray." "I won't daughter Zion, I won't."

It began when I found myself walking in a great valley, a valley made of desert sand. Sand dunes are all I could see. I looked around and saw no one in sight, yet I could see the tracks of someone or something that left footprints, indentations in the sand not far from me. I looked around one more time, and slowly began heading in the direction of the footprints. As I began drawing closer I looked behind me to see a steady row of footprints from where I had been walking through the desert sands when I entered this dream. I look back at the ones that's still laid a little distance in front of me. "That's strange," I murmured from underneath my breath, "these footprints in front of me seem to start in the middle of the desert without any prior trail. What's going on here," I asked a little louder than I was speaking before? I knew I needed to see what kind of footprints they were, and maybe they could help me to understand what's going on here.

I begin moving forward again. With every step I could feel the deep sand overflowing into my shoes. "Ugh," I said as the sand worked its way further down into my shoes. I continued slowly making my way to the footprints before me. I brushed off the nuisance of the sand in my shoes, and with greater determination began walking faster toward the footprints before me. As I arrived at the location where the footprints started, I could clearly tell they were shaped like a person who was wearing shoes. But the size of the footprint shows whoever made them had larger feet than mine, much larger. I looked around once more, then realized for these footprints to begin abruptly in the middle of the desert, it means there must be a portal or doorway that has been opened right here. By the size of the footprints, the person who made them is going to be big and tall, as in a giant of a person.

"Jesus Christ, are these nephilim footprints, or those of a fallen angel walking around here in their titan size where they don't have to keep their size hidden? Please, I ask You to let me know in Your Name," I said to Him out loud. "Daughter of Mine, little daughter, you are correct in that a portal doorway had been used at this location by the enemy. This is how they gain access to the above ground in this region without having to travel further distance through the tunnel systems beneath the earth's surface, then having to backtrack to this area," I heard my lovely Jesus Christ speak to me from the blue sky above. I looked up to the heavens, to the skies above filled with great joy and hearing His voice again. I smiled then asked, "Jesus Christ my love, why am I here? Where is this desert located?" I heard His sweet voice reply, "You are in one of the desert regions in Egypt close to Cairo in this proximity, but not directly." "Egypt!" I exclaimed in surprise, "Why am I in Egypt?" "You are here daughter, because I have something to show you," came His reply to me.

"Okay," I replied, then continued speaking. "What is it you wish to show me," I asked my lovely Jesus Christ. "And you never did tell me if it's a nephilim or fallen angel's footprints I'm following." He replied, "They are those of a fallen one. The enemy's activities have increased in this region above ground as well as below. In preparation for the coming 3 days of darkness, they have been working overtime to gain access to places of the past, as well as those they're building for the future. Inside many of the ancient structures once buried and some that are not, is the technology that the fallen ones have created in advance for this time, the end time days. Many times they have tried to use it priorly, and by command of My Father it has been shut down. Now as antichrist is stepping out about to assume his role as the end time ruler of this world, they are in haste gathering together all the technology that they can. Now they realize, by My command, their technology has been limited to what they can bring above the earth's surface for these end time days before the physical and spiritual realms merge together as one, and only in the quantity I allow. This as you know daughter happens during the 3 days of darkness."

He continued speaking, " Many ancient cities and buildings are being unearthed and being called archaeological discoveries. Just like the one near this desert that is being revealed at this time." "Which one is that, Jesus Christ my love," I asked? "The city of Pi Ramesses," I heard Him reply from the heavens. "Ramesses, isn't that supposed to be the name of one of the possible Pharaoh's that could have been in power in Moses' day when the plagues of Egypt were sent by Father God and You," I asked my lovely Jesus Christ? "Yes it is," He said, "and even scholars today will dispute over the name of the Pharaoh having nothing better to do with their time. This is one of the locations of many daughter, that the enemy seeks to use again once they rise into power under the rule of antichrist." "But how? Why? Why return back to the ancient places, when they have the modern ones that they have built with their allegiance from the various nations in our world today?" "That is a very good question," I heard my lovely Jesus Christ say from the heavens.

"In all of man's advanced technology, what's hidden inside the ancient locations in many instances still prove more powerful than what man possesses today. The fallen angels have kept hidden below the earth's surface in their secret facilities, laboratories, complexes and such like things, their superior knowledge and technology. I have shown you in some of these locations daughter, how that technology is years, many years in advance of what has been released upon the world above the earth's surface. This is so they can control the technology that comes forth in the world of man, and is also how they deceive people into believing in time travel by having pictures taken of so-called future items caught on camera that have already been created underground and under the water, and simply not yet released upon the world of man until years later. Although they're already made, available and in use to the world below the earth's surface. This involves great planning on the fallen ones' part but then lucifer is the father of all lies. Lying is deception. The enemy is crafty and will in advance create a company name or logo in the underworld below. For example, like those related to cell phones, cameras, and other electronics and then will arrange to have these items caught on some type of camera or recording device, deceiving the world that someone has traveled either backwards or forward in time. The prior invention of these company names or logos will then appear as if they have been created above ground years later. The fallen ones or nephilim will have sent up the technology after legal agreements, contracts, and ties have been made with an individual or group of people, so they can then produce above ground, those items such that were used prior in these prearranged pictures. Again I say, the devil is the master of deception.

"Time travel into the past or the future as represented in movies, has never been allowed. Although there have been such things as time looping allowed and the creation of duplicated time spaces that you have been shown with the space fluctuator and capacitor such as your president Trump has in his possession. This technology creates a duplicate space of time, a fragment of time where inside that duplicated space it can be relieved to change the outcome of how it originally occurred. But even in this I only allowed short amounts of time before the prayers of My children intervened, and I have now since called this to be stopped inside the firmament permanently. In many instances it is the technology of the crystals, such as the diamonds of power, sapphires and rubies of power I have shown you existed they are seeking to retrieve. Like what you were shown on the three pyramids located on the sunken island of Atlantis that shall soon arise when the great earthquake occurs written about in My Holy Word that causes mountains to move, and islands to be removed out of their places."

"But what does that have to do with this location near Cairo, and how do the crystals of power, the diamonds of power connect to this?" I asked my lovely Jesus Christ as I stood staring up into the heavens awaiting to hear with longing, His voice once again. I was not disappointed, and soon I heard my Lord say to me, "Daughter, the Pharaohs of old ruled in great power and with a mighty hand. Many of them were known for their cruelty. Some of these rulers were fallen ones in the past, while others were their nephilim children. In many of the locations where it was known great rulers sat in power over a land or area, hidden inside their structures could be found controls, advanced controls that would connect some of these locations by using the ley lines and the diamonds of power and such like to each other. This strengthened and helped enforce the grip of the fallen ones upon the world of man." "I understand what you're saying, but Jesus Christ my love, how does this apply to them being in power with the antichrist and all the technology that's in the world of men today? How does connecting these diamonds, sapphire, rubies of power and whatever else type they have together strengthen their kingdom, their ability to rule? Isn't what You're describing in part with the ley lines and diamond of power, referring to what satellites do they have placed in the sky already in today's world," I ask questioningly?

He didn't respond immediately, my lovely Jesus Christ, so while I waited, I looked around to see I'm still alone in this desert area of sand dunes. Then I heard Him say softly from the heavens, "Beloved daughter, do not forget that during the 3 days of darkness, when the final war in the heavens, the earth's atmosphere is completed, all the unnecessary technology, electronics, foreign structures, and every evil thing that does not belong in the heavens will be destroyed and cast out of it including the devil and his kingdom. This is why they are so desperately trying to retrieve the power of their crystals, being the diamonds, rubies, sapphires and other precious stones they utilize as power. These can be used as power supplies, sources, but also used for many other things such as lighting for an area as I have shown you in dreams and visions." "Yes you have," I replied thoughtfully. "Jesus Christ, are they able to utilize these diamonds of power and such like by sound and vibration to later help track and locate Your left behind children? Will they be able to do this with the help of their demon spies, or the technology that is available to them still left on the earth? What else do they use these diamonds of power, these precious stones for?" I asked my lovely Jesus Christ. "Daughter," He said, "they can use them in weapons, in witchcraft practices, in opening doorways, archways, and portals with the enhancements of vibrations, combined with pitches, notes, and sound needed when done in the correct order and applied frequencies and so much more. The kingdom of darkness has been enhancing and gathering precious stones, metals and other of the earth's precious, hidden resources and treasures for many of your world's centuries." "They are plundering thieves," I exclaimed! "Yes daughter, they are," came His swift reply.

I looked around at the sand dunes one more time and then the footprints before me then asked, "Jesus Christ why show me these footprints? Am I supposed to continue following them? You said this desert was near Cairo, that's in Egypt, but You also said it's not directly near Cairo. Is there a location You want me to see? How am I to proceed?" "The footprints in this deserted area are to remind you daughter, once again, that locations that seem or appear inaccessible, such as in the areas in the East Tennessee mountain ranges I revealed to you recently by dream, they're still accessible through portals and such like by the enemy. In addition, I am bringing your attention to the activities of the kingdom of darkness through the rediscovery of ancient places once buried and hidden. Many of these sites will prove My Scripture of Truth as true, yes, but also the world of man can be openly aiding in digging out these areas without questions, so they can be utilized once again by lucifer and his kingdom. This is something, that now you are aware of daughter, you can war against it in the spirit realm as My Holy Spirit leads you to do. You are not powerless against these things. None of My children are when they know the power found in My Name and their authority in Me." "I will Jesus Christ, I will and I pray it brings glory to Father God in Heaven."

"Now daughter," He said from the heavens still in an audible voice, "I do have something to show you." With these words I found myself transported to an area that looks like an archaeological dig site where a once great city was being dug out. As I walked around I could see remaining parts of walls in some places, remnants of statues from the past, pieces of broken columns that have been unearthed, and even foundations made of stone for buildings that had since been abandoned and buried until excavation began. This must have been at one time a very large and grand city, but I'm not sure what it is I'm supposed to be looking at. "Jesus Christ, what did You bring me here to see?" I asked Him quickly as I continued to look around the ruins of this ancient city. I felt strongly that I should walk to an area in the South, so I did so. Then I heard Him speak to me once again, but this time it was in my mind.

"Daughter, I brought you to this location of this ancient city ruins to show you what lies beneath it. Underneath the pharaoh's temple, one of four located in the city, by hidden access is an area that contains a console of ancient sorts wherein the diamonds of power, rubies and other such like were utilized. This type was created during the early stages of this forbidden knowledge used in creating the technology of enhanced crystals and other of earth's precious hidden treasures. After the flood I sent in Noah's day, the fallen ones took to living below the earth's surface at first, and under the water until such a time they no longer feared a returning flood of the earth's surface by My command. During this time is when they began the storing of the majority of their knowledge, technology, treasures and such like beneath the earth's surface, and even under the water, so that it can be forever sealed against any type of flooding, or so they have chosen to believe. Should I command it, I could flood the whole inner earth by one command," He finished saying.

"I know You can," I said, then continued, "You said there were four temples. Do these temples have names? Or which one are You directly referring to," I asked my lovely Jesus Christ? "Daughter, I am referring to the temple that was located here in the South that was constructed for the false god set. A fallen one that was worshiped in relation in part to war, and is also noted as being another form of the false god baal." "Oh, I didn't know that even though I have heard of set before. Why at this temple if there are four located here? Why not one of the other three? What makes this location so special," I asked my lovely Jesus Christ?" "It is because, daughter of Mine," he replied, "it is located near the massive stable that was located in the city. Also, underneath this area of the stable and the temple of set is an underground tunnel way system that connects the room with the enhanced power crystals and their console to the stable area, and other locations, where also can be found some underground dwellings that only a few know of their existence today. Now when you share this dream as I am asking you to do, daughter, more will know of their existence," my lovely Jesus Christ said.

I could tell by the sound of His voice He had a smile on His face. I knew He had no problem with exposing the hidden secrets of the kingdom and darkness, so His children could pray against all their evil doings in the power of His Name Jesus Christ, and neither do I. If Heaven wants these things revealed, regardless of the cost, I will do it for the glory of Father God in Jesus Christ's Name. As I looked around one more time at the vast ruins of the once great city Pi Ramesses, I found myself wondering what else is hidden in the ancient ruins that the fallen ones don't want us to know of. I begin to pray. "Jesus Christ in Your great Name I pray and ask that You would send every known hindrance in Your knowledge and existence and that of Father God's as stumbling blocks in the path of the kingdom of darkness as they try to continue in their evil doings. Let only those places, hidden things, technology and such like that are necessary for them to obtain to aid in the fulfilling of Your Written Word or the end-time days be allowed to be accessible to them once again. I asked Jesus Christ that You send down holy, warring Angels to block and deny access to all things and areas in Your Name. 1 Peter 3:22 tells me You have authority over the angels. This means all of the Angels including those found in lucifer's kingdom. Matthew 28:18 tells me You have all power in Heaven and earth, so there is nothing or no one that You do not have authority over. I'm good with that," I said out loud. I heard my lovely Jesus Christ reply, "So am I," and I couldn't help keep from smiling at His reply.

"Daughter, it's inside the 3 days of darkness, under the cover of the darkness, as the two worlds, the physical and spiritual realms are merging, which will be after the kingdom of darkness has completed their own fiery trials of consequences, this is when they will begin trying to remove all they've collected and stored up of their treasures, diamonds of power, rubies sapphires and others you're not yet aware of. This will be those located in the spirit realm first, then followed by those located underground and underwater in the physical before I fully reclaim the underground and waters that are actually Mine. This is in addition to the kingdom of darkness trying to open portals to pull through the nephilim, demons, fall in ones, hybrids and the mutated that are currently restrained behind the spiritual barrier inside the ice wall of Antarctica into the physical one before they completely merge into one. Do not forget daughter, that any spirits the kingdom of darkness is unable to retrieve through their doorways and portals shall be forever confined to the spirit realm. This remaining part of the spirit realm is the part called the abyss."

"In addition, daughter, lucifer's kingdom has been restricted to what they can and cannot bring into the physical realm, even now before the 3 days of darkness has descended. This is by My command and is being enforced by all of Heaven. This also includes the removal of the kingdom of darkness and all the locations underground and underwater that's not needed for the fulfilling of all that I have spoken and that's been written. At such a time when a location is no longer needed for the kingdom of darkness to have access to, according to Heaven's Court, it will no longer be accessible to them at this time in which heavenly forces shall forever block their entry until this earth is purged with fire. With the removal of the satellites and such like things no longer needed or allowed in the earth's atmosphere, it's heavens during the 3 days of darkness by Michael and his angels, there will be some of these other things that must be allowed for the kingdom of darkness to acquire, so that antichrist, the man of sin, can rule and reign with his beast system of the one world government." "I understand," I replied to Him quickly. "Yes daughter, I know that you do, now there's only one thing left to do for this night," He said firmly. "And what is that," I asked him? "Now I return you home," He said and I found myself sitting in my bed all three nights after these last words He spoke to me. It's been the same dream for all three nights.
