

Fake Auroras From Antichrist Dream 8-20-26@3:53 AM Shared 8-26-26

"Father God, Jesus Christ, and sweet Holy Ghost Spirit I have dreamed another dream and it discerns true from You again. Please Holy Ghost Spirit don't let me write one word or one description that's not from my lovely Jesus Christ." "I won't, Daughter of Zion, I won't."

It began when I found myself outside looking up at the night sky. I'm standing next to the vehicle we're currently driving. I am right behind the driver's open door as if I had just opened it and hadn't moved away from it yet. I glanced over to the front, passenger side of the vehicle and saw my son was standing before the opened door much like I was. I looked back toward the sky and said quickly, "Son, something's not right. Something's off and it's off badly. I feel this in my Holy Ghost knower." "I feel it too," my son said quickly. I nodded my head to him and said, "They're saying the auroras should appear in this area of the states."

"What do you think mom?" He asked. What is it that the Holy Spirit is telling you?" I turned to look at him directly in the eyes and replied, "Holy Ghost Spirit is saying it's deception. The enemy is going to try to flood the skies worldwide with the man-made aurora lights so that when the 3 days of darkness does not fall after the dancing lights have made a lingering appearance, that many of the world who heard of the auroras and darkness will think it all has been a lie. Especially the children of God who have been preparing. This is one of macron's plans. The man of sin doesn't miss a chance in trying to discredit our God or His children," I finished saying with a knowing voice.

"What do we do mom," he asked me quickly? "Son," I said with great determination, "we do what we're called to do. We get down on our knees in prayer and war in Jesus Christ's Name." When I said these words, the scene changed.

I found myself alone with my son no longer with me, nor am I in our vehicle. I am in a very dark room without any lights except one, lone flickering candle. It's one single candle inside the darkness, but even then, it drives back the gloom of the shadows like a beacon of hope and light. I heard a voice say behind me, "I am the Light of the world, Daughter, and it's through Me My children shall have light inside the three days of darkness. Just like it was provided for them when Pharaoh and all Egypt were inside the darkness alone, terrified, and without light. While the children of Israel's lights were in abundance."

I turned to where the voice had come from but saw only darkness. "Where are you," I asked out loud? Suddenly, a light appeared before me that grew bigger and brighter, and I saw my lovely Jesus Christ walking toward me. I took off running toward Him using the light erupting from Him to see the way. I threw myself into His open, outstretched arms. I felt Him wrap His arms around me in love. Tears of joy begin falling down my face. "I love You, I love You Jesus, Jesus Christ, I love You," I said passionately. "Daughter, I love you too," He said softly.

All the pain from the wounds and scars from the daily battles of being on the front line in this battlefield for the lost souls of man began easing that I had been feeling. I rested in His arms momentarily until I heard Him say, "Daughter, the three days of darkness is on its way. You know this. The period of mercy granted has now fully expired. It can go nowhere but forward and the time is set as you know." I pulled myself back to look into His holy eyes of blue and fire. His white, long hair was as white as fresh wool or fresh fallen snow. "This I know my Lord Jesus Christ," I responded then asked, "is there more You want to share with Me?"

He gave me a small smile then said, "Yes Daughter of Mine, there is. Come sit with me," He said as He walked toward the still burning candle. Suddenly, a wooden bench appeared. He motioned for me to sit down, which I quickly did and He followed suit. After sitting down beside me, He was silent for a few moments until finally He pointed to the single candle in the room still ablaze and said, "The antichrist has plans for the 3 days of darkness that needs to be revealed, Daughter, concerning the aurora lights. Will you share this for Me?" He asked me with an earnest look in His eyes. I looked at Him with love in my heart as I said quickly. "With Your help, yes I will, because with You my Love, all things I can and will do for the glory of Father God and You." He gave me a warm smile then said, "Yes, Daughter, you can because I exist inside you in your heart."

I gave Him a warm smile in return then in seriousness asked, "What is it that antichrist is planning?" "What he intends to do, Daughter," my lovely Jesus Christ said with an intense look in his eyes, "is this. He's planning to cause the dancing aurora lights to come prematurely and remain long enough for My children who have been watching and preparing to become discouraged and hopefully they will believe they have been deceived and disillusioned."

"This is so that when the real dancing lights come they will not cover the windows and doors. They will not be prepared. They will not stay inside and if this were to happen, many will be caught outside when the darkness settles down upon the Earth at the appointed noontime, high noon for the appointed day. This means that many when caught outside would be destroyed. It also means many whose hearts were not ready to meet Me before they died may not have time to repent. While others who would receive the final needed refining, testing, and purging inside of the three days of darkness would not have this opportunity for it to occur. Most of these would end up being left behind when I return from My bride." He finished saying.

The weight of His words weighed heavily upon me as I felt the color drain from my face. I managed to choke out these words. "Lord, that's not good. I've seen what the enemy does to someone caught outside and I have felt the terror found inside the darkness itself." He reached out and touched my left hand softly as He replied, "I know Daughter." We were quiet for a moment sitting in a comfortable silence yet the weight of His word still weighed heavy in the air. I felt His peace course through my body where He was touching my hand. Finally, my lovely Jesus Christ began speaking once again.

"The man of sin has ordered the Earth's atmosphere to become saturated in what the world is calling experiments. This is being done in the lower levels of the atmosphere in man's part of the skies he sees and operates in by planes, jets, through sprays, contaminants and more. In addition, through supposed testing like what's being done through Elon Musk's satellites. Elon is filling the higher atmosphere of the Earth's heavens, its firmament with many things in his fake experiments of the earth's atmosphere. This is so there will be an abundance of their chemicals & debris inside it. This has been in addition to all the fires and scorching I have been bringing in holy judgment upon this evil world."

He continued quickly as I listened intently to His every word. "At their planned moment in time, they will shoot waves from their pulse type devices directly into the sun causing a refraction of the sun's light which will cause a charge, an eruption. This is an eruption of the sun's flares and bursts. When the atmosphere is full of heavy debris or foreign substances not natural to how it was originally created, this helps the colorful auroras to be seen. Daughter, they've been doing these tests for a while. This is why a short time ago I commanded the sun, the moon, the stars, the heavens to fight back. This has caused antichrist much difficulty in his fake aurora tests."

"His plan is to coincide his strike on the sun, chancing at least one powerful blast each from his weapons directed at the sun and hitting it before the sun strikes back at the approximate time he sets off the three Pi 88 nuclear packages now hidden inside New York's Manhattan currently awaiting his orders. With the combination of all this inside the atmosphere it shall cause the natural occurring auroras, yes, but there will be the additional supplied power and debris that shall cause them to light up the world's skies."

"Lord Jesus Christ, why not just stop it? All it would take is one command from You," I said to Him quickly. He looked at me momentarily and looked back to the lighted candle. Then He spoke once again. "I could Daughter, but man's hearts are wicked, evil, and deceitful. Many of My own have grown lax, cold, and indifferent. Because of the condition of My body, My people so much is allowed to happen that a praying, warring body, a warring Church of Mine could have stopped or lessened," He finished saying.

"Could have stopped," I said, repeating Him. "Does this mean it can be stopped for some reason Jesus Christ my Love?" I asked. He gave me a small smile as He said, "Daughter, nothing is impossible for Me to do. What has occurred is that lucifer has presented himself before Father and Me, requesting this be allowed as part of the Pi 88 attack by antichrist's hands. He brought forth the evidence of so many evils of the people in the world. After weighing all the balances in fair justice, he was granted to be allowed to do this." "What!" I exclaimed. "Lord Jesus Christ, then why are You here? Please understand I would love to be forever in Your presence and have You never leave. Please be merciful to me when I ask why are You here warning me of this if antichrist is going to be allowed to create these fake auroras?"

I saw a big smile appear on His face that reached all the way up to His fiery blue eyes. I couldn't help but wonder what had made Him smile so big. Finally, He said, "Daughter, lucifer's petition was granted, yes, but, as you can see, I am telling you of his plans in advance so one of two things can happen." "Like what? What two things? What do you mean?" I asked Him quickly. He smiled again and again it reached all the way up to His eyes causing the holy flames to burn brighter inside them.

"I mean Daughter, number one, the warning can go out and My people can be aware of the coming planned deception of the enemy. As I said before, if those who are Mine earnestly seek Me if it's the time of the darkness or not, I would somehow let them know. This warning going out will expose lucifer and antichrist's trickery so that some will not fall for their deception." "Okay, I understand what You're saying here," I said quickly, then asked, "what's the second thing?" He looked at me intently, His eyes now fully ablaze with holy fire as He said, "My children can get on their knees and pray against this plan, because where two or more are gathered together, when they come together praying about the same situations in the world, I surely shall come down and intervene for them. I will answer them."

I looked at Him for a moment in stunned silence. Of course, He would intervene if more than one prays, because that's what's Written in His Holy Word. Finally, I could no longer refrain from saying out loud, "Lord Jesus Christ that's brilliant! You are so awesome. You did the just and fair thing because people's sins are so great and their hearts are so wicked and evil and granted lucifer, the devil, his request. Then you turn around and You're telling me, You're telling Your children their plans in advance so we can either be prepared or we can all begin praying in Your Name Jesus Christ for Father God and You to intervene. Wow! Lord when ole lu lu lucifer and antichrist find out they're going to be livid. They'll probably cry foul because You shared this with me," I finally finished saying.

When He looked at me I could tell my response had brought Him joy. Then His face took on a very serious look as He said, "Daughter, lucifer and his kingdom have no real authority or power. They have already been conquered and defeated by Me. They cannot demand anything. He made a formal request that when all evidence was weighed in the balances of righteousness of man's wicked deeds it was granted. As for My warning you, My Daughter, always remember, My children come first. I don't answer to lucifer's kingdom, I am God's Son. All My actions are just and righteous and what I have done stands true to My Written Word. There's nothing done by Father or Me without it being told to our prophets, whether male or female, and our children who speak Our Truths."

"I have told you what has been done, but also what you could do with the information you now have. You can be prepared in advance for lucifer and antichrist's deception of their planned premature, aurora dancing lights, or you can war against it in My Name in prayer. The choice will now be up to you and to My children. Share this Daughter, share it all and let it be a wake-up call to war for My children who are not slumbering." "I will Jesus Christ my Love, with Your help." "Thank you. My help is given," He said tenderly. He reached over and took my right hand and said, "Beloved Daughter of Mine, I love you." "I love you too Jesus Christ my Love," I replied. When I told Him I loved Him, I came abruptly out of my sleep, just as I heard Him reply, "I know this, Daughter." Tears filled my eyes as I realized I was no longer with my holy God and Savior Jesus Christ, but alone in my room once again. I set my face towards Heaven and began praying in my lovely Jesus Christ's Name about all I had learned this night.
