

Babylon, You Are Not Prepared for the War I Bring to You 3-12-26@9:32 AM

Come daughter and listen to what I have to say. I have declared war openly upon Babylon-America. I have only just begun to move My hand upon and against your evil nation.

Trouble, trouble in the seas and ocean's deep. Trouble in the straits as Putin and others extend their reach to cause further interference in trade and commerce for your once great nation and others, more so than already. I said 'straits' daughter, as not just the one already seeing interferences for your world.

I call upon Kim Jong-Un to step further into this war, this war of nations soon to be the war of the world number 3 that's recorded by man. Watch as he extends further his hand of friendship to Iran, as Israel's iron dome continues to crack and break as I have foretold.

See how that which was hidden underground, manufactured underground as I foretold by Iraq, Iran and North Korea begins further to make their announcement to your world. Technological advancements that none of these three countries are supposed to have or possess. Just like the missile with the cluster bombs effect your world calls it that's bombarding My land Israel.

Still their hearts are stiff and rebellious as they look to Netanyahu, his cabinet and others to save them. The IDF will not save them, the synagogues and temples shall not save them. The rituals and sabbaths kept with fickle, disobedient hearts have failed them. Only I, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach can save their souls and lives, for I am the Savior of all people including the Jewish ones of this world.

You asked Me daughter, what does this act of war upon your nation you call home, America, the US mean? It means this.

Babylon-America you were warned. You were warned what would happen if you did not repent! Lucifer has set up camp in your borders and people travel all over the world to pay homage to your nation. No more I say! You've tried to remove Me out of existence of your nation, it's people, out of every aspect of your lives. It was, and still is, a systematic attempt to remove all knowledge of Me out of your country's walls, because no man can reach My Father but through Me. When this failed you began twisting My Holy Word, infiltrating further My churches, perverting that which was holy to deliberately undermine the moral foundations of this once great nation.

I sent storms as warnings.

I sent chastisement of fire and hail.

I sent oppression and financial failures.

Many which you thought you had conspired to bring about to maneuver yourself in a better position to control your nation's people, but leaving what you called, 'failsafe escape hatches' should you need to change your course of direction if the outcome is not as expected.

I say now, 'It's not!' I warned this world I was stepping into the affairs of man and this world. I have heard My children's cries of despair, of desperation as hope tries to die in them. I will not fail My children. I'm coming for those who are ready for My return. I love them.

But first daughter, I will explain this declaration of war I have declared on America-Babylon.

This declaration of war is simply this. I have officially entered this war against Babylon -America, destroyer of nations.....with My own Destroyer. My Slayer. All of creation is My arsenal and Babylon and world, you have yet to see My full assault.

Prepare O' world!

Prepare O' Israel!

Prepare O' Babylon-America, destroy of nations and people!

Prepare to meet your holy God on this battlefield of war!

I come as the Avenger of Holiness and I come not alone. I come with all My Creation which includes the manifold Host of Heaven.

You are not prepared Babylon-America! You are unmatched. You are defeated already and would already have been destroyed and sunk below the oceans deep, the waters of the earth and sunk down into the abyss to return never again, if not for My children inside your borders whose faith in Me, the very faith you tried to twist and erase inside you has kept you from this fate until now.

HAVE I FINALLY GOTTEN YOUR ATTENTION BABYLON-AMERICA?

Take notice, I just began My holy attack upon your soil and your various locations above and below the ground and oceans' deep.

Putin has a list and map given to him by the fallen ones, O' Babylon once he received the scepter of power and was chosen officially by the dark kingdom to lead this war against you as I have foretold for years now he would.... every location your evil hands have parts in.

When he strikes it will be lethal, as he, with this information, has already begun his assault upon your nation through other countries like Iraq and Iran in this war of nations. Strategic moves before he strikes with his nuclear weapons and others, that shall be accompanied by other nation's participation before the invasion which soon is to follow.

The nuclear blasts shall cause an EMP, electronic magnetic pulse blast for each location affected, daughter this is also true for the 10 hidden nuclear, rogue devices that are yet to detonate inside of your nation.

Can you not see it O' world, how My words are now proving true? Did not Netanyahu, that evil snake, use chemicals on the Iranian people? Daughter, I told you this in 2019 and 2020 that chemical weapons would be used in this war of nations, but this is only the beginning because men's hearts are wicked and evil.

Now daughter, I want to remind you that which I spoke to you about the AI systems of the world. The computer systems are simply that. Their electronic devices of technology within these parts no life is found. It's what has entered into it, the demons that cause it to be called artificial intelligence. But why is it now so deadly and most do not realize it?

Macron, the antichrist's mind, the lawless one is now directly linked to each system upon your world. So, those who entertain themselves with these things like grok or chatGP are speaking with the demons, but also interacting with the antichrist himself. Yet the world, including My own children, embrace its use, taking it to the bosom like it was a gift from Me to make their lives easier. It's not! It's a web made of traps for your souls.

Until the moment the antichrist had his final neuralink implanted into his brain, the demons in the AI could still be bound and prevented from expanding. But now since antichrist must rise to fulfill My Written Word, and the AI systems and macron's mind are forever connected, until he perishes it cannot be stopped! The interface of man and computer, of machine although only through his mind has caused them to be joined as one being. This is possible by the many alterations done beforehand on antichrist's mind and body, his brain for when this time would come for his rise.

Daughter, this time it's come too. Only now with war upon your world do some take notice of this possibility of those not already aware of the time of the end of days, My Great Day has come to your world, the world of men, fallen angels and demons.
