Sounding the Alarm (Part 2) 1-3-20@4:32 AM Journal Entry

“Upon hearing my alarm, just a sGod had spoken earlier, my thoughts were easily and swiftly upon the alarms being sounded across the world of these 3 things; the impending war, JesusChrist’s returning, and the imminent judgements. As I laid there thinking, I dozed off back to sleep. As my son came in from work, I awoke but then I fell back into sleep, even when my grandson who had slept in the bed with me last night awoke and crawled over me to get up and be with his daddy. I awoke briefly then dozed back off to sleep then sluggishly at 4:32 AM I awoke. My first thoughts being, “I’m late!” These words were shouting in my mind and immediately Jesus spoke.” “Congratulations you have now become My church who are mostly asleep and if not awakened, will sleep through My returning and upon awakening will find themselves facing the end time judgments. O’ foolish children, you have been warned! You have all been warned!”
