

Countries Will Align In This War 7-4-20@4:50 AM Journal Entry

“Today is Saturday the 4th of July, our Independence Day. All this information that You have given me, God, has been being brought forth about war since September 2019, the 29th @ 2:52AM titled, “Chemical and Nuclear War” when I uploaded it to Your website. As I am reminded of all these things, I can’t help but be in awe of how You in all Your infinite wisdom, Your great intelligence have been continually moving, placing and commanding all these things, all our lives to come together to fit snugly as an interlocking jigsaw puzzle that makes a complete perfect picture with not one piece missing or unused. You use everyone of us that You place upon the earth whether it’s momentarily like that of an innocent baby that dies at an early age, or the aged old person who lives to be a ripe old age as we say here on earth before You. For we are all included to bring about Your divine will, Your perfect and holy plan, because Your will shall be accomplished upon this earth and all that You have created. I am amazed, Jesus, I am amazed, and I am astounded though I should not be at the confirmation that You have brought forth to us, to me. Thank You Jesus Christ! Thank You so much for this kindness You have shown us, Your little children.”

“Have not I told you Child, told everyone that it is okay to ask and seek confirmation? I even left you an example found in My Holy Word of the man Gideon who not once, but twice, desired and asked confirmation of My words to him, which I showed and I gave to him. My word, these holy Scriptures are not just bedtime stories as some have made them out to be, but godly examples of lessons that if you will read or listen to, will lead and guide you in the ways of truth, of Me, Child, for I am Way, the Truth, Child, the Truth, and I am Life to all who receives My wonderful gift of Salvation offered freely to all mankind, for I am Jesus, Child. I am the Son of the Living God. Jehovah is His Name and it’s by Our command that all that you love, you see, you know and even the unknown things yet to be learned by man have been spoken into existence. Father God and I, as I tell you so often, We are One, Yet, We are separate. It is not necessary for you to understand the ‘how’s,’ but for you to realize as you speak with One, both of Us are present and We hear and know all that transpires. Not only when We...when I speak with you or any of My beloved children... for again I say, We... I am all knowing and know all that has happened, all that is going to happen, and what is occurring in the ‘now’ the present time period.”

You keep asking Me Child, if you heard Me incorrectly about this sign, the signal from your President Trump, this speech he will give publicly broadcasted near and far wherein he is going to bring forth railing accusations and strong allegations against Xi Jinping the king of the east and his country, the nation of China, declaring the manufacturing of this Coronavirus. Although it has mutated into different strains as you have called them, they all originate from the same one, which your president will announce was made in the Wuhan lab, their lab of Virology. He will then bring forth the blame for this worldwide spread of this disease, this pandemic and place it upon the shoulders of Xi Jinping and his country and then demand restoration, compensation, reimbursement to the people of your once great nation for its failed economy, for this I have told you would occur. Questions that you have brought, not out of doubt that they are going to happen, for I see within you Child the full realization that these things are coming to pass and although man through touching My Father’s heart, Our heart through prayer has granted a delay and then a slight pause, a momentary stall these things, these events shall not be stopped. But because you have heard the dreams of Dana Coverstone, one of the pastors located in the state called Kentucky, you asked, is the beginning of this war of nations going to be in September? Because in the eyes of mere mortal men who do not understand My way of love, of mercy, of compassion, they are saying you have gotten these dates, these events wrong. You are unknowingly letting them influence you. It is My sovereign right Child, to change My mind or to pause a situation causing a pronounced judgment to occur at a different time, but in actual reality it will be occurring right on and in My perfect timing. I am God, Child, not man.”

“This is not as man calls, a grey area Child. Man uses this to condone sin at times to be allowed to justify his sinning. Let Me make this clear before you Child, and before man. There are no grey areas with Me, for I am a holy being, and there will never be any sign or trace of sin found within My holy body, My being. I have revealed to you already Child, that My holy words I speak to you, or any of My people they will in some way be given in a conditional or unconditional form. If it is conditional, then I will tell you I will do ‘this’ if man does ‘this,’ but if man does not heed My holy words, then ‘this’ shall come to pass. An unconditional word from Me is an absolute truth that nothing can stop these events from occurring, like My return to your world, this earth to claim My own, My beloved people. Those found faithful in heart and not in their lip service, or when I tell you as I have told you from the start, the man antichrist shall rise and bring hell on earth to all mankind, and there is nothing that any man can do to prevent these things from occurring. I will at times also give prophetic words to reveal things to someone about themselves, or someone else, because My hands are not tied from lack of knowledge. Child, I know all things. I see what happens in the open as well as the dark hidden chambers of men. I hear every word and thought that comes into existence both the good and the bad. So Child, just because I emphasized the months of March and June, then September and then My smashing fist upon November, does not mean war will start in September, for Child, I choose not to reveal all that is to occur to just one, but many. To give all knowledge to just one would cause that person to become elevated among other men, not necessarily by he, himself, but that of others and this Child is a dangerous place to be, For no one, not one single person, place, or thing, shall set itself above My Father’s Heavenly Throne.”

“The war Child, this war of nations will not be delayed or stalled again and I am now revealing it more fully to those of My people who have listening ears and hearts. The invasion, the invasion will begin. Parts of your land in California, New Mexico, Arizona, New York, and Florida, plus that of Vermont, Connecticut and New Jersey shall be invaded at this time from the invading forces of the bear which is known as Russia, of the king of the east and his people known as China and the people from the South below which is called Mexico. All shall join together under the leadership of Vladimir Putin, leader, tyrant over Russia the bear, but Iran and Iraq who will have joined with the evil Putin, within the first round of attacks during his first strike with the weapons, these missiles with the power of the nuclei built within the heads of each, they shall attack your forces on land and by water, those that remain in the region of land you call the Middle East, but look for them to send aid and reinforcements, for they aid in this invasion, as well as Kim Jong Un from North Korea. The king of the south, the most evil of 3 shall rise quickly to the aid of Putin after betraying your nation. Saudi shall stand with Putin.”

“Bulgaria, Germany, those who persecuted My beloved people in times past. France, Columbia, Syria are but a few that shall either send reinforcements in the form of soldiers, military equipment or items of necessities such as food, clothing and medical supplies. While others shall aid those people in the invaders' countries who are suffering also from this war, this war of nations. Remember Child, this war is to be accompanied by great famines of dearth both of the physical and the spiritual of nature in addition to drought, flooding, known and unknown diseases with pestilences, for even nature shall strike out, because the earth shall be out of its natural balance from the great force of these weapons of the nuclei upon her soil in various locations. It is the little people as man calls them, the civilians who shall suffer the most. There will be many times that supplies and food will be taken from among the people and sent to aid the needs of the soldiers and leaders of this war of nations and both sides shall be guilty of doing this. But your nation shall do it out of desperation to prevent the further invasion, while the combined forces of Putin's invading armies, many of their leaders shall take from their own, not from actual needs, but from their wants to fulfill the desire of their own flesh no matter what the cost to the other person or people. Such is the way of evil men when sin rules their blackened hearts...No compassion found whatsoever within.”

“Brazil, Child, they shall bow to the evil Putin's seducing words and veiled threats and send aid to his forces, as well as Venezuela, but Mongolia, that country which is ruled by the twisted and evil rule of Xi Jinping's regime and sandwiched is their country between the bear of Russia and the king of the east's land of China, they shall find the strength that lays buried within their people as a nation and shall stand against the oppressive forces of Xi Jinping and that of Putin's and with most of their forces being dispersed to your nation in this invasion. Except for those necessary to maintain the protection of their borders with the exception of Putin's forces, which he shall use to invade the country of Poland, but many of these forces shall come from the country called the Ukraine. Their loyalty as a whole lies with the evil Putin, but given the lessened military strength available to these borders, Mongolia shall turn and offer aid to your stricken nation, your United States.”

“All is not hopeless Child. Have not I told you that when your nation as a whole, not all but a greater amount than now, turns from their evil and wicked ways and repents, coming to Me, their God in humble submission, I, Jesus Christ, will step in and start healing your land? I will cause restoration to begin quickly, swiftly and that which was dry, crackly and barren shall bring forth life, food and herbs of the field once again aiding your nation's ability to feed itself and make medicines. I will cause nations once neutral to have compassion upon your nation, and they in turn shall offer well needed aid and support. I will begin blessing those who will step out and bless you, but yet, greater still I will shower you once again with My favor and blessings, even give you a leader who will follow My leading. Why do you think Child, there is a record?... All that you upload. It is to be passed on to him and other leaders who will lead your nation against the combined invading forces of Xi Jinping and Putin who will eventually be assassinated through the orders of Xi Jinping himself, yet, another more brutal and cruel shall arise and take his place maintaining the balance of power between these great 2 powerful leaders. Do not overlook the significance and value, the importance of having the queen of the east, the UK on your side, for she, next to My beloved Israel shall become your most powerful ally. They control many countries, but alas, Elizabeth, their queen will fall to illness before the full ending of this war of nations, but not before she arranges for the aid of your nation to continue even after her passing, still ruling even after her death and her heir, he will not be able to change what she has instituted in place with the aid of Parliament.”

“Greenland shall stand firm as well as the country of your bordering neighbor that which is called Canada, for her people are stout of heart and although lax in their morals, their conviction in most part of the injustices brought upon your nation shall cause them to come to your defense. Word will get out, as you say, ‘spread’ about the atrocities done to your people, your civilians, and soldiers who are captured and you will be treated no better than My own beloved backsliding Judah and unfaithful Israel. Your women, your men, your children will be ravished. Your people herded like cattle into camps. Some of your cities shall be wiped out through these weapons that are chemical by nature, for no longer does man just use spears and swords, for when they have become more advanced, their primitive weapons have been replaced with those of mass destruction capabilities. Remember Child, this is war and war is evil and controlled by satan and his demons and the only hope for your people, your nation to survive is Me.”

“But as I have foretold, your people in a great majority shall repent, and I shall keep your nation from being utterly destroyed, and as you people fall back under the protective covering of My love and favor, I will over time aid you in driving these invading forces off of your soil, and back into the waters of the deep and there they shall remain, stayed by My great and powerful hands until I’ve gathered those still here who are Mine. If Father God has not sent Me before your war of nations begins in full, then your world will immediately be advanced to the great and terrible time of judgment known also as the tribulation period where antichrist shall reign supreme and the nations of your world will be weakened by other means. Will this war of nations continue after the evil, invading forces are driven back to the waters of the deep? Absolutely, for war will still be fought from your soil by your people and your allies. Many will have joined your crippled and wounded nation by this time, and you will attack by land and they by the oceans, the waters of the deep. Except for the forces of the people of the south, for they will be driven back into their own land, and no longer raise their hand against your once great nation.”

It’s by My imminent return, in which all mankind as a whole shall enter into and begin this time of judgment at which time man will be made to face Our wrath, Our wrath Child, Father God’s and Mine. Up to this point you have only endured Our righteous indignation, Our holy anger against Man’s unrepented sins. Woe, woe I say to the inhabitants of your world, your earth for judgment has come to all. You have been weighed in the balances and are found guilty and it’s time for you to serve your sentence. There will be no more grace periods given, for man is living on borrowed time. Your pause is over. The stall has been removed and war is now headed forward. Be wary Child, and stay in constant prayer. The wait is over and it’s begun already. Pray little children pray and pray continually for I hear you and I am moving for you. Pray children, pray for therein lies your strength, for I am your strength and you can always find Me when you pray with a sincere and pure heart before Me. Pray, I say, Pray and pray some more.”

Regime definition: 1. a government, especially an authoritarian one. 2 .a system or planned way of doing things, especially one imposed from above. (This is the definition for how this word is used in this journal entry mentioned priorly.)

I'm adding this from another later dream Lord willing to help bring all this into focus in how it's transpiring.

The U.S., Russia, Kazakhstan on the Eve of it All Dream 1-7-22@10:01 AM

He continues, "But do not forget that Kazakhstan was also formerly part of the Soviet's U.S.S.R." "So, what are you meaning, Jesus," I ask? "The match has been lit, and the wick is ignited and burning down fast. Momentarily it will burst into a full roaring explosion. Your countdown has, as I told you, reached zero. Zero in your natural war and not just the spiritual is today, which is the sixth, but also the seventh...on the eve of it all." "This action today is the spark that begins war. Daughter it is indeed these actions of today, brought on by Putin's move on the Ukraine that has started this foretold war. When both Russia and your once great nation of America fought these battles, this war in Kazakhstan on this day on the eve of it all, it started. Even though you will not hear much evidence of your nation, or your allies, being here on most of your news outlets." "This dream came after I prayed myself back to sleep. What exactly does all this mean?" "It's simple," Jesus said, "Daughter, the first phase of war has begun. The start of it, on the eve of it all, with "me" being the "all!"
