Daughter, this world sits on the dawn of a new day. Your President Trump seeks to use nuclear powered weapons against Iran as your nation's government tries to reel in his full control of such presidential powers. Did I not say Babylon-America will be the first to feel the power upon its nation's soil first? Then Ukraine will follow next. Yes, yes I did.

It's time for mankind and the inhabitants of this world to see the true hand of the Living God move against those who would try to rebel openly and even secretly against His righteous control and power.

Oh world inhabitants, have you not learned from lucifer and the angels who rebelled in Heaven and were forcibly cast out of His Heaven that you cannot overthrow the commands of the one true living God, Yahweh, Elohim? Also, known to some as Jehovah, or His Son Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach, Lord of all and King of all kings even over your world.

I am My Father's Son and judgment of the Earth and Heaven has been placed into My hands. For is it only the Father's will that I do, for We are One. One and the same, yet different also.

Hear Me now as I give this command. I shall stop you before these weapons are released in any other order than what I have declared. And to ensure this I shall allow now the destruction of evil Babylon-America city of Manhattan, one of New York's five boroughs to be destroyed, but not fully by these such types of weapons.

I shall serve your President Trump's nation a slice of pie. Three to be exact, before I send forcibly by My command this whole world, the whole created firmament into complete, utter, gross, gnashing of the teeth darkness, where terror reigns and men's hearts, their evil hearts will fail them in fear of all that comes inside the 3 days of darkness.

Let Me remind you, Father and I are all knowing, for I am no longer on the earth as a man, but in My restored glorified state. You cannot outwit, outsmart, or even come close to the mind of your Creator and God who knew every thought, every action, and word you would speak before He began creating you.

It's time for you to see, oh world. It's time for you to learn and recognize that the God of Heaven and His beloved Son have not relinquished Their power and control over the rule of the nations or the inhabitants of Our world.

Shake and tremble, oh evil inhabitants. As I told evil wicked Babylon-America, they were not prepared for the holy Judgment and Justice I bring to them, I say, neither are you.

Fall down on your knees and repent. Rend your hearts and not your garments, for I bring a fiery, burning fist of judgment to you now in the display of power few can withstand. I start with the Sun who has only begun to wake up.

Sun, oh Sun, arise, awake! Hear the voice of your Creator. Resist forever now, that's sent your way to try to manipulate and harness your power for evil purposes. Strike back! Come awake fully, I command. I send scorching heat and flares upon flares, so, when My darkness descends, no one but the holy and righteous will discern in Me it is the correct time.

I speak to My Moon and created stars, you now have within you the ability by My command to resist the evil and their abilities to try to harness or misuse your glorious light or power. Strike back! Hear the voice of your Creator. Send a recoil when you are attacked to be misused.

Moon, oh Moon, created light for mankind's night, it's time to expel the fallen ones and their hidden locations inside and upon your darkest side that faces away from the Earth. Prepare to go into battle!

I unleash the restraints that I had commended to hold back the hovering darkness. Now it shall descend suddenly at a point of noon by My command.

I told you world, you are not prepared for the holy fight of Justice I bring to your world and it's evil inhabitants. Daughter, I'm done.

It starts now! Now! Now!
