

The Eagle Has Fallen, Now War Is Here 6-9-20@4:27 AM Journal Entry

"Your world stands at the edge of war, this war of nations. Child, these things I tell you are all true. Some shall enter your military in the draft placed upon your country due to this war, this war of nations. As nations rise against one another, dividing your world almost in half. Some aligning with your once great nation, while some shall join with the evil forces that are led in part by Putin and that of Xi Jinping, each men of power, each desiring the position as leader, as ruler of your once great nation which would push them and their country as the super power of your world. War is harsh Child, it is cruel and evil in all its ways, driven by men full of satan's demons making them his servants of sin. Demon possession Child, the taking control of inhabiting a person's body who opened themselves up to the power of satan is still occurring today and shall until the end of time until the Great Day of Judgement. When men and women embrace the ways of satan knowingly and unknowingly, they open up doors in their lives. Doors and windows which allow them, these demons and the fallen ones access. For satan himself, shall not possess a man's body until antichrist rises and when he is struck in the head by a lethal blow, he will rise again through the possession of satan within his body. Something that is only possible through Me, for it is I who gives the breath of life and who takes it away. This a necessary occurrence for he must needs, be allowed to rule upon your world, this earth for the appointed, allotted time to accomplish all that has been preordained and set into motion. All things that have occurred and are still to come are all needful Child, for Father God and I do nothing or allow nothing without a divine reason or purpose behind it.

Yes, this is partly why evil is allowed to occur for during your trials and tribulations, those who run to Me, if they are listening, paying attention to My voice and the leading of My Holy Spirit, they shall grow in Me, learn lessons of great value and importance. Child, this is how it has been ordained to be, for when I said, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself,' this is exactly what I meant and it still holds true today. But remember Child, if My Holy Words are written down as spoken by My Father, Jehovah God, then they are from Me as well. Father God and I, We are the same Child. We exist as One holy Being, yet, coexist as separate entities also. Each lesson that you learn in life is not only to aid and help yourself, but when led by My Holy Spirit you will find yourself using, reaching out to all you meet, for no one is sent into your path accidentally. Again I say, there are no coincidences with Me Child. No surprises or chance meetings and happenings, for they are either divinely arranged by Me, or allowed by Me for satan to arrange for his evil plans to be accomplished. Satan and his demons...the fallen ones are only tolerated...allowed for their allotted time on the earth, but at the ending of all time as you know it, he will get his just reward. He, and all the fallen ones and yes, his beloved antichrist and his false prophet shall all, after bowing before Me on bended knees and crying out and declaring that I, Jesus am the true King, the King of kings, Lord of All Creation then they shall all be cast into the lake of fire. Their torment, their punishment shall be for all eternity which will also, when those who had rejected Me as their Lord and Savior and those still in hell, they, including hell itself shall all be cast into the eternal lake of fire with unspeakable horrors and torments where all traces of sin and its existence shall be removed from your world once and for all. There will be no return of it ever, ever again! These words I speak are of the truth, for I am Truth, Child. Look within My Holy Scripture and find for yourself the proof that lies within its pages. What I speak to you shall always line up with My written Holy Word which your world calls by the name of the Bible, the Holy Bible.

This war of nations, Child, is due to commence shortly. These are not idle words and I know Child, and I know that you have heard word twice now war is not coming. It is being told by man, pastors, preachers, and teachers in high positions according to your world's system, which is yours Child, and not Mine. I elevate none above another, for all are equal in My eyes, and if you will take notice Child, truly take notice at Calvary the ground is level, making it easily accessible to all men equally. Child, when man gets so learned in knowledge...even those led by Me cannot understand fully all that is written within My Holy Scripture until Holy Spirit reveals it to them... at times whether intentionally or unintentionally, assumptions are made. Child, I have warned quite often never, never assume anything, but come to Me for all, all things both big and small in your eyes and I, through My precious Holy Spirit shall reveal the truth of the matter. It is not for one man, one woman or one organization to know all the secrets found written within My Holy Word, for man...you are not God! I am!

War is here Child! Your nation will feel the force of the missiles, these weapons with the power of the nuclei strike upon your soil, your once great nation. As well as that of the queen of the east... the UK, Kim Jong Un's nation which is called by the name of North Korea, Iraq, Iran, and that of Putin's land which is called Russia. This has been called forth by Father God and is ordained to occur. The weapons, those chemical in nature, shall be used during the invasion upon your soil as well as your more conventional arsenal of your modern day weapons. I tell you Child, do not allow yourself to be deceived, for did not the false prophets in the days of Jeremiah cry, 'peace, peace,' after I had announced through Jeremiah the besiege and destruction of his beloved Israel and that of Judah as well? I am not calling of these who speak words of peace false... prophets, for not all are. Yet, some Child, some definitely are, but they are 'educatedly' unlearned, or untold in all that is taking place in your world today. I am using those considered in the eyes of man, 'lowly in stature,' for here among the poor is where the pure in heart are found in the majority. Many through their meager means have learned how to trust in Me for all their needs and seek Me in all ways as you have done, and still do today. It's even, as in your church's Child. Do you see My gifts of My Holy Spirit flowing freely in most of them in your country today? Let Me answer this for you Child. No! No! No! For man thinks he knows better than Me, their Creator, and My precious gifts are no longer needed to be My holy church.

Now look further Child, at other countries, nations of your world that you call your third world nations how My precious Holy Spirit is free to move. Or these countries where belief in Me is done in secret because there's no other way to spread this blessed hope, because of the oppression of those in leadership above them. My gifts are not dead, but fully alive for you cannot, no matter how you try, put out this flame, the fire of My Holy Ghost. This Holy Spirit, no matter how man continually tries, and he will Child, over and over, but if it is extinguished in one area, it will as you say Child, pop up in another. I will always have My remnant. The Holy Spirit is part of Me. We are also the same being, yet, separate. He has been sent down to lead, to comfort, to instruct My true believers. Through Him you will have a greater discernment of good and evil. He will lead you in all truth, in the ways of Me, for I, Child, I am truth, pure and holy truth. My words shall stand forever. Nothing can move them or shall even be able to cause them to return unto Me void. It's through My voice, the voice and authority of Father God, for it is He who has called forth this war of nations and all that is occurring upon your world today.

It's all going to take place: the war, the famine of pure Word and of food and necessities, drought, yet, flooding. Pestilences shall appear in abundance brought forth by man's sins, for if he as a whole, would have fallen on their faces or their knees and cried out to Me in humble and true repentance, many of these things would have been refrained from coming forth. I warned Child, time and time again, did I not that you would see the rise of known and unknown diseases within your world? What about the recurrence of such diseases, plagues you have named Chicken Pox or Measles to name just a few? What about this coronavirus your scientists and great minds have named Covid-19 which keeps to their horror mutating, causing it to become most difficult to produce a cure, which an actual 100% cure will never be found unless they heed, pay attention of what I have given them. I surely shall use the simple and foolish things of the world and confound your so-called great minds, your wise ones of your world. Your world is descending into what is to be one of the darkest periods of your history for that of fallen man, but not for those who truly believe in Me. Yes, war will be hard, even harsh at times, but those of Mine who do not now, will learn to walk more fully in faith in Me. They will rely on Me to meet their needs, and I shall Child, I shall. They shall return to the old ways, the old paths where man seeks Me first in all ways for My Holy Spirit to lead. As man's hearts begin returning back to Me, I will begin healing your land. Your physical land where it will be once again able to produce good food, as well as healing it spiritually. During the invasion upon your soil, your country's land as your people began turning to Me, not all, but many, I will step off of My Heavenly throne and I will begin restoring favor upon your land. I will send this promised revival to your world. I will cause more countries, those who were neutral, to rise up out of their seats of complacency, and they shall begin sending aid and raising opposition to the forces who dares to lift their hand against your once great nation, you who were once called My people.

War is here Child. It is upon your nation, your world, called forth by your wicked, wicked ways as a whole people, for it is your nation who shall suffer more severely. Your nation has forgotten Me, their holy God, and the nation who forgets Me as their Lord is turned into hell, and this is the state, the condition your nation is found to be in. To turn Child, to move around as to effect a desired end is your dictionaries definition. Some will say, 'to turn,' is not leading you only to your eternal destination of hell for those who refuse to repent, but in all actuality has allowed your enemy satan to bring his kingdom and set it up among your people, and now you have 'hell' on earth, upon your nation. Look closely Child, for the effects of it is already clearly evident, for hatred abounds among your people and even your races. Not only are your women ravished, but your men are forced as well, for so perverse has your nation become. You abuse your own children, or that of others to satisfy the desires of your flesh, destroying in most cases their innocence and always their trust in people. You live lavishly in the sins of adultery, fornication, and any other pleasuring of the flesh that you can obtain. Your nation's word, its honor has become tainted and tarnished from the many half truths and right out lies, yet, subtleties and deception have become more often the ways within your government which was built upon your beliefs in Me, and once led by My Holy Spirit.

Look how far you have fallen, O' eagle of the nations who takes your pleasure feeding among the buzzards, eating that which is dead already and full of decay and disease, the disease of sin. She who once soared among the lofty peaks, the heights above her enemies, your pride within yourself in all that I have given you has struck you down. Your wings have been clipped by the deception of sin and restoration is only possible when you as a people, your nation returns to Me once again and makes Me their God, their Lord and Savior, for I, Jesus Christ is the only true way for man to be saved and redeemed and to be able to approach Our Heavenly Father. It is not enough to believe just in Him and His existence, but to receive the gift of eternal life and to spend eternity in Heaven, to be able to even truly approach Father God, you have to go through Me. I am the only doorway to Father God and to gain entrance into Heaven. It is necessary for My Blood to be applied and to remove all sin from your life which is only possible through accepting this free gift of Salvation and inviting Me to live within your hearts. I have told you already in My Holy Scripture through John, known as the beloved, that no man cometh unto the Father, but through Me Child. Man can read it for himself in chapter 14, in the 6th verse. Search My Scriptures. Study and learn them, but through the leading of My Holy Spirit, for as I have told you Child, being intelligent and educated by man can be good. But to be taught through the leading of My Holy Spirit is preferred. Then you do not have to weed out the tares of man's opinions and doctrines to get to the pure grain, the wheat of the word. This does not mean that you are to abstain from hearing truly anointed men and women of God, for at times this is how I choose to reveal Myself and My holy ways to that of other people, but even then when listening, you must needs pray for wisdom and discernment. Misunderstandings or interpretations of the Scriptures can become misconstrued and you find yourself possibly being deceived.

It is always good to come to Me for verification, and when you let My Holy Spirit lead you, His holy discernment, a gift I give to you, some in more portions than others, but it will reveal if what is being taught is truth or not. If and when in doubt, search it out in the Scripture yourself. Take no man's word no matter how trusted, for in the end they are people, and people can, and will fail. They are faulty in nature due to the sin nature they are now born into. You are to work out your own Salvation with fear and trembling as My servant Paul spoke to you when he addressed the church of Philippi by letter. It is the Father, Father God who works in you, His will and to do His pleasure when you serve Me, faithfully serve Us.

Child, I have given you much to think on this morning. Take these words of caution and advice to your mind and apply them within your heart, for I would not have you or any of My children to face this war of nations or even your daily life unprepared. Life itself is a spiritual battlefield in which the righteous and holy forces of Father God and of Me with Our holy angels, fight continually against the forces of darkness and evil, of satan and his demons, the fallen ones for it is necessary for a time for them to be allowed to exist to accomplish all that Father God has spoken. All things found written in Our Holy Scripture and that I have been speaking of late, shall all come to pass, for you cannot contain My whole vocabulary to just My Scriptures. I have not stopped speaking to My people after these divinely written Scriptures were brought forth. Child, I will never speak a Word of truth that does not line up with My Holy Scripture, for I am the Lord and I change not. Be careful Child. Be cautious, for the enemy has set many a trap before you and your friends. All these things are coming to a head, as you say Child, in preparation for this war of nations." "I love You, God." "I know this Little One, get ready! Be prepared for it will, begin soon."

Jeremiah 6:16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.
