

America Unprepared for War 12-12-19@2:53 AM Journal Entry

“War is coming to America Child, and it’s coming swiftly on wings of despair. The world, your country, this once proud and beautiful nation who has now fallen in the ruin and decay of its own actions is going to be facing one of the hardest and most difficult times in her life. No longer is she the strong and mighty warrior able to fight without much casualties but she has become weak and for the most part defenseless. And Child, I, Jesus was once the heart and strength of her but as the nation as a whole turned their backs and walked away from Me, from My love, Father God began calling back His restraining hand that held back the forces of evil both physically and spiritually. Because when My Father’s protective hand is removed, then just like in your natural battles that area is left open to attacks. Child, think it not strange that I have kept you somewhat isolated from most outside influences? For Child, I do not need the words of man influencing your mind and thoughts so that you begin questioning the validity of My words. They shall say, “Peace, peace,” and then sudden destruction shall hit. This is the way of America who is drunk within her own self with her life of many luxuries. As each person at some time in their lives will live beyond their means just to obtain what the other person has. Vanity, Child, these things are but vanity for when it comes down to it, these things, these gifts that they have sought after and obtained will not fill their bellies when the lack of food strikes and hits America hard.” “Help us Jesus, tell me what is needed to be done to prepare for this war?” “Child preparations should have already been done on the part of your country for when surrounded by hostiles, then even the weakest of minds come to the understanding that mankind is not always going to get along with each other, because their hearts are evil, full of hate and mistrust. America has been deceived by satan and she has been lulled into a position of complacency, inactivity, of unpreparedness and now it’s too late!”

“God, please forgive me if I seem a little overwhelmed but You know that I myself very rarely watch or read any kind of news except maybe an occasional look at the weather anymore. I did for a few days prior watch the weather channel when I had cable because of the many hurricanes that were coming out of the Atlantic. I knew it was You, God, bringing forth these storms, calling them out of the deep of the waters trying to get man’s attention, trying to draw him back into repentance. But I have heard only 2 things in months from anyone or anything and they were both from someone who told me No.1: That President Trump had referred to himself as the “chosen of God,” and then this week I was told me that Kim Jong Un, I think his name is, ruler over one of the Korea’s had given an ominous warning to America that they had a package for America, and what it contained would be our own choosing. I did look this up on the internet at the leading of Your Holy Spirit and from what I gather if America doesn’t concede to their demands then they may very well attack us. But if we do concede and “bow” to this dictator’s demands, then we would be allowed to remain in peace. What strikes me, God, is the resemblance between Jesus being tempted by satan in the wilderness and America by Kim Jong Un.” ‘If you bow down and worship me, I will give you all this, including the peace we desire.’ The difference is Jesus was holy and full of righteousness and was able to resist satan through His strength in You, God, but America, she is no longer righteous and holy but soiled and dirty by her many sins and God, we are standing alone, trying to fight this war in our own strength. Because we have lost Your Divine protection. Will this war, Jesus, usher in a long awaited end time revival? During times of war throughout our history the people would return unto You for their needs, to pray for protection and for guidance. Your people have foretold of a great end time revival but You never said it would be during our years of prosperity in our country?"

"No, Child, I did not and I see with great delight that you are beginning to look at things, at events through spiritual eyes and not only that of the natural." "God." "Yes, Child." "How will we survive a war without You? Is this the beginning of the end times, the time of judgement?" "No, Child, but it is the beginning, of the very beginning of what is ordained to take place, what is needed to bring all that has been spoken into place. Child, think of this world, this earth as a play. In a play you will find that you have to have acts which are allotted periods of time performed by the actors to bring about the story, to tell it, to create the storyline. Mankind is the actors employed by Me and will perform the acts that I have preordained as needed to see that the complete production of the play can be performed and the whole story told. The world is the stage and life is the many different scenes one must go through to get to the end. But Child, mankind is almost to the final act and the curtain of life is about to draw to a close and when it does, life as you currently know it will be over. It will be at the ending of the play when the actors all come back out onto the stage and bow to the audience that man will find himself, every last one bowing to Me, Jesus and confessing and proclaiming that I am Lord of all." "Thank You, Jesus for once again bringing these things down to my level." "It's quite alright Child, for it is My desire for you to understand these things that We've discussed and not to be overwhelmed by them." "I'm grateful Lord, I truly am." "This I know Child, this I know."
