

North Korea, Their Leader & The Virus 4-30-20@4:13 AM Journal Entry

“I’m here this morning Jesus with love in my heart for You, and I just want to say after a long and difficult discouraging day yesterday, You had my friend call me and she encouraged me in You. Then a little later my other friend also called, and I know this was Your Holy Spirit moving on them and they were both operating in obedience, but my first friend, she sent me the text to read Matthew 10:31 and the study notes. I did and I cried, and I cried, for You used them to remind me of my value, my worth in Your eyes and how much You love me. Jesus, if it’s okay with You, I would like to write them in our conversation this morning so that when I go back over and read this entry at a later date, I will not have to stop and look it up for it will already be included.” “This would be pleasing to Me, Child, for you to do so.” “Thank You, Jesus.” “You are welcome dear Child, for you are My beloved and yes, Child, My fair one.” “I love you, Jesus.” “I know this, Child, as I love you.” Matthew 10:31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. The study notes read: Jesus teaches that God’s faithful children are of great value to their Heavenly Father.

(1.) God values you and your personal needs; He desires your love and fellowship so much that He sent Jesus to die on the cross for you. You are never away from His presence, care and concern. He knows all your needs, trials, and sorrows.

(2.) You are so important to God that He treasures Your faithfulness, love, and loyalty to Himself above all earthly things. Your unwavering faith in Christ, proved genuine in the midst of trials and trouble, in His glory and honor.

Even now still yet it is bringing tears to my eyes again for even though I knew that You thought that I was to die for, these words broke it down and struck home in my inner core. I know this is how our Heavenly Father and You feel toward each and everyone that truly love You, Jesus, and tries and can, through Your strength and love, walk in the path of righteousness that our Heavenly Father, as His children, have instructed us to walk. Although yesterday was far from being one of my best days ever, it still ended pretty awesome for I was able to find rest and peace in Your wonderful, great love knowing without a doubt that yes, You truly thought and still think today, that I am worth dying for!” “You are Child, you are. Man’s soul is a precious thing, highly treasured above anything else, for it’s by your living soul breathed into you by Father God’s breath, whereby We can fellowship together and it’s your soul and not your earthly body that will spend eternity at their chosen destination whether it be Heaven or hell. My love, Child, is endless and it has no boundaries, nor is it only contained within the hearts of those who love Me for My love is ever present, even visible. When you look upon this world that We, Father God and I have made, for I and My Father are One, then you can see evidence of Our love for man.

Father God has created the flowers, the trees, the ocean of the deep, all these things not only for His enjoyment, for He derives pleasure from all His beloved creations, but for all mankind to enjoy and cherish as well. Father God, He is omnipresent and He tells you plainly in the Holy Scripture left for man that He, God is love, love itself, undefiled in its purest form. Not like the very small amount that He has placed within man upon their creation and what you choose to do with it, Father God has left up to each individual. For love is a treasure placed within each man which he can let grow and blossom into something beautiful or it can be cut down through bitterness and hatred causing it to die within you. So be careful how you handle these precious gifts handed down to you by Father God for this is just one of many and all are freely given from the hands of Our loving Father.” “Thank You, Jesus, thank You so much for these precious gifts.”

“You are welcome, Child. You must have realized by now Child, that I am always with you and even on your worst days, I am with you and somehow I will let you know and let you feel My holy presence within your life. Whether it be through acts of kindness or even reproof from the hands of a friend, a word from My Holy Scripture or even an actual physical touch as I draw My loving arms around you and touch your spirit, I shall let you know Child. When I spoke the words, “I shall never leave you nor forsake, this is exactly what I mean and as the psalmist wrote, “if I make my bed in hell or ascend into Heaven, in My book of Psalms left to man by the leading of My Holy Spirit, for yes, He was present and operating upon your world even then, he spoke words of truth. There is nowhere possible that you can go that I do not know of, for Child, I am God. I am all knowing, all seeing, and all hearing and I own it all, even satan’s area that he claims as his kingdom. You might say that he is leasing it from Me. Even his actions and those of the fallen ones...and his demons are divinely allowed to accomplish My divine will and purpose upon your world, upon this earth and after their allotted time on earth has expired, then they shall all be cast into the eternal lake of fire. There along with the lost souls of unsaved man, they shall spend their eternity.

Child, it’s time for us to discuss Kim Jong Un’s new strategic weapon that he so fondly talked about this year during the beginning, the early months as you call them, for time is different in Heaven, not divided in allotted time periods. For 1000 years of your time is just as if 1 of your days here on earth has passed. This upon further examination would be the birth of his missile with the power of the nuclei that has multiple heads but shall be able to deliver the long range, the distance to reach to the farthest region of your land and it, Child, is almost completed. As his testing of short range missiles continue above the waters each holds a key factor to him reaching his goal, for he has never stopped fully from testing also his weapons of the nuclei which are being tested below ground level in a labyrinth of tunnels that lie within the earth below its surface. This is the weapon that North Korea shall use against your country, upon your soil after this war of nations begins. Although he shall join in the war against your nation with the forces of Putin of Russia the bear, Persia known as Iran, along with Iraq, his country will be as a willful, disobedient child that is unruly in all his way and shall unleash their promised ‘christmas package’ in the form of these weapons of the nuclei in the amount of 1 times 3. After your country has already endured the 1st round of strikes at the hands of Putin, these missiles shall be able to get through your country’s defense system but alas 3 shall be all that he will have manufactured at this time which will be Kim Jong Un’s undoing for his country will be unprepared when the queen of the east, when the UK shall step in and release their weapons of the nuclei upon North Korea’s soil for their acts of aggression upon your almost defenseless country.”

“Then again I am asking, is Kim Jong Un still alive?” “Yes, Child, he is although it was not himself within his boat that was seen, for he is still recovering from the procedure upon his heart, but he is already in the midst of making his preparations to make his grand appearance into the public’s eye. He has used the ‘episode’ to draw national attention to his small and troubled country. Even now he still confesses that they are not infested with this Coronavirus, this Covid-19, but remember Child, it was brought into his country by the man Kim Jong Un had shot after this man, knowing he was infected chose to use a public bathroom. Look it up on your internet Child, for it is still there and available.” “I have found it, Jesus, and it is an article from the Daily Star on www.dailystar.co.uk and it’s titled, ‘North Korea ‘shoots dead’ Coronavirus patient' after he's seen at public baths. Then directly beneath it, it says, 'North Korean leader Kim Jong Un quickly placed those returning from China in a quarantine.' But according to reports, an official was spotted breaching the order. It's by David Rivers Senior reporter and dated for 2-13-20@9:42. The article reads that according to the news outlet Wikitree and other outlets in the region, an official was executed who was seen at a public bath after he was supposed to be in quarantine' The method of execution was reported to be by shooting. At this time they were extending the quarantine time for people showing symptoms to 30 days. Well, Jesus, this information right here tells us it has spread into his country as well as all these others."

"You are correct Child, yet he still insists in the superiority of his country and its ability to remain uninfected to the eyes of your world even while it rages within the tightened walls of his country but the young ruler, even by mass executions, has been unable to stop this epidemic. This little germ for it is I, and not man who ordains which path it shall follow and its not over yet, Child, for as I have foretold already in prior conversations, you will see a resurgence of those infected and in deaths by this strain operating now and the one that is still yet to come to pass. Do not fret Child, for I have this all under My divine guidance for My hand has never been shortened nor ever will be, that I cannot contain control of it all. Be patient Child, for in patience possess ye your souls for it also brings about experience and hope as you learn to wait on the leading of My precious Holy Spirit for every word you speak, and every word that you make. Trust Me Child. Trust in My ways and not in the ways of man who are void of understanding. Follow the footsteps I have laid out for you and you shall not fail, for We shall surely walk it together. I love you beloved daughter." "And I love You, Jesus."
